COVER FOR MIRACLE MILE CHANNEL

Storm drains at the San Rafael end of the Miracle Mile, running from Marquard Avenue to Greenwood Avenue, are being covered this week in a project to close the open channel that has already claimed one wayward auto. Ghilotti Bros. of San Rafael are the contractors for the job expected to be completed by August 15, reported Norris Rawles, director of San Rafael's department of public works. He said the work would cost $38,380.

Trains Begin To Roll; Strike Panel Is Named

Picketing Still Holds Some Runs

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

The first nationwide railroad strike in 21 years was over, officially, today but some of the trains still were not rolling.

The strike, which sputtered to a start Sunday, was having a difficult time dying. Minutes after President Johnson signed rushed—through legislation last night the picket signs began coming down. But many railroads still were not in full operation by noon today and some were shut down completely.

NAMES PANEL

While trains began to roll again, Johnson this morning named a blue-ribbon panel headed by Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Oregon, to seek settlement of the long-standing railway labor dispute. He said he was "very hopeful we can get agreement between the parties."

In addition to Morse, an Oregon Democrat, members of the mediation board are:

Frederick Kappel, former president of the American Telephone and Telegraph Co.; George Meany, president of the AFL-CIO; former Republican Sen. Leverett Saltonstall of Massachusetts, and Theodore Kheel, veteran mediator who had a key part in rail negotiations in 1964.

The Association of American Railroads announced from its Washington headquarters that the Norfolk and Western, the Seaboard Coast Line and the Louisville and Nashville still were shut down. The AAR said these major lines were inoperative because the strike apparently still was tying up the St. Louis Terminal Railroad, which affects the three larger carriers.

STILL PICKETING

At Albuquerque, N. M., the spokesman for six shopcraft unions said the strike against the Santa Fe still is not over. He charged the Santa Fe was guilty of a "lockout."

The Seaboard Coastline's Raleigh, N. C., office said the line still was being picketed, and a spokesman for the Southern Pacific said pickets had returned to their Tucson posts after a two-hour absence. The AAR said the Southern Pacific still was not operating in the Los Angeles area.

The Chesapeake and Ohio and the New York Central still were without full service and the Mil-

LBJ STILL SEES TAX HIKE NEEDS

President Still Standing Behind His 6 Per Cent Tax Surcharge Proposal

WASHINGTON (UPI) —President Johnson said today he still believes strongly that a tax increase will be needed this year.

At an impromptu White House news conference, the chief executive said he still stands behind his recommendation of a 6 per cent income tax surcharge. But he said this might be adjusted after further study.

He added that while he realized Congress has its problems, he hopes the House will take up a tax bill next month.

There has been speculation that because of the rising cost of the Vietnam war and other reasons, the 6 per cent figure might be raised to as much as 10 per cent.

On other subjects, not including naming of a rail panel, Johnson told reporters:

West German Chancellor Kurt Georg Kiesinger will visit Washington Aug. 15-16. This confirmed a report from Bonn to that effect.

Recent racial rioting in New Jersey is to be deeply regretted, but it reflects the fact that the nation will continue to be confronted with "unpleasant situations," until there is substantial progress toward improving the living conditions, education and employment opportunities for poorer people of urban centers.

He anticipates a new summit meeting of the Vietnam war allies "in the next few weeks or months," but he said no time, place or agenda had been decided upon.

It is true that American forces probably had suffered more casualties than the South Vietnamese during the past couple months but he said this

Tragedy Ends Long-Awaited Vacation Trip

San Rafael Wife Slips Through Life Ring On Swim

Mrs. Dorothy V. Keys, 56, of San Rafael, drowned at Clear Lake yesterday on a family vacation she and her husband had planned for years.

Mrs. Keys drowned while her husband, John J. Keys, and a son, John D. Keys, tried to save her.

BOUGHT BOAT

The son said today his parents had saved for years and bought a camping outfit, including a small power boat. The three went to Clear Lake Sunday night and camped, then went fishing in the boat yesterday morning.

As it grew warm, the son said, he and his mother put on life rings and swam near the boat while the father continued to fish.

RESCUE FAILS

Mrs. Keys' little ring slipped from under her, he said, and she got in trouble although she was normally a capable swimmer. The son said he tried to hold onto her, but was being pulled under himself.

When he swam after the life ring to hold his mother up, she sank from sight, he said. His father was unable to bring the boat alongside because it was anchored and "it all happened

Marine Pledge Cancels Out Closing Of Viet Showplace

SAIGON (UPI)—The Saigon government today canceled an order to close down a $50 million industrial showplace near Da Nang after the U.S. Marine Corps gave assurances the company could be protected against attacks by the Viet Cong.

The decision followed announcement of a series of American victories in the Da Nang area including the sinking of a 71-boat Communist arms convoy by three American rocket-firing helicopters barely 20 miles from the industrial complex at An Hou.

Americans had criticized the Saigon government decision to close the combination steam generator electrical plant and fertilizer plant as handing the Communists a major propaganda victory without a fight. Marines who had lost scores of their own dead defending it were shocked.

The plant, 28 miles southwest of Da Nang, had been designed as a showplace of Vietnamese ability to "build while fighting." South Vietnamese Economics Minister Nguyen Huu Hanh closed the prestige project because of "poor security" although the Marines said no Vietnamese workers had ever been killed there.

The plant is designed to take advantage of low grade coal found in the area and will generate 25,000 kilowatts of power when finished in addition to manufacturing ammonia sulphates to enable farmers to double their rice production.

Closing would have forced unemployment on hundreds of workers, most of them refugees from the Viet Cong. Hanh, after conferences with Lt. Gen. Robert Cushman, commander of the U.S. III Marine Amphibious Force, also ordered reopening of a technical school there and rehiring of most of the work force.

The destruction of the smuggler convoy on the Truong Giang River on South Vietnam's northern coast followed the U.S. Navy-Coast Guard destruction Friday of a 120-ton North Vietnamese arms trawler nearby and coincided with the killing of 16 Communists by Marines in the same area today.

In other action, U.S. jets flew 134 missions against North Vietnam's war machine Monday, spokesmen said. They returned to the Don Son oil depot 13 miles from the major port of Haiphong and left it churning

Patrick Says He'll Work For Rafferty

LOS ANGELES (AP) — William Penn Patrick, San Rafael businessman and Republican, said today he will campaign for the nomination of State Supt. of Public Instruction Max Rafferty on the Republican ticket for U.S. Senator.

"I have decided that I will subordinate any drive or desire to run for the Senate, Patrick said of his own political ambitions.

At a Los Angeles news conference Patrick said he would assure Rafferty of pledges exceeding $300,000, including his own "major contribution."

Rafferty has not announced as a candidate.

The cosmetic manufacturer and onetime candidate for the Republican gubernatorial nomination said he had traveled through California evaluating the possibilities of running against Republican Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel.

"We have found a majority of Republicans feel Senator Kuchel does not represent Republican thinking, and has often demonstrated disloyalty to the party," Patrick said.

He called for the creation of "a solid front in the support of one conservative candidate." Patrick appealed to such poten-

Peninsula Commuter Trains Moving Again

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The Southern Pacific Co. said today it was resuming its 22 commuter trains between San Jose and San Francisco.

Because of the national rail strike, the trains did not move yesterday, leaving stranded their usual 12,000 commuters on the San Francisco Peninsula.

An SP spokesman said pickets left both the San Francisco and San Jose terminals and service resumed with a train from San Jose at 5:05 a.m.

Because there was insufficient time to prepare the morning trains between Los Angeles and San Francisco, these will not operate today, the road said. These trains are the San Joaquin Daylight and the Coast Daylight. The line expects to get them operating by tomorrow.

Whether the long distance afternoon trains will operate depends on picketing, the SP spokesman added. There still is scattered picketing along the SP rails which extend from New Orleans to Portland, Ore.

Afternoon trains are the City of San Francisco between San Francisco and Chicago; the Cascade, between San Francisco and Portland; the Golden State, between Los Angeles and Chicago; and the Sunset, between Los Angeles and New Orleans.

Lifting of freight will depend also on the picketing stiuation.

In Los Angeles, pickets withdrew and trains rolled again today on one major rail line serving Southern California. However, the other two were still virtually idle.

The Union Pacific said service was resumed in this area when three eastbound freight trains, each of 100 cars, departed beginning at 1 a.m.

On the Santa Fe and the Southern Pacific, it was a different story in the southland.

A Santa Fe spokesman said only trains operated by supervisory personnel were running. All shipments, including perishables, dead weight and materiel for Vietnam were severely curtailed, he said.

A Southern Pacific official said no SP trains were moving and that picketing was continuing at numerous areas.

Party Ticket Of Thieu-ky Is Approved

SAIGON (UPI)—The National Assembly early today approved Chief of State Nguyen Van Thieu and Premier Nguyen Cao Ky as presidential running mates after a day of crisis in which the military junta ordered a troop and police alert.

In a marathon session that extended until the early hours of the morning 56 of the 117 members of the National Assembly voted to permit Thieu to run as president and Ky to run for vice president in the Sept. 3 elections.

The military junta had called an emergency session and ordered a troop and police alert after a parlimentary committee refused earlier to approve the two generals. The moves threatened South Vietnam with a grave new political crisis.

And, in a move that could stir up the Buddhist opposition to the military government, the National Assembly refused to permit exiled Gen. Duong Van (Big) Minhr and "Neutralist" candidate Au truong Thanh to run in the Sept. 3 election.

Unincorporated Areas May Pay For Police

Marin supervisors today endorsed the idea of a county service area in unincorporated portions for police protection, and agreed to set a public hearing on the plan for the beginning of October.

The date of the hearing will depend on when a report of the level of municipal police and sheriff's deputies is prepared. Supervisors asked the report be made available to cities and the county by Aug. 30.

Under a county service area, the patrol functions and other services now financed by county-wide taxes would be borne by taxpayers in the unincorporated area.

It has been agreed by the City-County Services Committee and the Marin Council of Mayors and Councilmen that police protection in Marin City, protection connected with tourism, and regional needs and a certain minimum level of patrol would remain as a county-wide responsibility to be borne by all taxpayers.

Supervisors expressed concern today over the impact of a service area in the unincorporated parts of their districts, but no new tax structures were discussed.

Chairman Thomas T. Storer said he favored a consolidation of all law enforcement in the county and hoped that West Marin residents would not be "saddled" with a heavy tax because of the recreational attractions in the area requiring heavier police supervision.

Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen said attempts should be made to enlarge the patrol force

ABAG Vote Proportion May Change

Reorganizing the Association of Bay Area Governments executive committee to provide proportional representation will be discussed by the committee at its 7:30 p.m. meeting, Thursday, at the Hotel Claremont in Berkeley.

Marin County, which now has two representatives—one county and one city — would still have two but would have 5.9 per cent of the vote instead of the present 10 per cent. Marin County has about 4.4 per cent of the total Bay Area Population, said executive director Warren Schmid

The vote would be a little higher for Marin than its 4.4 population percentage, because a 34-man committee was decided to be of workable size and the association felt that there should be a minimum of two members for each county, according to Schmid.

The present committee has eight county members, nine city members and two members-at-large.

New committee representation would be: Marin, with 5.9 per cent of the vote, would take a 4.1 per cent loss; the City and County of San Francisco with 14.7 per cent of the vote, would drop 2.8 per cent and Alameda County, with 20.6 per cent of the vote, would increase by 6.6 per cent.

Marin, along with the smaller counties of Sonoma, Solano and Napa will, in essence, have a larger proportion of the vote than it has population percentage, said Schmid.

Reagan's Pay-It-Now Tax Bill Faces Hearing Test

SACRAMENTO (UPI)— Gov. Ronald Reagan's $1 billion tax package faces its first Assembly hearing tonight amid increasing indications Speaker Jesse M. Unruh will try to pare it down by postponing repayment of money borrowed by the state's key general fund.

Unruh, D-Inglewood, distributed a formal opinion of the legislature's chief lawyer that state law does not require a general fund deficit to be repaid "within any specified period of time" provided it is repaid eventually.

Reagan has vowed to repay a $194 million debt during the current fiscal year and his tax bill would raise enough money to do so.

But Unruh objected to using a tax increase—which would remain in effect indefinitely — to finance a one-time-only obligation.

The speaker said if the debt were repaid in installments, the legislature could reduce the total tax hike and increase state aid to the public schools. He indicated Democrats would not vote for the tax bill unless it is cut at least $50 million.

Reagan has denounced the installment plan as a step on the road to deficit financing, and

RIOTS TAPERING OFF

A policeman armed with a shotgun stands quiet guard in deserted streets at Newark, N.J., yesterday, after rioting and looting which caused an estimated $15 million damage. Violence flared again early today when a Negro, fleeing after being seen in front of a wrecked store, was shot to death and, in another incident, a policeman was wounded in an exchange of gunfire with several Negroes. Twenty-seven persons have been killed in recent days' rioting, all but two in Newark; more than 1,200 have been injured and 2,000 arrested — 1,300 in Newark alone. Other cities hit by rioting included the New Jersey communities of Paterson, Rahway, Ivington, Orange, East Orange, New Brunswick, Jersey City and Plainfield.

FAIRBANKS, Alaska (AP) — The city of Fairbanks was shaken by a sharp earth tremor yesterday—one of the strongest aftershocks from the earthquakes of June 21.

Rains In India

BODHIKAYA, India (AP) — Steady monsoon rains returned to Bihar State yesterday for the first time in three years, but famine will continue in the area at least until the harvest late this year.

Emergency food programs for millions of persons are expected to continue into December.

Moon Prober Given Up

PASADENA (AP) — Jet Propulsion Laboratory scientists gave up today trying to coax Surveyor 4 to respond from the moon, writing off the mission as a failure.

A spokesman said the Canberra, Australia, and Goldstone, Calif., tracking stations sent signals to the 2,290-pound vehicle yesterday and early today, but received no response.

A committee is trying to find out whether the craft landed as planned or crashed. No time has been set for its report, the spokesman said.

Wiretapping Check On Long

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Edward V. Long faced the Senate ethics committee on charges he misused a wiretapping probe in a bid to help Teamsters Union President James R. Hoffa stay out of jail.

After a three-hour closed session yesterday, Chairman John Stennis, D-Miss., said the ethics panel hasn't formed any conclusions. He indicated another interview was in the offing, but mentioned no date.

Long, a Missouri Democrat, said he volunteered to appear before the bi-partisan committee and planned to answer the charges against him—leveled by Life magazine in its May 26 issue—"at the first opportunity."

European Idea?

STANFORD (AP) — Germany's former chancellor, Ludwig Erhard, declared yesterday that the Common Market's failure to take in Great Britain represents a "defeat of the European idea."

He reiterated his support of an enlarged European free trade area but warned against believing that economic integration alone "must automatically give rise to something like a European state."

Colorful clothes protect hunters, warns the National Automobile Club.

Austerity Continues

LONDON (AP) — The House of Commons early today extended for another year the price and wage controls imposed a year ago as part of the austerity program to halt inflation and stabilize the pound.

Rummage Sought

Homestead Valley Improvement Club is seeking donations for its rummage sale, to be held Aug. 11-12 at Brown's Hall, Mill Valley. Donations are being collected at Tamalpais Fire Station No. 2 on Melrose Avenue. Pickup service also is available.

Phone Rate Rise Urged In Report

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — A California Public Utilities Commission staff report recommends that the Pacific Telephone Co. be allowed a 6.85 to 7.1 per cent rate of return on its investment.

The recommendation will be put into evidence in September as part of the PUC hearing on the utility's application for rate hikes totaling $181 million a year.

Pacific Telephone is now allowed 6.3 per cent. It had asked that the rate be increased to 7.5 to 8.5 per cent.

The staff report noted that the trend of interest rates for borrowed capital has been upward during the past 10 years and Pacific has the largest amount of net plant investment of all Bell System telephone subsidiary companies.

Penny Carnival Set

Mill Valley Parks and Recreation Department will hold its second annual playground penny carnival Thursday from 6 to 8:30 p.m. at Boyle Park and Alto School. Profits will go toward a city-wide watermelon feed Aug. 17 at Boyle Park.

Minneapolis began as a sawmill town.

San Francisco Election Held Important To Reagan

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)— San Francisco voters went to the polls today in a special state election being played for national stakes.

Republican Milton Marks and Democrats William Blake and John Burton—all proven vote-getters—are vying for the state Senate seat of the late J. Eugene McAteer, Democratic senator who died of a heart attack at 51 in the midst of a brilliant political career.

What makes the election red-hot and is expected to bring out 60 per cent of the city's voters is that the California Senate now stands at 20 Democrats and 19 Republicans.

A Republican win would give Lt. Gov. Robert Finch the tie-breaking vote and change party control of the upper house. Gov. Ronald Reagan, already mentioned as a possibility for the 1968 GOP national ticket, thus could get his program through the Legislature with less opposition.

Reagan has staked his prestige by coming out for Marks despite San Francisco's nearly 2-to-1 ratio of registered Democrats over Republicans.

RIOTS TAPERING OFF

A policeman armed with a shotgun stands quiet guard in deserted streets at Newark, N.J., yesterday, after rioting and looting which caused an estimated $15 million damage. Violence flared again early today when a Negro, fleeing after being seen in front of a wrecked store, was shot to death and, in another incident, a policeman was wounded in an exchange of gunfire with several Negroes. Twenty-seven persons have been killed in recent days' rioting, all but two in Newark; more than 1,200 have been injured and 2,000 arrested — 1,300 in Newark alone. Other cities hit by rioting included the New Jersey communities of Paterson, Rahway, Ivington, Orange, East Orange, New Brunswick, Jersey City and Plainfield.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Quadruplet Dies

GENOA, Italy (UPI) — The smallest of the quadruplets born to a 27-year-old policeman's wife died today. Doctors said they hoped to save the remaining three infants.

The quadruplets were born two months prematurely to Mrs. Maria Rita Gariana who had recently taken fertility drugs. The last-born of the quads was named Lina and she weighed only one pound 11 ounces at birth yesterday. The others weighed two pounds to two pounds nine ounces.

Sugar Talk

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Federal conciliators met here today with representatives of both sides in an attempt to renew negotiations in the five-week-old strike of the C&H Sugar Co. at Crockett.

More than 12,000 workers walked off the job in a dispute over wages at the sugar refinery June 12.

Suez Canal Area Is Calm, Both Sides Observe Truce

JERUSALEM (UPI)—United Nations observers stood watch on both sides of the Suez Canal today and reported both the Israelis and Egyptians were honoring the Middle East ceasefire.

In Cairo the authoritative newspaper Al Ahram said the presidents of Algeria and Iraq flew to Moscow for "political talks of major importance" following their week-long conferences with Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser.

The newspaper said the Moscow talks would deal with "an analysis of the general Middle East situation from the viewpoint of the Arab states which participated in the Cairo meeting and these states' assessment of all possibilities."

In New York, the U.N. General Assembly had 48 hours to reach agreement on any further Middle East resolutions. The assembly president said he would definitely terminate the month-old emergency session Thursday.

Four-man U.N. truce teams took up their posts at 6 p.m. last night and said all was quiet on both sides of the waterway across which Israeli and Egypt traded heavy fire last week in the most serious outbreak since the war had ended in an uneasy settlement.

The observation posts, picked out by U.N. personnel Sunday, are situated along the canal's banks and at roads along the waterway.

The four observers on the Israeli side were an Australian, an Italian, a Belgian and a Swede. Two Frenchmen and two Swedes were placed on the Egyptian banks.

A U.N. spokesman said there would be no direct communications between the two teams. Such contact has been opposed by Egypt.

is due largely to location of the fighting. In other periods, South Vietnamese losses had been much higher, he added.

In response to questions about recent published reports that United States was considering halting bombing of North Vietnam, he said again this country is ready to meet "tomorrow, next week or anytime" with Hanoi representatives "or any of their friends" to discuss ending the war. But he said North Vietnam has demonstrated an unwillingness to date to come to the conference table.

Passenger In Trailer Shaken In Accident

A passenger in a white house trailer suffered a cut left leg yesterday when the driver lost his seat, causing the car and its trailer to roll over on Highway 101, north of Civic Center at 5:30 a.m., the California Highway Patrol reported.

Leslie Heinlen, 27, of Pico Rivera, Los Angeles County, was treated at Marin General Hospital.

Timothy Earl Bowman, 17, of Fourt Worth, Tex., who works for the Foley and Burke Carnival in Santa Rosa, told the CHP that he was heading north to Santa Rosa when the trailer swayed on a downhill grade. Then the driver's seat slid out from under him, throwing him aside, he said. The housecar and trailer tipped over.

Bowman refused hospitalization for minor injuries.

Fire Board Names Member

Tamalpais Fire Protection District commissioners last night appointed Charles W. Gilmore to replace Mrs. Janet Taylor, reported chairman Morris Batz.

Gilmore, of 60 Morningsun Avenue, Almonte, will fill the unexpired term of Mrs. Taylor, who has moved to Long Beach. She served on the board for about a year, succeeding her late husband, Donald. Her term expires in November.

Gilmore owns and operates Gilmore Photo Shop, Mill Valley.

Planners Deny Island Sundeck

Belvedere Planning Commission last night denied David Sheldon's request for a sideyard variance to build a sundeck at 2 Bellevue Avenue, Corinthian Island.

Mrs. Leopold L. Billstein, 301 San Rafael Avenue, was granted permission for a fence on the Marin Avenue side of her property.

smoke up to 2,000 feet. They also smashed key train yards and lines around the capital of Hanoi.

U.S. spokesmen said an Air Force F105 Thunderchief was downed and the pilot reported missing. It was the 611th American plane lost over the Communist nation and the 13th in the past 11 days.

very fast."

Boats nearby came to help and one went for the sheriff's lake patrol boat. Mrs. Keys' body was recovered approximately half an hour later.

She is survived by her husband and son of San Rafael; by two other sons, Arthur J. Keys of San Rafael and Robert J. Keys of San Anselmo; a sister, Mrs. Ruth Brock of San Francisco; a brother, George Lucas of Lincoln, Ill., and eight grandchildren.

A native of Lincoln, Ill., Mrs. Keys had lived in California for 32 years and in Marin for 25 years. She worked in the meat department of the Safeway grocery in San Anselmo for 12 years. Her husband is an employee of San Francisco Theological Seminary at San Anselmo.

Funeral will be at 10 a.m. tomorrow at the Chapel of the Hills, San Anselmo. Burial will be private.

Girl Missing From Her Home

San Rafael police today reported Marjorie Alice Cameron, 16, of 88 Rollingwood Drive, has been missing from her home since Friday morning.

She was described as a Negro, 5 feet 7 inches, 110 pounds, with reddish hair and brown eyes. She was wearing white shoes, yellow knee socks and yellow turtleneck sweater, a blue skirt and Navy blue blazer, and a long string of black beads.

Her mother, Mrs. Mona B. Cameron, said her daughter may have left home because the family was planning to move to New Jersey next month. The girl visited a friend in Sausalito Friday afternoon but has not been seen since.

Deadline Nearing For Wage Reports

July 31 is the deadline for employers to file state unemployment insurance wage reports and pay state unemployment taxes for the second quarter of 1967, according to Charles J. Brady, auditor in charge for the State Department of Employment at San Rafael.

Employers wanting help in preparing returns should call or stop at the audit district at 807 E Street, San Rafael, Brady said.

REAGAN

he says he will not take that step.

The governor's tax bill was passed by the Senate last week. The upper house discussed the installment proposal briefly but discarded it.

The influential California Taxpayers Association advocates repayment over a three year period.

The Assembly Revenue and Taxation Committee plans to listen to arguments for and against the administration proposal tonight and begin voting on suggested amendments tomorrow.

Chairman John G. Veneman, R-Modesto, said he hoped the committee would complete work on the bill by the end of this week.

The budget for the fiscal year that began July 1 is about $600 million out of balance. The tax bill would match income to outgo, repay the general fund debt and provide $120 million to school districts which could use it either for improved programs or property tax relief.

Unruh laid the legal groundwork for his installment proposal yesterday when he produced an opinion from Legislative Counsel George Murphy and demanded it be printed in the official Assembly Journal.

After a brief partisan skirmish, Unruh succeeded in inserting the opinion into the record.

Murphy said state law requires the debt to be repaid "as soon as there is sufficient money in the general fund" to do so. But he said the law does not impose a time limit provided there is no attempt to avoid repayment completely.

The state has been borrowing from itself for years. But this year, for the first time since 1941, the general fund was unable to repay all of the deficit by the end of the fiscal year June 30.

tial candidates as Gen. Curtis Le May and actor Chuck Connors to support Rafferty.

Patirck warned that unless a unified conservative movement dominates the party in 1968, members may desert the Republican party. He opposed a shift to moderate philosophy, saying, "moderate is nothing more than a nice way of saying liberal."

He said he hoped Gov. Ronald Reagan would decide to support Rafferty, since "Rafferty supported him; Kuchel didn't."

Patrick declined to say just how much he would contribute to Rafferty's campaign, but said it would be as much as the law allows.

"Finances are no longer a deterrent to Dr. Rafferty's campaign," he said.

Patrick stressed that his early announcement of support was intended to give Rafferty an advance start on campaigning. He said "if he is going to win, he must start now."

Patrick ran unsuccessfully in the 1966 primary for the Republican nomination for governor.

of the California Highway Patrol, and asked for consideration of special zones within unincorporated areas to finance other services beyond police protection.

County Administrator Alan Bruce noted that any new tax rate for a county service area for police could not be formed until the sheriff's budget was considered next year.

Salary, Job Advisors Get Larger Role

The Marin County Board of Supervisors today welcomed a broader role by the County Personnel Commission in adjusting employee wages and working conditions.

The commission expressed distress over its limited duties at a workshop session with the supervisors, saying the board seldom asked for recommendations.

"We've been timid about making recommendations also," said Commissioner Bella H. Aaron.

Supervisors agreed the commission should have broader authority in reviewing salary criteria and job classifications, deciding on department heads and requests for emergency raises for employees, and in fixing fringe benefits.

Supervisors asked the commission to revise guidlines on county personnel policy and commission duties, which were set down last summer, and report back to the board with recommendations.

Commissioners agreed expansion of its role would improve the status of the employee, while relieving supervisors of their workload.

$79,094 Budget Is Adopted By Sanitary Board

Directors of Tiburon Sanitary District last night adopted a $70,094 budget for fiscal 1967-68, raising the tax rate from 38 cents to 52.5 cents per $100 assessed valuation.

The district expects to raise $49,669 from property taxes this year. Its tax revenue last year was $32,852.

The board set Nov. 7 for election of three officers to fill directorships expiring in November.

Pirates' Walker Walks The Plank

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pittsburgh Pirates fired Harry Walker as manager today and replaced him with Danny Murtaugh as field boss of the sixth place club in the National Baseball League.

Murtaugh stepped down in 1964 after seven years as manager because of ill health.

The Pirates play San Francisco tonight in a twi-night double-header.

Library Protest To Book Costs

Sausalito Library trustees last night protested to the North Bay Cooperative Library System that its book purchases cost 2 per cent more than those bought independently by Sausalito Library.

Board president Michael Harris reported trustees urged the cooperative system to get a better discount on new books. The 17 libraries in the system spend well over $100,000 a year on new books, he said, "so they should do better through the cooperative than we can do alone."

Trustees budgeted $8,254 for new books in fiscal 1967-68.

In Marin County, Mill Valley and Marin County, libraries also are members of the cooperative.

Prison Guard Pleads Guilty Of Smuggling

Gerald R. Walter, 24, former San Quentin prison guard charged with smuggling contraband into the prison, changed his plea from innocent to guilty today on two of the charges.

Walter, of San Francisco, was to have begun a jury trail today in Marin Superior Court on counts of smuggling a .38 caliber revolver, 67 rounds of ammunition, a hunting knife, and 45 Wyomine inhaler tubes into San Quentin prior to March 9.

He told Judge Joseph G. Wilson he was guilty of smuggling the gun and drug tubes and a further hearing was set for Aug. 28 at 10 a.m. for a probation report.

In view of the change of plea, Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales said he would move for dismissal of the hunting knife charge.

Meat Given Poison Tests

Corte Madera police were waiting today for a laboratory report on whether a red substance inside three pieces of meat found in the back yard of a Corte Madera residence last weekend is strychnine.

An Australian Sheepdog belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Merritt E. Robinson of 524 Tamalpais Drive, Corte Madera, became sick last Thursday, and a veterinarian said the dag had been poisoned with strychnine. On Saturday, Robinson found the possibly poisoned meat in the back yard.

The sheepdog recovered, unlike one of two dogs belonging to the same family which were poisoned six months ago. Police believe the meat may have been in the back yard for two days before it was found.

RAILS

waukee railroad still was not operating in the state of Washington.

Executives of the Southern Railway System believed a court order was needed to get the trains moving. U. S. District Court Judge Frank Wilson, at Chattanooga, Tenn., granted the railroad's request for an injunction ordering the employes to return to their jobs. A railroad spokesman said the employes were reporting for work.

The Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad said its Michigan operations were at a virtual standstill.

The strike, which the railroad claimed had cost them between $60 million and $70 million, started getting stopped when Congress herded legislation through both houses yesterday.

The legislation set up special procedures covering such disputes that brought on the strike of shopcraft unions: The International Association of Machinists, the International Brotherhood of Boilermakers the International Association of Sheetmetal Workers, the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, the Brotherhood of Railway Carmen and the International Brotherhood of Firemen and Oilers.

Most of the 76 railroads affected by the strike began grinding back into operation immediately after the President signed the legislation into law. Within hours most of the freight and the commuters were rolling again.

Postmaster General Lawrence O'Brien, shortly after the official end of the strike, said his department would try to get the mail moving as soon as possible. O'Brien thanked the airlines for their cooperation during the problem period.

OBITUARIES

Mrs. Anna Sarber Dies At 77

Mrs. Ann Sarber, 77, of 419 San Anselmo Avenue, San Anselmo, died yesterday at a local hospital after a long illness.

Mrs. Sarber, a native of Texas, came to California during World War II and operated the Sunshine Beauty Shop in Sausalito until retiring in 1955. She lived briefly in San Francisco before coming to Marin.

She is survived by a sister, Mrs. Mabel Hinton, of Dallas, Tex.

CONRAD B SOVIG

Private funeral was scheduled today for Conrad B. Sovig, 87, longtime San Francisco building contractor and father of Conrad R. Sovig of San Rafael.

The elder Sovig died Sunday after a long illness.

Born in Bergen, Norway, he came to San Francisco as a merchant sailor. Shortly before the 1906 fire and earthquake, he established the contracting firm of Conrad Sovig Co., which he headed until his retirement eight years ago. The company, now headed by sons Conrad R. and Arthur Sovig, specializes in the coating and waterproofing of waterfront structures.

Among buildings in construction of which the company participated are the Ferry Building, Sheraton-Palace Hotel, and Kezar Stadium.

Sovig was a Shriner and active in civic and fraternal groups.

Besides his sons, he is survived by a daughter, Anita Miller; seven grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren.

MARIO DE MARTINI

Mario Eugene De Martini, 54, of Sausalito, died last night while visiting a sister, Mrs. Dorothy Gilliam, of her home at 520 Easterby Street.

Deputy Coroner Keith C. Craig said De Martini died of apparently natural causes and had been under a doctor's care for heart, kidney and liver diseases. He collapsed at about 8:30 p.m.

A native of Sausalito, De Martini resided at 535 Easterby Street.

He was a janitor at the Trade Fair in Sausalito.

He is survived by Mrs. Gilliam, another sister, Mrs. Gemma Bottarini of San Rafael and a brother, Joseph De Martini of Sausalito.

Arrangements are pending at Keaton's Mortuary, Sausalito.

PATRICIA C. MONTGOMERY

Requiem mass will be offered for Mrs. Patricia C. Montgomery of San Mateo, a former Marin County resident, at 11 a.m., tomorrow, at the Church of the Assumption, Tomales.

Mrs. Montgomery, 61, died yesterday at her San Mateo home following a long illness.

Born in Healdsburg, Mrs. Montgomery lived about 10 years in Fallon and later in San Rafael. She was a nurse in San Francisco for several years and up until her recent illness, had worked 11 years as clerk for the San Mateo Times.

She was a member of the St. Francis Nurses Alumni Assn., San Francisco, and the San Francisco-Oakland Newspaper Guild.

She is survived by two daughters, Susan A., and Patricia K. Montgomery, both of Mountain View; a brother, A. L. Cunninghame, of Fallon, and four sisters, Louise Bianchini of Petaluma, Alice Kinloch of Suisun, Sally Sheehan of Hayward and Clare Maloney of Fallon.

The rosary will be recited at 7:30 p.m., today, at Sneider & Sullivan Funeral Home, San Mateo. Burial will be in Sebastopol Cemetery, Sebastopol.

ARTHUR KOEHLER

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Funeral services for Arthur Koehler, a pioneer wood scientist who played a major role in the Lindbergh kidnaping case of the 1930s, will be held tomorrow.

Koehler, 82, who died Sunday at his West Los Angeles home, had been a scientist at the U.S. Forest Products Laboratory in Madison, Wis. He moved to Los Angeles in 1948.

He appeared in the 1935 trial of Bruno Richard Hauptmann, convicted and executed for the kidnap-slaying of the infant son of flier Charles A. Lindbergh.

As a prosecution witness he traced the ladder used to remove the child from the second floor of the Lindbergh home. His exhaustive search showed the wood had come from floorboards in Hauptmann's attic.

Services will be at Forest Lawn Memorial Park, Hollywood Hills.

Koehler is survived by his widow, Winifred, two daughters and a son.

Suez Canal Area Is Calm, Both Sides Observe Truce

JERUSALEM (UPI)—United Nations observers stood watch on both sides of the Suez Canal today and reported both the Israelis and Egyptians were honoring the Middle East cease-fire.

In Cairo the authoritative newspaper Al Ahram said the presidents of Algeria and Iraq flew to Moscow for "political talks of major importance" following their week-long conferences with Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser.

The newspaper said the Moscow talks would deal with "an analysis of the general Middle East situation from the viewpoint of the Arab states which participated in the Cairo meeting and these states' assessment of all possibilities."

In New York, the U.N. General Assembly had 48 hours to reach agreement on any further Middle East resolutions. The assembly president said he would definitely terminate the month-old emergency session Thursday.

Four-man U.N. truce teams took up their posts at 6 p.m. last night and said all was quiet on both sides of the waterway across which Israeli and Egypt traded heavy fire last week in the most serious outbreak since the war had ended in an uneasy settlement.

The observation posts, picked out by U.N. personnel Sunday, are situated along the canal's banks and at roads along the waterway.

The four observers on the Israeli side were an Australian, an Italian, a Belgian and a Swede. Two Frenchmen and two Swedes were placed on the Egyptian banks.

A U.N. spokesman said there would be no direct communications between the two teams. Such contact has been opposed by Egypt.

is due largely to location of the fighting. In other periods, South Vietnamese losses had been much higher, he added.

In response to questions about recent published reports that United States was considering halting bombing of North Vietnam, he said again this country is ready to meet "tomorrow, next week or anytime" with Hanoi representatives "or any of their friends" to discuss ending the war. But he said North Vietnam has demonstrated an unwillingness to date to come to the conference table.

Passenger In Trailer Shaken In Accident

A passenger in a white house trailer suffered a cut left leg yesterday when the driver lost his seat, causing the car and its trailer to roll over on Highway 101, north of Civic Center at 5:30 a.m., the California Highway Patrol reported.

Leslie Heinlen, 27, of Pico Rivera, Los Angeles County, was treated at Marin General Hospital.

Timothy Earl Bowman, 17, of Fourt Worth, Tex., who works for the Foley and Burke Carnival in Santa Rosa, told the CHP that he was heading north to Santa Rosa when the trailer swayed on a downhill grade. Then the driver's seat slid out from under him, throwing him aside, he said. The housecar and trailer tipped over.

Bowman refused hospitalization for minor injuries.

Fire Board Names Member

Tamalpais Fire Protection District commissioners last night appointed Charles W. Gilmore to replace Mrs. Janet Taylor, reported chairman Morris Batz.

Gilmore, of 60 Morningsun Avenue, Almonte, will fill the unexpired term of Mrs. Taylor, who has moved to Long Beach. She served on the board for about a year, succeeding her late husband, Donald. Her term expires in November.

Gilmore owns and operates Gilmore Photo Shop, Mill Valley.

Planners Deny Island Sundeck

Belvedere Planning Commission last night denied David Sheldon's request for a sideyard variance to build a sundeck at 2 Bellevue Avenue, Corinthian Island.

Mrs. Leopold L. Billstein, 301 San Rafael Avenue, was granted permission for a fence on the Marin Avenue side of her property.

No action was taken on Stevens Manning's request for fencing at 296 Beach Road, Belvedere.

Boats nearby came to help and one went for the sheriff's lake patrol boat. Mrs. Keys' body was recovered approximately half an hour later.

She is survived by her husband and son of San Rafael; by two other sons, Arthur J. Keys of San Rafael and Robert J. Keys of San Anselmo; a sister, Mrs. Ruth Brock of San Francisco; a brother, George Lucas of Lincoln, Ill., and eight grandchildren.

A native of Lincoln, Ill., Mrs. Keys had lived in California for 32 years and in Marin for 25 years. She worked in the meat department of the Safeway grocery in San Anselmo for 12 years. Her husband is an employee of San Francisco Theological Seminary at San Anselmo.

Funeral will be at 10 a.m. tomorrow at the Chapel of the Hills, San Anselmo. Burial will be private.

Girl Missing From Her Home

San Rafael police today reported Marjorie Alice Cameron, 16, of 88 Rollingwood Drive, has been missing from her home since Friday morning.

She was described as a Negro, 5 feet 7 inches, 110 pounds, with reddish hair and brown eyes. She was wearing white shoes, yellow knee socks and yellow turtleneck sweater, a blue skirt and Navy blue blazer, and a long string of black beads.

Her mother, Mrs. Mona B. Cameron, said her daughter may have left home because the family was planning to move to New Jersey next month. The girl visited a friend in Sausalito Friday afternoon but has not been seen since.

Deadline Nearing For Wage Reports

July 31 is the deadline for employers to file state unemployment insurance wage reports and pay state unemployment taxes for the second quarter of 1967, according to Charles J. Brady, auditor in charge for the State Department of Employment at San Rafael.

Employers wanting help in preparing returns should call or stop at the audit district at 807 E Street, San Rafael, Brady said.

REAGAN

he says he will not take that step.

The governor's tax bill was passed by the Senate last week. The upper house discussed the installment proposal briefly but discarded it.

The influential California Taxpayers Association advocates repayment over a three year period.

The Assembly Revenue and Taxation Committee plans to listen to arguments for and against the administration proposal tonight and begin voting on suggested amendments tomorrow.

Chairman John G. Veneman, R-Modesto, said he hoped the committee would complete work on the bill by the end of this week.

The budget for the fiscal year that began July 1 is about $600 million out of balance. The tax bill would match income to outgo, repay the general fund debt and provide $120 million to school districts which could use it either for improved programs or property tax relief.

Unruh laid the legal groundwork for his installment proposal yesterday when he produced an opinion from Legislative Counsel George Murphy and demanded it be printed in the official Assembly Journal.

After a brief partisan skirmish, Unruh succeeded in inserting the opinion into the record.

Murphy said state law requires the debt to be repaid "as soon as there is sufficient money in the general fund" to do so. But he said the law does not impose a time limit provided there is no attempt to avoid repayment completely.

The state has been borrowing from itself for years. But this year, for the first time since 1941, the general fund was unable to repay all of the deficit by the end of the fiscal year June 30.

tial candidates as Gen. Curtis Le May and actor Chuck Connors to support Rafferty.

Patirck warned that unless a unified conservative movement dominates the party in 1968, members may desert the Republican party. He opposed a shift to moderate philosophy, saying, "moderate is nothing more than a nice way of saying liberal."

He said he hoped Gov. Ronald Reagan would decide to support Rafferty, since "Rafferty supported him; Kuchel didn't."

Patrick declined to say just how much he would contribute to Rafferty's campaign, but said it would be as much as the law allows.

"Finances are no longer a deterrent to Dr. Rafferty's campaign," he said.

Patrick stressed that his early announcement of support was intended to give Rafferty an advance start on campaigning. He said "if he is going to win, he must start now."

Patrick ran unsuccessfully in the 1966 primary for the Republican nomination for governor.

of the California Highway Patrol, and asked for consideration of special zones within unincorporated areas to finance other services beyond police protection.

County Administrator Alan Bruce noted that any new tax rate for a county service area for police could not be formed until the sheriff's budget was considered next year.

Salary, Job Advisors Get Larger Role

The Marin County Board of Supervisors today welcomed a broader role by the County Personnel Commission in adjusting employee wages and working conditions.

The commission expressed distress over its limited duties at a workshop session with the supervisors, saying the board seldom asked for recommendations.

"We've been timid about making recommendations also," said Commissioner Bella H. Aaron.

Supervisors agreed the commission should have broader authority in reviewing salary criteria and job classifications, deciding on department heads and requests for emergency raises for employees, and in fixing fringe benefits.

Supervisors asked the commission to revise guidlines on county personnel policy and commission duties, which were set down last summer, and report back to the board with recommendations.

Commissioners agreed expansion of its role would improve the status of the employee, while relieving supervisors of their workload.

$79,094 Budget Is Adopted By Sanitary Board

Directors of Tiburon Sanitary District last night adopted a $70,094 budget for fiscal 1967-68, raising the tax rate from 38 cents to 52.5 cents per $100 assessed valuation.

The district expects to raise $49,669 from property taxes this year. Its tax revenue last year was $32,852.

The board set Nov. 7 for election of three officers to fill directorships expiring in November.

Pirates' Walker Walks The Plank

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pittsburgh Pirates fired Harry Walker as manager today and replaced him with Danny Murtaugh as field boss of the sixth place club in the National Baseball League.

Murtaugh stepped down in 1964 after seven years as manager because of ill health.

The Pirates play San Francisco tonight in a twi-night double-header.

Library Protest To Book Costs

Sausalito Library trustees last night protested to the North Bay Cooperative Library System that its book purchases cost 2 per cent more than those bought independently by Sausalito Library.

Board president Michael Harris reported trustees urged the cooperative system to get a better discount on new books. The 17 libraries in the system spend well over $100,000 a year on new books, he said, "so they should do better through the cooperative than we can do alone."

Trustees budgeted $8,254 for new books in fiscal 1967-68.

In Marin County, Mill Valley and Marin County, libraries also are members of the cooperative.

Prison Guard Pleads Guilty Of Smuggling

Gerald R. Walter, 24, former San Quentin prison guard charged with smuggling contraband into the prison, changed his plea from innocent to guilty today on two of the charges.

Walter, of San Francisco, was to have begun a jury trail today in Marin Superior Court on counts of smuggling a .38 caliber revolver, 67 rounds of ammunition, a hunting knife, and 45 Wyomine inhaler tubes into San Quentin prior to March 9.

He told Judge Joseph G. Wilson he was guilty of smuggling the gun and drug tubes and a further hearing was set for Aug. 28 at 10 a.m. for a probation report.

In view of the change of plea, Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales said he would move for dismissal of the hunting knife charge.

Meat Given Poison Tests

Corte Madera police were waiting today for a laboratory report on whether a red substance inside three pieces of meat found in the back yard of a Corte Madera residence last weekend is strychnine.

An Australian Sheepdog belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Merritt E. Robinson of 524 Tamalpais Drive, Corte Madera, became sick last Thursday, and a veterinarian said the dag had been poisoned with strychnine. On Saturday, Robinson found the possibly poisoned meat in the back yard.

The sheepdog recovered, unlike one of two dogs belonging to the same family which were poisoned six months ago. Police believe the meat may have been in the back yard for two days before it was found.

RAILS

waukee railroad still was not operating in the state of Washington.

Executives of the Southern Railway System believed a court order was needed to get the trains moving. U. S. District Court Judge Frank Wilson, at Chattanooga, Tenn., granted the railroad's request for an injunction ordering the employes to return to their jobs. A railroad spokesman said the employes were reporting for work.

The Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad said its Michigan operations were at a virtual standstill.

The strike, which the railroad claimed had cost them between $60 million and $70 million, started getting stopped when Congress herded legislation through both houses yesterday.

The legislation set up special procedures covering such disputes that brought on the strike of shopcraft unions: The International Association of Machinists, the International Brotherhood of Boilermakers the International Association of Sheetmetal Workers, the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, the Brotherhood of Railway Carmen and the International Brotherhood of Firemen and Oilers.

Most of the 76 railroads affected by the strike began grinding back into operation immediately after the President signed the legislation into law. Within hours most of the freight and the commuters were rolling again.

Postmaster General Lawrence O'Brien, shortly after the official end of the strike, said his department would try to get the mail moving as soon as possible. O'Brien thanked the airlines for their cooperation during the problem period.

OBITUARIES

Mrs. Anna Sarber Dies At 77

Mrs. Ann Sarber, 77, of 419 San Anselmo Avenue, San Anselmo, died yesterday at a local hospital after a long illness.

Mrs. Sarber, a native of Texas, came to California during World War II and operated the Sunshine Beauty Shop in Sausalito until retiring in 1955. She lived briefly in San Francisco before coming to Marin.

She is survived by a sister, Mrs. Mabel Hinton, of Dallas, Tex.

CONRAD B SOVIG

Private funeral was scheduled today for Conrad B. Sovig, 87, longtime San Francisco building contractor and father of Conrad R. Sovig of San Rafael.

The elder Sovig died Sunday after a long illness.

Born in Bergen, Norway, he came to San Francisco as a merchant sailor. Shortly before the 1906 fire and earthquake, he established the contracting firm of Conrad Sovig Co., which he headed until his retirement eight years ago. The company, now headed by sons Conrad R. and Arthur Sovig, specializes in the coating and waterproofing of waterfront structures.

Among buildings in construction of which the company participated are the Ferry Building, Sheraton-Palace Hotel, and Kezar Stadium.

Sovig was a Shriner and active in civic and fraternal groups.

Besides his sons, he is survived by a daughter, Anita Miller; seven grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren.

MARIO DE MARTINI

Mario Eugene De Martini, 54, of Sausalito, died last night while visiting a sister, Mrs. Dorothy Gilliam, of her home at 520 Easterby Street.

Deputy Coroner Keith C. Craig said De Martini died of apparently natural causes and had been under a doctor's care for heart, kidney and liver diseases. He collapsed at about 8:30 p.m.

A native of Sausalito, De Martini resided at 535 Easterby Street.

He was a janitor at the Trade Fair in Sausalito.

He is survived by Mrs. Gilliam, another sister, Mrs. Gemma Bottarini of San Rafael and a brother, Joseph De Martini of Sausalito.

Arrangements are pending at Keaton's Mortuary, Sausalito.

PATRICIA C. MONTGOMERY

Requiem mass will be offered for Mrs. Patricia C. Montgomery of San Mateo, a former Marin County resident, at 11 a.m., tomorrow, at the Church of the Assumption, Tomales.

Mrs. Montgomery, 61, died yesterday at her San Mateo home following a long illness.

Born in Healdsburg, Mrs. Montgomery lived about 10 years in Fallon and later in San Rafael. She was a nurse in San Francisco for several years and up until her recent illness, had worked 11 years as clerk for the San Mateo Times.

She was a member of the St. Francis Nurses Alumni Assn., San Francisco, and the San Francisco-Oakland Newspaper Guild.

She is survived by two daughters, Susan A., and Patricia K. Montgomery, both of Mountain View; a brother, A. L. Cunninghame, of Fallon, and four sisters, Louise Bianchini of Petaluma, Alice Kinloch of Suisun, Sally Sheehan of Hayward and Clare Maloney of Fallon.

The rosary will be recited at 7:30 p.m., today, at Sneider & Sullivan Funeral Home, San Mateo. Burial will be in Sebastopol Cemetery, Sebastopol.

HELENA TRESKOW

Private funeral for Mrs. Helena J. Treskow, former Kentfield resident, was to be held today at Halsted & Co., San Francisco. Inurnment was to be at Cypress Lawn Cemetery, Colma.

Mrs. Treskow, 92, died Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Archie Wedemeyer of Portola Valley, following a short illness.

Marin City Work-Study Plan Approved

Marin City Target Area director last night approved plans by the Marin County Department of Public Social Services for a work-study class in the community.

James W. Coleman, director of the area office, said the class would prepare students from general education development tests for high school diplomas, for civil service employment, and for college entrance tests.

Also to be offered are pre-apprentice training in manual arts, a program to help college dropouts get jobs and enter typing and business courses.

College of Marin will provide instructors and classroom materials, and private firms will be asked to underwrite other class costs. Students will spend part time working for sponsoring firms.

Details of the program are incomplete, Coleman said, but a minimum of 15 students must be recruited to start it.

Directors also agreed to join St. Andrew United Presbyterian Church in sponsoring a Boy Scout troop and Cub Scout pack.

Directors elected to vacancies on the board Sammie E. Helms, 723 Drake Avenue; James Cpening, 20 Burgess Court, and Harold Jackson, 641 Drake Avenue.

Coleman was authorized to hire a premanent secretary at $390-$425 a month.

Next neeting was set 8 p.m. Aug. 7 in St. Andrew church.

Camera Gear, Car Seats, Rings Stolen

Camera equipment worth $544 was taken from the car of Kenneth W. Nelson, 30 Morningsun Avenue, Tamalpais Valley, while the car was parked behind the Mill Valley bus depot last Wednesday.

Nelson reported the theft to police yesterday, saying he at first had believed the equipment misplaced.

Mrs. Dale McGill, 444 Eldridge Avenue, Mill Valley, reported yesterday to police that both bucket seats were stolen from her car during the weekend while parked in her open garage.

Theft of a suitcase containing two rings and various cosmetics and a radio worth $100 from a storage shed behind his residence was reported yesterday to police by Kenneth Conners, 311 Miller Avenue, Mill Valley.

Theft of the 1967 license tab and registration from her car was reported yesterday by Mrs. Almada Washburn, 100 East Manor Drive. The theft was discovered Friday when she was stopped by a Tiburon policeman for failure to have a tab.

New Zone For Downtown Tiburon Is Added To Map

A new zone was added to the downtown area of Tiburon's map for its proposed new zoning ordinance in a special study session of the planning commission last night.

Another meeting was set for tomorrow at 8 p.m. at city hall to continue the discussion.

Commissioner Rampton W. Harvey recommended a portion of the downtown area be zoned for planned development "to encourage property owners to get together."

The new zone would include mixed uses, be flexible but give the city good control over development, and would exclude industrial uses, Harvey said.

He felt this zone was the answer to such problems as keeping the waterfront open, parking and drainage, which "go beyond property lines."

Commissioner John McChesney, also concerned about open space, said the only way to get it was to buy it and "we don't have the foggiest notion how much we can afford."

He said "when we start talking about that waterfront, we are takling about a subject near and dear to everone's heart."

In fairness to property owners, Northwestern Pacific Railroad and a group of waterfront developers headed by Michel DeMaurex, McChesney said the area should have some kind of tentative zoning.

Project consultant George Gatter told the commission the city has "police power to preserve open space."

Commissioner Allen N. Littnam objected at first to the P-D zoning, as a "no-standard zone" while the commission was supposed to be setting standards. He also favored an open waterfront.

Harvey said the P-D zone would include more than 35 acres, to the water side of Juanita Lane, extended to Mar West Street. Including everything north of Tiburon Boulevard and the waterfront area now in a "park" zone.

Commissioner Peter MacGowan then moved to add the entire downtown area to Harvey's P-D zone except for areas designated as parks on the new map.

McChesney and Erik Rettig opposed the motion in a 3-2 vote.

Because MacGowan planned to be absent at the next meeting when commissioners may discuss holding a re-vote, and the presence of commissioners Donald J. O'Leary and Joseph C. Marshall, who were absent last night might change the vote, it was retaken to make the vote unanimous for the new zone.

Before meeting as the planning as the planning commission, members met concurrently as the boards of adjustment and design review on two items.

James E. Hutson of Belvedere was granted approval for a use permit to construct 10 units as apartments on Lyford Drive and Vistazo West Street by Littman and McChesney of the adjustments board.

The same application was also approved by MacGowan and Harvey on the design review board with demands by both boards for more details before a building permit is issued.

On a request for three directional signs for the Belvedere-Tiburon Landmarks Society, MacGowan and Harvey approved a sign at Mar West Street and Paradise Drive and said they had no objection to one at Mar West and Tiburon Boulevard. But they recommended the socitey check with Belvedere as the location is in that city.

The signs are temporary, pending acceptance of a standard directional sign by the city.

Embezzlement Suspect Is Arrested

A 26-year-old Oregon man was arrested early today by San Francisco police on suspicion of embezzling a car owned by Dr. Robert W. Krause, formerly of 175 Elinor Avenue, Mill Valley, police reported.

The suspect, Berry K. Randall, also know as William Capp, is from Portland.

Dr. Krause, now of San Francisco, reported to police July 5 that Randall, whom he described as a "trusted friend," drove him to work in Krause's car, but failed to return with the car at the end of the day.

The car was recovered Saturday in Stinson Beach.

Police Raid Hong Kong Communists

HONG KONG (UPI)—Riot police using acetylene torches to cut through iron bars and backed up by British troops raided three more Communist headquarters today in an effort to wipe out the Red leadership responsible for 11 days of anti-British violence.

The leftists continued their violence, burning two cars and throwing dynamite bombs at police and post offices, but so far they have failed in their principal aim—using strikes to sabotage Hong Kong's vital import-export trade.

The Communists' failure was so bad that even Chinese Communist merchant ships sailed in for business as usual.

$13 Million High School Work Asked

The Tamalpais High School District Board last night received a plan calling for a $13,415,000 package — $11,985,000 to be raised in bond issue — to build two new high schools and to make improvements at the three existing high schools.

The board gave unofficial approval to the proposal, reported administrative assistant Edward J. Neumeier.

The plan, submitted last night by the citizens' building needs advisory committee, proposes that the $1,430,000 portion of the package not covered by the bond issue come from existing district reserve funds.

The bond issue would pay for a Tiburon High School to accommodate 1,150 students, a San Geronimo High School to accommodate 800 students, and a $350,000 covered eating area at Sir Francis Drake High School.

The district has $1,450,000 in reserve funds, but some of these funds are committed, according to Neumeier. The board asked the district staff to determine by the next board meeting, Monday at 8 p.m. at the district office, whether $1,430,000 of the reserve could be used for building, he said.

The new committee report calls for the reserve funds to be used immediately. A new fine arts building, increasing student capacity by 150, and repairs at Tamalpais High School would cost $800,000. A new music building at Redwood High School would cost $470,000. Science laboratories at Drake would cost $100,000, and $60,000 would be spent for new central administrative offices for the district.

District staff had suggested that the Tiburon High School be built to accommodate 800 students, instead of 1,150, in order to add capacity for 400 more students to Redwood High School. The citizens committee submitted the new report last night in response to the staff recommendation.

Trustee William B. Lewis was absent.

Trustees Adopt $7 Million School Publication Budget

A $7,130,929 publication budget this school year was adopted last night by the Novato Unified School District trustees at their regular meeting in the administration building.

Although this budget is $71,717 more than the preliminary budget, Supt. James G. Bunker predicted that when the Legislature finally decides on the amount of state aid to the school districts, the final budget may go as high as $7,350,000.

The tax rate should drop by approximately 35 cents, Bunker said, or from $5.33 last year to $4.98 per $100 assessed valuation this year.

However, the money raised through secured property taxes will take a big jump, in spite of the lower tax rate, because of the 21.9 per cent increase in assessed valuation. It will collect $2,226,465 this year compared to $1,871,165 last year, Bunker said.

Because of the formula the state uses, the richer a district gets, the smaller the percentage of state aid it gets. The increase in the assessed valuation will reduce state aid, Bunker told the board.

Last fiscal year, the district budget had $2,467,500 in it from the state for 10,300 average daily attendance. This budget has $2,464,500 for 11,125 average daily attendance. "So although the district will have nearly 1,000 more students this year, we will get $3,000 less in state aid," he said.

Dixie Official Held In Segregation Plot

SALISBURY, N.C. (AP)—The Rowan County registrar of deeds was among 12 North Carolina men arrested by FBI agents today on charges of conspiring to prevent racial integration of schools in two counties.

The conspiracy, the FBI said, was carried out by shootings into homes, dynamiting businesses, burning churches and residences, making threatening telephone calls and burning crosses.

FIRST ARRESTS

James Wayne Davis, 41, of China Grove, the Rowan County registrar of deeds, was among the first arrested and brought to the federal courthouse in Salisbury shortly after daybreak.

The FBI recommended $2,500 bonds for Davis and the other 11 men at their arraignment before U.S. Commissioner John L. Holshouser.

In Washington, Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark said the men were arrested on bench warrants issued yesterday in U.S. District Court at Greensboro. They were charged with conspiring to deprive citizens of constitutional rights "by acts of terrorism and intimidation."

THE CHARGES

The federal grand jury indictment, covering the period from Nov. 1, 1965, to the present, said the purpose of the conspiracy was to prevent school officials from operating schools in Rowan and Cabarrus counties "in a racially free manner."

It also said the men tried to prevent racially integrated participation in federally aided education and poverty programs.

The indictment said the men tried to prevent racially integrated participation in federally aided education and poverty programs.

ACTED FRIDAY

The indictment was returned in Greensboro last Friday but not made public until today.

Those arrested, in addition to Davis, included: Homer D. Blackwelder, 50, Concord; Winfred Edward Bridges, 28, Kannapolis; Marx Wayne Dayvault, 27, Kannapolis; Robert Philmore Hill, 31, Concord;

Deadline Near On Wage Reports

July 31 is the deadline for California farm employers to file contribution returns and reports of agricultural wages, according to Charles J. Brady, auditor for the State Department of Employment at San Rafael.

Employers needing help in preparing the forms can get information at the audit district office, 807 E Street.

The worst U.S. mine disaster occurred at Mononhag, W.Va., on Dec. 6, 1907, killing 361 persons.

Chief Admits To Bugging Jail Cells

ALBANY (AP) — Police Chief Ralph M. Jensen told city councilmen yesterday he bugged jail cells and also could listen electronically to a conference room used by attorneys and their clients.

That came out at a council work meeting at which the chief asked for a new tape recorder.

Mayor Richard O. Clark said the report disturbed him and the council asked City Atty. Lawrence D. Saler to make a study. The attorney declared he found it frightening to think of police listening to attorneys and their clients.

Chief Jensen, telephoned by a reporter, Fred Wyatt of the Berkeley Gazette, said he did not use the listening hookup in the attorney - client conference room to eavesdrop on them.

The system there, he said, was used for lie detector tests.

Innocent Plea

Thomas Arthur Goldberg, 19, of San Rafael yesterday pleaded innocent to grand theft at Marin Municipal Court and a preliminary hearing was set for Aug. 17 at 1:30 p.m. Goldberg, of 55 Fairfax Street, was one of two men accused of stealing about $4,007 from Regal service station at 1011 Lincoln Avenue while employed by the firm June 12.

90-Year-Old Beaten, Killed

SALINAS (UPI) — The body of a 90-year-old man—beaten about the head and stabbed in the back — has been found in his modest home here.

Monterey County sheriff's deputies said Joseph Secondo apparently was murdered Sunday, perhaps when he surprised someone prowling around his house. There are no suspects, officers said.

The body was discovered yesterday when the victim's son, Mateo Secondo, 45, came to visit his father.

POSTAL HEADACHES

Airmail Stamp Means It Flies

If it's got an airmail stamp on it, it flies—whether it was intended to or not.

Using an airmail stamp in lieu of eight cents in ordinary postage is also a good way to annoy friends because it may cost the receiver money.

San Rafael Postmaster Hugh Cassidy reported today that it is not uncommon at all for people to use an airmail stamp in place of another stamp because they just happen to have one.

"The post office assumes airmail stamps and envelopes mean just that," Cassidy said. The result is the post office flies it and collects due postage at the other end.

Another common practice, Cassidy added, is sending airmail envelopes with five-cent stamps. This costs the receiver three cents and—the post office valuable time.

The post office usually does not charge for mail sent this way on short in-town hops, but it can, Cassidy said. The mailer has paid for air service which is handled in a separate department of the post office.

The postmaster said three years ago, the post office stopped its practice of returning incorrectly posted mail because it was too time consuming.

New High In Span Travel

The Golden Gate Bridge set a one-day traffic record Sunday when 97,674 vehicles crossed the span, a bridge official disclosed yesterday.

The previous high 96,673, was set last Mothers' Day, May 14.

Officials said the warm weather and the Giants-Cubs double header baseball game were contributing factors in establishing the new figure.

Dixie Official Held In Segregation Plot

SALISBURY, N.C. (AP)—The Rowan County registrar of deeds was among 12 North Carolina men arrested by FBI agents today on charges of conspiring to prevent racial integration of schools in two counties.

The conspiracy, the FBI said, was carried out by shootings into homes, dynamiting businesses, burning churches and residences, making threatening telephone calls and burning crosses.

FIRST ARRESTS

James Wayne Davis, 41, of China Grove, the Rowan County registrar of deeds, was among the first arrested and brought to the federal courthouse in Salisbury shortly after daybreak.

The FBI recommended $2,500 bonds for Davis and the other 11 men at their arraignment before U.S. Commissioner John L. Holshouser.

In Washington, Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark said the men were arrested on bench warrants issued yesterday in U.S. District Court at Greensboro. They were charged with conspiring to deprive citizens of constitutional rights "by acts of terrorism and intimidation."

THE CHARGES

The federal grand jury indictment, covering the period from Nov. 1, 1965, to the present, said the purpose of the conspiracy was to prevent school officials from operating schools in Rowan and Cabarrus counties "in a racially free manner."

It also said the men tried to prevent racially integrated participation in federally aided education and poverty programs.

The indictment said the men tried to prevent racially integrated participation in federally aided education and poverty programs.

ACTED FRIDAY

The indictment was returned in Greensboro last Friday but not made public until today.

Those arrested, in addition to Davis, included: Homer D. Blackwelder, 50, Concord; Winfred Edward Bridges, 28, Kannapolis; Marx Wayne Dayvault, 27, Kannapolis; Robert Philmore Hill, 31, Concord;

Deadline Near On Wage Reports

July 31 is the deadline for California farm employers to file contribution returns and reports of agricultural wages, according to Charles J. Brady, auditor for the State Department of Employment at San Rafael.

Employers needing help in preparing the forms can get information at the audit district office, 807 E Street.

Chief Admits To Bugging Jail Cells

ALBANY (AP) — Police Chief Ralph M. Jensen told city councilmen yesterday he bugged jail cells and also could listen electronically to a conference room used by attorneys and their clients.

That came out at a council work meeting at which the chief asked for a new tape recorder.

Mayor Richard O. Clark said the report disturbed him and the council asked City Atty. Lawrence D. Saler to make a study. The attorney declared he found it frightening to think of police listening to attorneys and their clients.

Chief Jensen, telephoned by a reporter, Fred Wyatt of the Berkeley Gazette, said he did not use the listening hookup in the attorney - client conference room to eavesdrop on them.

The system there, he said, was used for lie detector tests.

Innocent Plea

Thomas Arthur Goldberg, 19, of San Rafael yesterday pleaded innocent to grand theft at Marin Municipal Court and a preliminary hearing was set for Aug. 17 at 1:30 p.m. Goldberg, of 55 Fairfax Street, was one of two men accused of stealing about $4,007 from Regal service station at 1011 Lincoln Avenue while employed by the firm June 12.

90-Year-Old Beaten, Killed

SALINAS (UPI) — The body of a 90-year-old man—beaten about the head and stabbed in the back — has been found in his modest home here.

Monterey County sheriff's deputies said Joseph Secondo apparently was murdered Sunday, perhaps when he surprised someone prowling around his house. There are no suspects, officers said.

The body was discovered yesterday when the victim's son, Mateo Secondo, 45, came to visit his father.

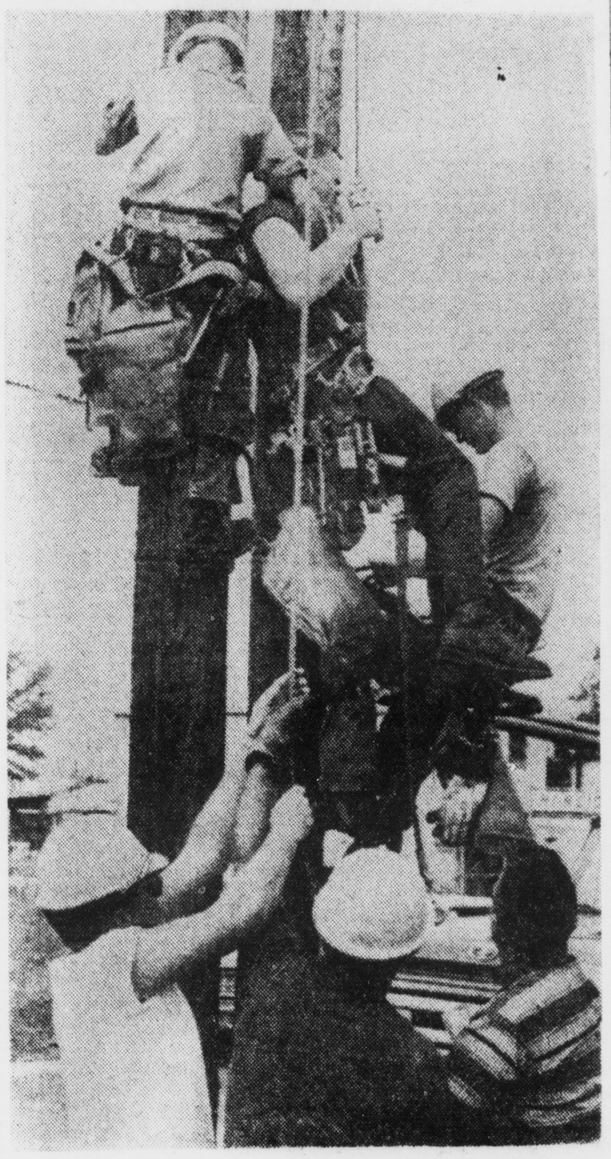
A LIFE-RESTORING KISS

Lineman R. G. Champion, hanging unconscious after contacting a 4,160-volt wire, is revived by a fellow worker, Jimmy Thompson. Thompson rushed up the pole yesterday in Jacksonville, Fla., to administer mouth-to-mouth resuscitation. After being lowered to the ground Champion was taken to a hospital, suffering from burns on his hands and feet.



BACK TO EARTH — Champion is lowered to safety after fellow worker Thompson rushed up the utility pole in a life-saving act. "After I blew into his mouth about four times, he started gasping and seemed to come back," Thompson said. (AP Wirephotos)

Killer Fire Described By Prisoners

MILTON, Fla. (AP) — Convicts under shotgun guard have testified that three cellmates deliberately set the prison fire that burned 37 inmates to death.

Among those who died were the three accused of setting the blaze.

As the formal inquest into the Sunday night fire at State Prison Road Camp 12 at Jay, Fla., started in Santa Rosa County Courthouse, 22 bodies sacked in olive drab body bags lay outside the old county jail awaiting positive identification.

On the table before County Judge Mahlon McCall yesterday were the prison files of all 51 men who had been in the locked and barred barracks at Camp 12. Of the 51, eight were in the county jail unharmed, six were in hospitals with burns and 37 had perished.

The convicts testified that it was about six minutes after the fire started before guard A.O. Lovett unlocked the barred "cage door" and a solid wood door to let them flee.

Lovett took the stand and testified that a smashing, shouting disturbance broke out first and he ran to toss the keys over a high barbed-wire fence to a guard Richard E. Cobb who used them to unlock the prison arsenal.

When he saw the fire and returned, Lovett said, "I made four passes before I could open the door. It was so hot I had trouble seeing."

The trio who allegedly set the blaze was identified to the coroner's jury as Joseph Earl Wynder, a Negro, and Thomas E. Ard and Earl Evans, both white men. All were from the Pensacola area.

The convict witnesses said Wynder, Ard and Evans used newspapers and toilet tissue to start the fire.

Court Case Challenges Driver Cash Bond Law

UKIAH (AP) — A Superior Court judge set July 31 for a hearing on a petition involving his order issued yesterday preventing the State Department of Motor Vehicles and its director, Vern Orr, from temporarily enforcing the state Financial Responsibility Law.

Mendocino County Superior Court Judge Wayne P. Burke issued the writ of prohibition sought by the California Rural Legal Assistance office at Santa Rosa.

The law requires persons involved in an accident and without insurance to post cash bond or have their license and car registration suspended.

The petition for writ of mandamus was filed on behalf of Samuel Werner, 61, of Upper Lake and "all others in similar circumstances" throughout the state.

Werner was involved in an accident on May 5, 1967, and the state was preparing to suspend his license and registration because he could not post the required cash bond under the financial law. The law now makes the state a collection agency for insurance companies and others, the assistance office said.

It further contends that constitutional rights would require a hearing on who is at fault in an accident and the amount of damages before imposition of license or vehicle use could be considered.

Buying a Westinghouse is like designing your own refrigerator.

Your next refrigerator will precisely suit your family, your kitchen, and your budget because Westinghouse gives you so many styles, sizes, and features to choose from.

First, pick your style: single-door models for economy, two-door models for extra convenience and capacity, side-by-side models for the ultimate in freezer space and refrigerator capacity.

Then select the size you need. Westinghouse capacities range up to 22 cubic feet. And even if you can only use the space of your old refrigerator, Westinghouse foam insulation makes your new one a lot bigger on the inside.

Next, consider the features you need most: an Automatic Ice-Maker that's never empty. A Meat Keeper that keeps meat fresh for seven days, chilled but not frozen, so that you can pop it into the oven without defrosting.

Snap-in adjustable shelves that are really a snap to rearrange for tall turkeys or flat platters.

And easy-glide rollers that let you roll your Westinghouse away from the wall for cleaning.

Maybe you'll want a butter conditioner, or a porcelain vegetable crisper.

And, surely, a Frost-Free model to end messy defrosting.

Westinghouse has everything.

THE 'OPULENT LEG' will be part of the fall and winter fashion scene. Patterned and glittering stockings will be offered to go with shoes in a wide variety of shapes and materials. This shoe by Evins is in champagne satin with a tassel heel of 18 carat gold. Gown is by Oscar de la Renta.

NAKED LOOK

Bare Shoulders, Glitter Back In Gowns

BY GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK (UPI)—Fashion has been giving so much attention to legs it looked as if she'd forgotten the room at the top for a change.

The distractingly high hemlines and the fancily patterned stockings drew the eyes of the girl watchers downward. But now, the new evening clothes will haul them back up.

Bare shoulders come back for fall and winter. The evening coverup of the past few seasons is almost nothing at all. Squared and daringly scooped necklines are in. Backless-top dresses reappear. The one shoulder formal—one shoulder covered, one bared is stronger than ever.

SOME FORMALS HAVE absolutely no straps to interrupt the shoulder line. Others have mere strings. And the camisole top, with squared neckline and narrow straps, runs through most New York ready-to-wear collections.

Glitter continues strong. The grand gown for party belles replaces the "nightgown" or "baby dress" of past seasons. Stately satin dresses reappear with that flattering back fullness.

Many ball gowns are richly enough embroidered to have come from a museum. Women by the thousands will "float" into parties in layers of chiffon or tulle, marabou and ostrich feathers.

AMONG THE EXPONENTS of the more "naked" look at the top are such specialists in evening wear as George Stavropoulos, who does many of Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, grand occasion dresses; Ferdinando Sarmi, who really never gave up the glamour of the bare shouldered dresses, and Malcolm Starr, whose designer Elinor Simmons long has made the one shoulder numbers.

Said Sarmi, "I have a strong feeling for the more naked look. I have 60 per cent more one shoulder long dresses in my current collection than I did last year."

Miss Simmons said the barer top is "very gala and now looks right." One of the handsomest gowns in the Starr-Simmons collection has the camisole top, a column-like silhouette to the floor, and is jewelled all over in turquoise stones.

THESE DESIGNERS were among the last to unveil their new collections for the nation's visiting fashion reporters, ending Friday 10 days of covering ready-to-wear.

Here by individual firms were other evening wear highlights:

MOLLIE PARNIS — Many dresses lavishly jewelled in what Miss Parnis called the "crown jewel decoration." She showed numerous black evening dresses too, some of them short versions shown with sheer black hosiery and black satin shoes.

ANDREW WOODS — The designer takes his inspiration from the Court of King Arthur, he says, and goes on to assume that the ladies of that day liked furs trimming their evening clothes. He cuffed a soft blue satin in sable; used mink cuffs on a sheer wool challis in tones of black, purple and orange, and covered with jeweled stones, and again used deep mink cuffs on a coat-dress ensemble in a pink and taupe brocade, also bejeweled.

JOHN LESLIE — The firm's designer Kasper copied the familiar trench coat in metallics and showed velvet and satin coats, either single or doublebreasted, over matching dresses. Metallics came in combinations of gold and silver or were patterned in stripes, plaids and polka dots in contrasting colors.

NIGHTTIME GLISTENS aplenty this fall with designers like Elinor Simmons of Malcolm Starr in New York creating column-like silhouettes completely encrusted with jewels and beads. The evening gown also notes the trend of the camisole bodice baring the shoulders.

Ramstad-Barrett Rite At Stanford

College of Marin president William K. Ramstad claimed Mrs. Betty Ann Barrett of Mountain View as his bride in a ceremony on July 2 at the Stanford Memorial Chapel in Palo Alto.

The Rev. Rudolph Johnson officiated for the ceremony.

For her wedding the bride chose a pink silk and wool suit with pink accessories.

Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Richards of Hayward.

A lanai reception in Palo Alto followed the ceremony.

The bride was educated in Seattle schools.

The bridegroom, who assumed his position as president of College of Marin on July 1, was graduated with a master's degree from the University of Washington and holds his doctorate from Stanford University. He is the son of Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Ramstad of Tacoma, Wash.

Following a wedding trip to the island of Kawai, Hawaii, the couple are living in San Rafael.

Miss Clay Marries In Base Chapel

Hamilton Air Force Base Catholic Chapel was the setting for the wedding of Maureen Elizabeth Clay and James W. Mellender on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. James D. Clay of Hamilton are parents of the bride. Maureen wore a full length white gown of Alencon lace and a waist length mantilla. Maid of honor was Janice R. Emhouser and bridesmaid was Kristine Clay. They wore matching full length dresses of green linen.

John Schreffler of Maryland and Michael Clay served as best man and usher.

The bride was graduated from St. Mary's School of Nursing and is employed with the Milwaukee Health Department. She is the sister of Michael, Kristine and Patrick Clay at Hamilton.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Lillian Mellender of Milwaukee and William C. Mellender of Detroit. He is the brother of Kenneth of Detroit, Fredric of Milwaukee and Jack Mellender of San Franicsco. He is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin and is now director of computer systems, division of preventive medicine at Marquette University.

Following a reception at the non-commissioned officers club at Hamilton, the couple left for Milwaukee where they will reside, stopping on the way at Yellowstone National Park.

Former War Spy Will Be Speaker

C. E. Wollery, former war department counterspy, will be the guest speaker at the luncheon meeting of the Marin Christian Women's Club to be held at noon on Friday at Lin Fa Restaurant, Terra Linda.

A special feature of the afternoon will also be Japanese floral arrangements by Mishico Byrd and music by Katsuko Shiroma of Golden Gate Seminary.

Stinson Beach Allied Arts Sale Set For This Weekend

This weekend, July 22 and 23, will be the dates for the community-wide annual sale sponsored by the Stinson Beach Allied Arts members. The entire community cooperates to make the sale a financial success and a weekend of pleasurable activity.

Sale hours will be 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. both days at the Community Center.

THE WOMEN of the Community Church, headed by Mrs. Lester B. Sadler, will conduct a food sale on Saturday morning of the sale, and will serve a sandwich and salad luncheon on both Saturday and Sunday. Home baked desserts will be served also, and coffee will be available.

Members of Progressive Club, the Parent-Teacher Club, and the Volunteer Fire Department also participate in the sale, and every truck owner in the village is pressed into service making collections. Proceeds of the sale go to the maintenance fund of Stinson Beach Community Center, to the Community Church, and to the treasury of Stinson Beach Allied Arts for community and charitable projects.

WORKING UNDER the leadership of Mrs. John Patterson, president, and general chairman of the sale, an accumulation of items is being moved from the storage room to the main hall of the Community Center, and section chairmen are arranging their tables, sorting and pricing the articles that will be sold.

Mesdames Geneva Reinhardt and Ralph Sigmund will handle sales of women's clothing; and Mesdames Carl Engstrom and Alvin A. Eustis will be in charge of bric-a-brac. Other departments will include household articles, clothing, accessories, jewelry, books, pictures, draperies, furniture, and toys. There will also be plants on sale. Managing these departments will be Mesdames Edward Leary, Frederick Conradi, Charles Silva, Frank Moreland, Douglas Smith, William Airey, Walter Marble, Charles Herbert, Walter Boland, Henry Lacaze and Wayne Jeffers.

Special attention will be drawn to the art department, with paintings and picture frames displayed in the patio.

Lagoon Barbecue Becomes A Surprise Farewell Party

By MOLLY MARIN

A dinner party for 36 was given by the Gerald Stratfords of Belvedere last week to honor Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Mayhew of Piedmont, who have just moved to Belvedere for the summer. The occasion was also in celebration of Mrs. Mayhew's birthday. The guests were close friends of the Mayhews and the Stratfords from San Francisco and the East Bay. Small tables, each decorated in a different vivid color arrangement, were set in the Japanese garden, patio and on the deck of the Stratford's Lagoon home. Ursula Stratford again proved herself a "mostest hostess," with another dinner party on Monday. This one honored Mr. and Mrs. George Pridmore of Tiburon who have left for England. Joan and George Pridmore had expected to spend a quiet evening with Gerry and Ursula at an informal barbecue and were taken by surprise when a large group of friends arrived at the farewell party.

MR. AND MRS. ALLAN D. HAYES of Sausalito and their sons, Mark and Keith, are home after visiting the Albert Purcells in Denver, Colo. since June 28. The Purcells are Sausalitans who are living at Bomar Lake near Denver temporarily in connection with Mr. Purcell's business.

HOME IN SAUSALITO after a month of traveling are the Perry Brocks. They went to Kansas City, Mo., where they were joined by Mr. Brock's

NAKED LOOK

Bare Shoulders, Glitter Back In Gowns

BY GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK (UPI)—Fashion has been giving so much attention to legs it looked as if she'd forgotten the room at the top for a change.

The distractingly high hemlines and the fancily patterned stockings drew the eyes of the girl watchers downward. But now, the new evening clothes will haul them back up.

Bare shoulders come back for fall and winter. The evening coverup of the past few seasons is almost nothing at all. Squared and daringly scooped necklines are in. Backless-top dresses reappear. The one shoulder formal—one shoulder covered, one bared is stronger than ever.

SOME FORMALS HAVE absolutely no straps to interrupt the shoulder line. Others have mere strings. And the camisole top, with squared neckline and narrow straps, runs through most New York ready-to-wear collections.

Glitter continues strong. The grand gown for party belles replaces the "nightgown" or "baby dress" of past seasons. Stately satin dresses reappear with that flattering back fullness.

Many ball gowns are richly enough embroidered to have come from a museum. Women by the thousands will "float" into parties in layers of chiffon or tulle, marabou and ostrich feathers.

AMONG THE EXPONENTS of the more "naked" look at the top are such specialists in evening wear as George Stavropoulos, who does many of Mrs. Lyndon B. HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

Pot, Acid And Pep Pills Really Groovy, A 'Head' Tells Helen–

DEAR HELEN:

You won't print this as it is against your beliefs. (Note from H: That's exactly why I am printing it — argument keeps HHU perking.)

I have been hung up in the drug scene for quite a while, and know for a fact that most who "smoke" are not selling their souls for a mess of pot. Hippies are groovy. They are not terrified of life or themselves.

I am in a college of over 5,000. I'd guess between 80 and 85 per cent of the students have tried pot, and 40 per cent of them are "heads." The deans, provost and chancellor know of this. Nothing is done because they don't want a scandal.

I also take pep pills. They get me through finals, and if I take two or three at once I get a "high" like you've never known. At the end I have low times (this is called "crashing" by the hippies) but I've never heard of anyone continuously buying pills to avoid crashing. (Note from H: I have, many times. That's why these drugs are called "psychologically addicting.")

Pot heads and acid heads and people on pills are not criminals. None of us would commit a crime to attain drugs. (Really? Then how come my cousin's drugstore was robbed three times, and the gunmen scooped up every Benzedrine and amphetamine pill they could find?—H.

Also these people do not progress to dope unless they're so hung up with problems they'd become junkies or alcoholics anyway. No one makes a big profit on selling pot, acid or pills — it's not "crime" in the sense that somebody is getting rich over it. (That's a lot of idealistic hogwash! Somebody always profits mightily from illegal sales.—H.)

Marijuana is a "crime" simply because laws are poor. In my opinion it will be legalized in 15 years, and then, as with liquor, only those who become troublesome while using it will be arrested. The "educational program" in schools will be a failure, for what can be taught on the "dangers" of illegal drugs such as pot? How ridiculous to legalize liquor and make pot a crime!

Your statement that use of such drugs might eventually lead to death is the funniest thing I've ever heard. I'm sure you know better.

Note from H: (Tell this to the parents of suicide or fatal accident victims. These drugs distort time and place. They can make users feel all-powerful, so that they lie down in front of moving cars or try to walk on water. Or they create violent depressions. Granted, alcohol sometimes has similar effects, but everyone agrees liquor can be dangerous. Why compound our problems by legalizing drugs, the potency, effects, and perils of which we don't even know?)

In conclusion, Helen, I don't say that everyone should "smoke." It is a groovy thing, and harmless. All I ask is that people who know nothing about these "drugs on the campus" don't put us down. Granted, before I learned about grass, I figured it was associated with dope and crime. Now I know better. They're groovy.

If you do print this, I will give you credit, even though I can imagine your reply.— A HEAD

DEAR HEAD:

If you think pot, acid and pep pills are groovy, that's your problem, not mine. But if I couldn't "turn on" to life without the use of stimulants, and if I felt I must "turn off" with drugs when the going got rough — I'd figure I had a problem that only a psychiatrist could solve.—H.

P.S. Tell me, this word you repeated three times — groovy: what does it mean? Seems to me that's kind of a conformist word — like the high school phrase, "in crowd" . . . And just as juvenile. — H.

"WHAT IS SHE?" a five-year-old white girl asked her mother when Eleanor Curry, Negro mother of eight children, became a teacher's aide in an all-white San Mateo school. Eight months later another youngster told Mrs. Curry, "I still haven't figured out what you are, but you're nice."

Negro Teacher's Aide Finds All-White School Rewarding

Eleanor Curry, a Negro, spent the 1966-67 school year as a teacher's aide in an all-white San Mateo elementary school on the San Francisco Peninsula. Here is her story as told in the district publication, Intercom.

By ELEANOR CURRY

SAN MATEO, Calif. (AP)— Only a few days after I reported for duty last October, a 5-year-old described me to her mother. "There's somebody at school who dresses like our teacher and talks like her, but she's very, very dark. What is she?"

I don't know how her mother responded, but the next day the youngster ran up to me smiling and said, "Come stand by me. I'll help you say the Pledge of Allegiance so you can learn about our country."

It was a somewhat shattering introduction to an experience that has turned out to be rewarding and revealing to me, and I hope meaningful and constructive to the children who at first regarded me as something from a museum.

AS A NEGRO, as the mother of eight children, and as a citizen deeply concerned about education in our community, I had hoped that I could make a contribution to the school district as a teacher's aide.

Some days I mixed paints, read a story or helped with a puppet show, depending upon the needs of the teachers and children in two kindergarten classes to which I was assigned. During the lunch hour I organized games and supervised the play of older children.

At first the children were polite and curious about me—too polite, I thought later, when they looked away if I happened to catch their eye.

THEN THE QUESTIONS started coming. Rarely were they insulting or malicious; more often they were hesitant, tentative and honestly curious.

Since I was learning, too, how best to adapt my skills to the needs of each teacher and individual child, I could appreciate the children's needs to learn more about me.

There were those who found it hard to believe that my hands were not always dirty, and I really was brown all over. Some decided that I had to be from Africa.

Soon I stopped wondering whether the children would accept me as they would any of the other 80 teacher aides in the district. I tried to act as natural as possible.

Whenever a question arose about my origin or background, I tried to talk privately with the child, helping him to grow out of attitudes about which he seemed uncertain and sometimes fearful.

BUT I DID keep wondering whether there were real, basic differences between these children and my own. Even after eight months, when the children and I felt quite relaxed and confident with each other, a 5-year-old said to me, "I still haven't figured out what you are, but you're nice."

Potted Palms Bring Quiet Elegance

Quiet elegance has returned to the home scene — and nowhere is this more noticeable than on summer patios decorated with potted palms.

Combine a cool breeze and shady corner with lounge chairs and potted palms, and you have an oasis that will refresh the spirits now and for years to come.

Not so long ago, rough and tumble informality was evident in many homes throughout the U.S., and palms were out of style. But now that elegance and a respect for quiet, beautiful places for relaxation are returning, so is the tall and graceful palm.

Few houseplants lend themselves more beautifully to both outdoor and indoor living. That is why the homemaker who decorates her patio with potted palms now will enjoy their stately beauty for years to come.

Palms are like people. The Society of American Florists points out that they acquire extra strength in outdoor, summer surroundings, then take welcome refuge inside the home during fall and winter. In fact, if they spend the whole summer outdoors, they will store up enough energy to live in robust health indoors throughout the entire winter.

Palms need warmth — a minimum night temperature of sixty degrees — moist soil, and good light. They should be set in the sun occasionally if their regular location is dimly lighted. However, they must never be overexposed to sunlight. This can cause sunburn, and if the burn is severe, the plant will die.

Novato Parishioners To Hold Rummage

Our Lady of Loretto Parish in Novato will sponsor its annual rummage sale at the Parish Hall for the benefit of the parish from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. A. T. Numes and Mrs. A. F. Ferrera are co-chairmen of the sale.

On Painting Tile

Ceiling tile, the kind that softens sounds, is peppered with perforations. To paint the tile, without destroying its noise-absorbing function, remove the paint from the tiny holes with cotton swabs. The swabs with the wooden sticks are ideal for cleaning out the holes without smearing the paint.

Removing Stains

Use baking powder to remove stains from plastic cups.

Efficiency Needed To Run Home, Job

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — At a bridge luncheon the other day, four stay-at-home wives were discussing a working friend.

"I don't see how she manages to run a home, take care of her husband and children and hold a job at the same time," one said.

"I could do it if I had a fulltime, live-in maid. But I couldn't earn enough to pay her," said another of the group.

Everyone laughed and the subject was dropped.

Yet the latest government statistics show that in 1965, the United States had a female working force of almost 26 million; and all but some 6 million of these women were either married, widowed or divorced.

How they manage work and home is a matter of individual efficiency.

AND EFFICIENT, they are. Although the average woman takes little credit for cramming double and triple duty into each 24 hours.

One of several polled helps her husband run a business, holds another outside job and is an active clubwoman as well.

She laughed merrily when asked how she manages her time.

"Well — I don't have a niche for everything as I had before marriage, I can tell you that. My house is an office, including a big library of reference books. I make an outline of what I have to do and put first things first. Chores like ironing fit in where they can.

"I DO MY MARKETING at night. I go to the laundromat only once in two weeks — you can do seven loads in the same time it takes to do one. At the same time, I get my hair done nearby."

Already a young bride of six weeks is running her two-bedroom house entirely without outside help while working a full-time job and is as well-organized as many an experienced housekeeper. She devotes Saturdays to laundry, cleaning and errands and changes the beds on Sundays.

She cooks dinner each night and has found a solution for the meat-defrosting problem. She removes the meat from the freezer the previous evening, and before going to bed, places it in the refrigerator.

"That way it's ready to cook when I get home, without being soft and mushy from being out all day."

She thinks she may get tired of the rat race, once the novelty of keeping house wears off. "Then maybe I'll borrow my mother's cleaning woman to wash and wax the floors."

WORKING MOTHERS learn to delegate duties to their children and to close their eyes to the lack of perfection.

Typical of this group is a mother of four, one a baby.

She gives the youngsters chores and makes it "a point of principle not to do the kids' jobs." The children are paid to do extra big jobs, such as rug shampooing and cleaning blinds. In this family of six, a woman is hired to do the weekly cleaning, the washing and ironing.

On her day off, this mother cooks ahead. "I like to have a pot roast and several other things I just heat up on a day when I get home late."

Husbands often are helpful to working wives.

"I'm one of the lucky ones," says a mother of two school-age children. "My husband will do anything. He's a much better shopper than I—knows cuts of meats—watches the price per ounce, which I never do. He'll defrost and clean the refrigerator without being asked. And when one of the children is sick, he'll bring work home from the office to be on hand."

Another wife appreciates her husband's errands. "And he always calls before he comes home to ask if he can pick up anything I've forgotten."

In this family, too, the children are called into service. The two young daughters set and clear the table and take care of their own rooms and pets. The elder loves to fix simple desserts. "I don't know how long it will last," her mother said with a smile. "But I'm taking advantage of it while I can."

THIS MOTHER IS another who takes a short-cut to meals by cooking several meals over the weekend. She makes a stew (using frozen leftover vegetables), spaghetti sauce, a casserole and a meat loaf to freeze for later cooking.

A divorcee points out that homemaking is considerably more difficult in a home where there is no father. "There's no one to share anything. Everything falls to the lot of the working mother — even the account keeping and the chauffeuring."

She calls on her two sons for lawn work and small fix-it jobs. "And they're expected to make their own beds. If they don't, I just let them go during the week. I figure their punishment is having to look at them."

THIS MOTHER takes pride in never having let her job interfere with her boys' home life, except for late dinners. "If I have overtime work to do I take it home even if it means taking it down to the office late that night . . . I don't think I'm a very good example. I manage by working all the time."

A working wife for whom retirement is not far off, says her years of experience have taught her the best rule is organization.

"Know what you're going to do before you do it. Have everything mapped out in your mind. Then go ahead."

MR. AND MRS. John M. Croxall not only returned to Tiburon after a four year absence, but repurchased their former home from A. P. Birich. The Croxalls moved to Dallas, then to Los Angeles and are now getting settled in their "new-old" home. They are members of the Corinthian Yacht Club and the Tiburon Peninsula Club.

Sunday their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Mister of Los Gatos visited them, and were on hand when 22 friends from the Bay Area surprised them with a housewarming party. The Croxalls' youngest daughter, Cheryl, who is a graduate of Redwood High School and San Jose State College, is now on a year-long European tour. Her travels will take her to 23 countries.

BILLIE JEAN McCALLUM, daughter of the Jack McCallums of Mill Valley, is leaving on July 22 for a six weeks' tour in Europe with the American Institute for Foreign Study. This is part of a summer session of the Ursuline Academy in Santa Rosa, where Billie Jean will be a senior in the fall.

During four weeks of the tour, students will study at the University of Grenoble in Southern France. They will visit New York, England, Paris, Switzerland, Nice and Monaco, returning on Aug. 29.

Billie Jean's sister Rae, Mrs. Pat Haynie, and her husband who is with the U.S. Marine Corps., are in Kaneohe, Hawaii, for two years. Their brother Gary is in the reserve unit of the U.S. Army stationed in Arizona.

THE W. H. CLOSES of Mill Valley have chartered a boat for the summer for cruising through British Columbia waters, and relatives are taking turns joining them for vacations.

Just returned Saturday are the Kent O. Seymours of Mill Valley — she is the sister of Mr. Close — who were accompanied by their daughter and her husband, the Frederick Franklins of Menlo Park, and their children, Christine and Stephen. As they left the boat the Seymours' son and his wife, the Kent S. Seymours of San Anselmo, with her brother and his wife, the Paul Gastons of Michigan, were arriving.

The beautiful scenery, excellent weather and salmon fishing were highlights of the trip for the Kent Seymours.

THREE INTERESTING visitors from the Continent are houseguests of the Thomas Sullivans at Shelter Bay. They include Frank Walshe, a University College of Dublin student, who is majoring in the arts and mathematics and will be graduated next year. Another guest is Vincent Liptrot who is studying agricultural economics at University College of North Wales. This is his first trip to America, and he is particularly impressed with California. The other student is Edmond McDonnell, who is studying Commerce at University College, Dublin.

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

Pot, Acid And Pep Pills Really Groovy, A 'Head' Tells Helen–

DEAR HELEN:

You won't print this as it is against your beliefs. (Note from H: That's exactly why I am printing it — argument keeps HHU perking.)

I have been hung up in the drug scene for quite a while, and know for a fact that most who "smoke" are not selling their souls for a mess of pot. Hippies are groovy. They are not terrified of life or themselves.

I am in a college of over 5,000. I'd guess between 80 and 85 per cent of the students have tried pot, and 40 per cent of them are "heads." The deans, provost and chancellor know of this. Nothing is done because they don't want a scandal.

I also take pep pills. They get me through finals, and if I take two or three at once I get a "high" like you've never known. At the end I have low times (this is called "crashing" by the hippies) but I've never heard of anyone continuously buying pills to avoid crashing. (Note from H: I have, many times. That's why these drugs are called "psychologically addicting.")

Pot heads and acid heads and people on pills are not criminals. None of us would commit a crime to attain drugs. (Really? Then how come my cousin's drugstore was robbed three times, and the gunmen scooped up every Benzedrine and amphetamine pill they could find?—H.

Also these people do not progress to dope unless they're so hung up with problems they'd become junkies or alcoholics anyway. No one makes a big profit on selling pot, acid or pills — it's not "crime" in the sense that somebody is getting rich over it. (That's a lot of idealistic hogwash! Somebody always profits mightily from illegal sales.—H.)

Marijuana is a "crime" simply because laws are poor. In my opinion it will be legalized in 15 years, and then, as with liquor, only those who become troublesome while using it will be arrested. The "educational program" in schools will be a failure, for what can be taught on the "dangers" of illegal drugs such as pot? How ridiculous to legalize liquor and make pot a crime!

Your statement that use of such drugs might eventually lead to death is the funniest thing I've ever heard. I'm sure you know better.

Note from H: (Tell this to the parents of suicide or fatal accident victims. These drugs distort time and place. They can make users feel all-powerful, so that they lie down in front of moving cars or try to walk on water. Or they create violent depressions. Granted, alcohol sometimes has similar effects, but everyone agrees liquor can be dangerous. Why compound our problems by legalizing drugs, the potency, effects, and perils of which we don't even know?)

In conclusion, Helen, I don't say that everyone should "smoke." It is a groovy thing, and harmless. All I ask is that people who know nothing about these "drugs on the campus" don't put us down. Granted, before I learned about grass, I figured it was associated with dope and crime. Now I know better. They're groovy.

If you do print this, I will give you credit, even though I can imagine your reply.— A HEAD

DEAR HEAD:

If you think pot, acid and pep pills are groovy, that's your problem, not mine. But if I couldn't "turn on" to life without the use of stimulants, and if I felt I must "turn off" with drugs when the going got rough — I'd figure I had a problem that only a psychiatrist could solve.—H.

P.S. Tell me, this word you repeated three times — groovy: what does it mean? Seems to me that's kind of a conformist word — like the high school phrase, "in crowd" . . . And just as juvenile. — H.

"WHAT IS SHE?" a five-year-old white girl asked her mother when Eleanor Curry, Negro mother of eight children, became a teacher's aide in an all-white San Mateo school. Eight months later another youngster told Mrs. Curry, "I still haven't figured out what you are, but you're nice."

Negro Teacher's Aide Finds All-White School Rewarding

Eleanor Curry, a Negro, spent the 1966-67 school year as a teacher's aide in an all-white San Mateo elementary school on the San Francisco Peninsula. Here is her story as told in the district publication, Intercom.

By ELEANOR CURRY

SAN MATEO, Calif. (AP)— Only a few days after I reported for duty last October, a 5-year-old described me to her mother. "There's somebody at school who dresses like our teacher and talks like her, but she's very, very dark. What is she?"

I don't know how her mother responded, but the next day the youngster ran up to me smiling and said, "Come stand by me. I'll help you say the Pledge of Allegiance so you can learn about our country."

It was a somewhat shattering introduction to an experience that has turned out to be rewarding and revealing to me, and I hope meaningful and constructive to the children who at first regarded me as something from a museum.

AS A NEGRO, as the mother of eight children, and as a citizen deeply concerned about education in our community, I had hoped that I could make a contribution to the school district as a teacher's aide.

Some days I mixed paints, read a story or helped with a puppet show, depending upon the needs of the teachers and children in two kindergarten classes to which I was assigned. During the lunch hour I organized games and supervised the play of older children.

At first the children were polite and curious about me—too polite, I thought later, when they looked away if I happened to catch their eye.

THEN THE QUESTIONS started coming. Rarely were they insulting or malicious; more often they were hesitant, tentative and honestly curious.

Since I was learning, too, how best to adapt my skills to the needs of each teacher and individual child, I could appreciate the children's needs to learn more about me.

There were those who found it hard to believe that my hands were not always dirty, and I really was brown all over. Some decided that I had to be from Africa.

Soon I stopped wondering whether the children would accept me as they would any of the other 80 teacher aides in the district. I tried to act as natural as possible.

Whenever a question arose about my origin or background, I tried to talk privately with the child, helping him to grow out of attitudes about which he seemed uncertain and sometimes fearful.

BUT I DID keep wondering whether there were real, basic differences between these children and my own. Even after eight months, when the children and I felt quite relaxed and confident with each other, a 5-year-old said to me, "I still haven't figured out what you are, but you're nice."

Potted Palms Bring Quiet Elegance

Quiet elegance has returned to the home scene — and nowhere is this more noticeable than on summer patios decorated with potted palms.

Combine a cool breeze and shady corner with lounge chairs and potted palms, and you have an oasis that will refresh the spirits now and for years to come.

Not so long ago, rough and tumble informality was evident in many homes throughout the U.S., and palms were out of style. But now that elegance and a respect for quiet, beautiful places for relaxation are returning, so is the tall and graceful palm.

Few houseplants lend themselves more beautifully to both outdoor and indoor living. That is why the homemaker who decorates her patio with potted palms now will enjoy their stately beauty for years to come.

Palms are like people. The Society of American Florists points out that they acquire extra strength in outdoor, summer surroundings, then take welcome refuge inside the home during fall and winter. In fact, if they spend the whole summer outdoors, they will store up enough energy to live in robust health indoors throughout the entire winter.

Palms need warmth — a minimum night temperature of sixty degrees — moist soil, and good light. They should be set in the sun occasionally if their regular location is dimly lighted. However, they must never be overexposed to sunlight. This can cause sunburn, and if the burn is severe, the plant will die.

Novato Parishioners To Hold Rummage

Our Lady of Loretto Parish in Novato will sponsor its annual rummage sale at the Parish Hall for the benefit of the parish from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. A. T. Numes and Mrs. A. F. Ferrera are co-chairmen of the sale.

On Painting Tile

Ceiling tile, the kind that softens sounds, is peppered with perforations. To paint the tile, without destroying its noise-absorbing function, remove the paint from the tiny holes with cotton swabs. The swabs with the wooden sticks are ideal for cleaning out the holes without smearing the paint.

Removing Stains

Use baking powder to remove stains from plastic cups.

Efficiency Needed To Run Home, Job

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — At a bridge luncheon the other day, four stay-at-home wives were discussing a working friend.

"I don't see how she manages to run a home, take care of her husband and children and hold a job at the same time," one said.

"I could do it if I had a fulltime, live-in maid. But I couldn't earn enough to pay her," said another of the group.

Everyone laughed and the subject was dropped.

Yet the latest government statistics show that in 1965, the United States had a female working force of almost 26 million; and all but some 6 million of these women were either married, widowed or divorced.

How they manage work and home is a matter of individual efficiency.

AND EFFICIENT, they are. Although the average woman takes little credit for cramming double and triple duty into each 24 hours.

One of several polled helps her husband run a business, holds another outside job and is an active clubwoman as well.

She laughed merrily when asked how she manages her time.

"Well — I don't have a niche for everything as I had before marriage, I can tell you that. My house is an office, including a big library of reference books. I make an outline of what I have to do and put first things first. Chores like ironing fit in where they can.

"I DO MY MARKETING at night. I go to the laundromat only once in two weeks — you can do seven loads in the same time it takes to do one. At the same time, I get my hair done nearby."

Already a young bride of six weeks is running her two-bedroom house entirely without outside help while working a full-time job and is as well-organized as many an experienced housekeeper. She devotes Saturdays to laundry, cleaning and errands and changes the beds on Sundays.

She cooks dinner each night and has found a solution for the meat-defrosting problem. She removes the meat from the freezer the previous evening, and before going to bed, places it in the refrigerator.

"That way it's ready to cook when I get home, without being soft and mushy from being out all day."

She thinks she may get tired of the rat race, once the novelty of keeping house wears off. "Then maybe I'll borrow my mother's cleaning woman to wash and wax the floors."

WORKING MOTHERS learn to delegate duties to their children and to close their eyes to the lack of perfection.

Typical of this group is a mother of four, one a baby.

She gives the youngsters chores and makes it "a point of principle not to do the kids' jobs." The children are paid to do extra big jobs, such as rug shampooing and cleaning blinds. In this family of six, a woman is hired to do the weekly cleaning, the washing and ironing.

On her day off, this mother cooks ahead. "I like to have a pot roast and several other things I just heat up on a day when I get home late."

Husbands often are helpful to working wives.

"I'm one of the lucky ones," says a mother of two school-age children. "My husband will do anything. He's a much better shopper than I—knows cuts of meats—watches the price per ounce, which I never do. He'll defrost and clean the refrigerator without being asked. And when one of the children is sick, he'll bring work home from the office to be on hand."

Another wife appreciates her husband's errands. "And he always calls before he comes home to ask if he can pick up anything I've forgotten."

In this family, too, the children are called into service. The two young daughters set and clear the table and take care of their own rooms and pets. The elder loves to fix simple desserts. "I don't know how long it will last," her mother said with a smile. "But I'm taking advantage of it while I can."

ROMAN BRIDE

Roman Mini-Skirts —Worn Over Pants

ROME (UPI) — Designers were hedging their bets on hemlines as the Italian high fashion shows for international buyers and the press went into their third day.

The Italian shows, which open the international fall-winter fashion whirl that goes on to Paris and London, have demonstrated to date that most designers think something should happen to hemlines. But they do not want to really commit themselves to any degrees.

THE RESULT is experiments with below-the-knee skirts or ankle-length coats but little real conviction. The only direction skirts have taken so far was down.

Forquet provided mini-skirts —worn over pants.

Horseback Riding, Music Favorites Of New Officer

Music of all kinds, horseback riding, reading, cooking and bowling are counted among the many interests of the new president of Xi Kappa Psi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority.

Mrs. Richard MacPherson and her family came to Novato two years ago from Los Angeles, where she was secretary to Mr. Conheim, of Stamp - Conhaim General Newspaper Advertising Service. She was graduated from the University of Texas in Austin with a degree in business administration.

The new president and her husband, vice president of Equilease Corporation in San Francisco, have two children, Mark, 12, and Michael, eight years of age. They have recently purchased a new home with acreage where they keep their two horses that all the family enjoys. They are members of the Novato Horsemans Association.

Gae has been a member of Beta Sigma Phi for 15 years and was formerly a member in Los Angeles and Texas. She served as recording secretary and publicity chairman this past year and has held every office during her 15 years membership.

Elected to serve with Mrs. MacPherson are Mesdames Eugene Lounder, vice president; David Blodget, recording secretary; Arnold Panaf, corresponding secretary; and John Vernon, treasurer. Inter City Representative is Mrs. Richard Kornegay.

MRS. RICHARD MACPHERSON

Before Painting

If you plan to rearrange your pictures, be sure to choose the new locations before you begin to paint. In this way you can avoid damaging your newly painted walls. Remove the old hooks and nails and fill all holes with spackling material before painting, suggests the National Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association.

Marin Estates Garden Club Names Officers

Mrs. William R. Bills of the Marin Country Club Estates has been elected president of the Marin County Club Garden Club.

Mary Bills, a member of the garden club for two years, has also served as treasurer of the Marin County Club Homeowners Association and as treasurer of Zeta Tau Alpha sorority mothers club, at the University of California.

The Bills have two daughters, Ann, who is residing in Berkeley and Virginia, 19, a student at College of Marin. They have lived in Marin County seven years.

Gardening and reading are the interests of the new president, a graduate of Northwest Missouri State College.

Serving with Mrs. Bills for the new club year are Mesdames Jack Gibbs, vice president; O. D. Oliphant, recording secretary; James Sullivan, corresponding secretary, A. L. Cueva, treasurer and L. A. Julian, parlimentarian.

'Marin Catholic Year Again' For John Fixes Household

Although she spends most of her time with her family the new president of the Marin Catholic High School Women's Club, Mrs. John Fixes of Mill Valley, still gets a nostalgic urge to visit some of the far away spots she has seen before — Europe, for instance.

The mother of three daughters Donna, Priscilla and Patty, Margaret Fixes also served as president of the club last year. And she says, "Last year was Marin Catholic year in our house and I guess this year will be too."

Mrs. Fixes also enjoys music and gardening and other activities as serving on the Notre Dame des Victoires board, Little Children's Aid board and teaching. She holds an elementary teaching credential from the University of California at Los Angeles.

Other new officers of the club are Mesdames Kenneth Hanson, first vice president; Albert Paulist, second vice president; Fred Culver, recording secretary; Thomas Schalick, financial secretary; Theodore Wirth, corresponding secretary; James O'Donnell, treasurer and Manuel Pasquinucci auditor.

ROMAN BRIDE

Roman Mini-Skirts —Worn Over Pants

ROME (UPI) — Designers were hedging their bets on hemlines as the Italian high fashion shows for international buyers and the press went into their third day.

The Italian shows, which open the international fall-winter fashion whirl that goes on to Paris and London, have demonstrated to date that most designers think something should happen to hemlines. But they do not want to really commit themselves to any degrees.

THE RESULT is experiments with below-the-knee skirts or ankle-length coats but little real conviction. The only direction skirts have taken so far was down.

Forquet provided mini-skirts —worn over pants.

Newlyweds Will Live In Alameda

Nikki Lynn Sorich of San Rafael became the bride of James Patrick Kirwan Sunday afternoon at Trinity Lutheran Church.

The daughter of Mrs. John A. Camiccia and Russell Nick Sorich of San Rafael, the bride wore a crepe gown appliqued with lace and styled with Empire bodice.

Her sister Nancy was maid of honor and the other attendants were Julianne Williams of Chicago and Deborah Sorich of San Rafael, another sister. Their dresses were lime green pique in Empire style with applique.

Ralph Dewitt Kirwan of San Francisco was his brother's best man and the ushers were Lou Marie of Berkeley and Jon Harris of Richmond.

A reception followed at the Officers Club at Hamilton Air Force Base.

The couple left on a trip to Canada and Lake Tahoe and will live in Alameda.

Nikki is a graduate of Sir Francis Drake High School and attended College of Marin. She is employed at San Quentin Prison.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Lewis of Alameda are parents of the bridegroom and Mrs. Anna Lewis of San Francisco is his grandmother.

He is a graduate of Alameda High School and University of California with a major in physics and will attend graduate school in bio-physics.

MRS. WILLIAM BILLS

Horseback Riding, Music Favorites Of New Officer

Music of all kinds, horseback riding, reading, cooking and bowling are counted among the many interests of the new president of Xi Kappa Psi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority.

Mrs. Richard MacPherson and her family came to Novato two years ago from Los Angeles, where she was secretary to Mr. Conheim, of Stamp - Conhaim General Newspaper Advertising Service. She was graduated from the University of Texas in Austin with a degree in business administration.

The new president and her husband, vice president of Equilease Corporation in San Francisco, have two children, Mark, 12, and Michael, eight years of age. They have recently purchased a new home with acreage where they keep their two horses that all the family enjoys. They are members of the Novato Horsemans Association.

Gae has been a member of Beta Sigma Phi for 15 years and was formerly a member in Los Angeles and Texas. She served as recording secretary and publicity chairman this past year and has held every office during her 15 years membership.

Elected to serve with Mrs. MacPherson are Mesdames Eugene Lounder, vice president; David Blodget, recording secretary; Arnold Panaf, corresponding secretary; and John Vernon, treasurer. Inter City Representative is Mrs. Richard Kornegay.

MRS. RICHARD MACPHERSON

Before Painting

If you plan to rearrange your pictures, be sure to choose the new locations before you begin to paint. In this way you can avoid damaging your newly painted walls. Remove the old hooks and nails and fill all holes with spackling material before painting, suggests the National Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association.

'Marin Catholic Year Again' For John Fixes Household

Although she spends most of her time with her family the new president of the Marin Catholic High School Women's Club, Mrs. John Fixes of Mill Valley, still gets a nostalgic urge to visit some of the far away spots she has seen before — Europe, for instance.

The mother of three daughters Donna, Priscilla and Patty, Margaret Fixes also served as president of the club last year. And she says, "Last year was Marin Catholic year in our house and I guess this year will be too."

Mrs. Fixes also enjoys music and gardening and other activities as serving on the Notre Dame des Victoires board, Little Children's Aid board and teaching. She holds an elementary teaching credential from the University of California at Los Angeles.

Other new officers of the club are Mesdames Kenneth Hanson, first vice president; Albert Paulist, second vice president; Fred Culver, recording secretary; Thomas Schalick, financial secretary; Theodore Wirth, corresponding secretary; James O'Donnell, treasurer and Manuel Pasquinucci auditor.

Water District Agenda Includes Annexation Pact

Construction agreements and an annexation are the main items on the agenda of the North Marin County Water District board for today's meeting at 8 p.m. in the district office at 999 Atherton Avenue, Novato.

The construction agreements are to bring water service to the San Marin Elementary School on San Carlos Drive, the projected Sinaloa Junior High School on Wilson Avenue at Vineyard Road and the Novato Auto Mart on Redwood Highway South.

The annexation is a parcel of approximately 40 acres on the east side of Highway 101 in Sonoma County, which can get service from the North Marin district's 30-inch aqueduct to Petaluma.

Other items to come before the board on a short agenda include a discussion of the pension trust agreement and amendments of assessments to the Black Point Improvement District.

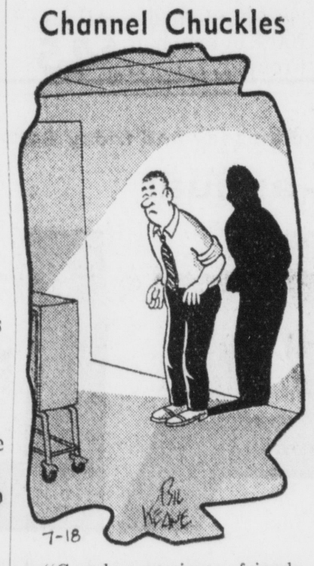
Channel Chuckles



"Good evening, friends. Welcome to 'Spotlight'."

Unification Bonus To Be Discussed

The Marin County School District Organization Committee will discuss tomorrow Reed School District's opposition to an increase of the unification bonus from $15 to $30 per pupil proposed in Assembly Bill 272.

The committee meets at 8 p.m. at the Marin County superintendent of schools office, 201 Tamal Vista Boulevard, Corte Madera.

Reed School District trustees hope the committee and other school districts will join their stand in being "unalterably opposed" to the state granting a bonus to districts which voted "yes" in unsuccessful unification elections. The district holds that such a bonus is unconstitutional.

An appointment to fill the vacancy left by Floyd Fisher's resignation from the committee is expected at the meeting. Names of candidates were not available today from the county schools office.

Permit Parking To Be Discussed

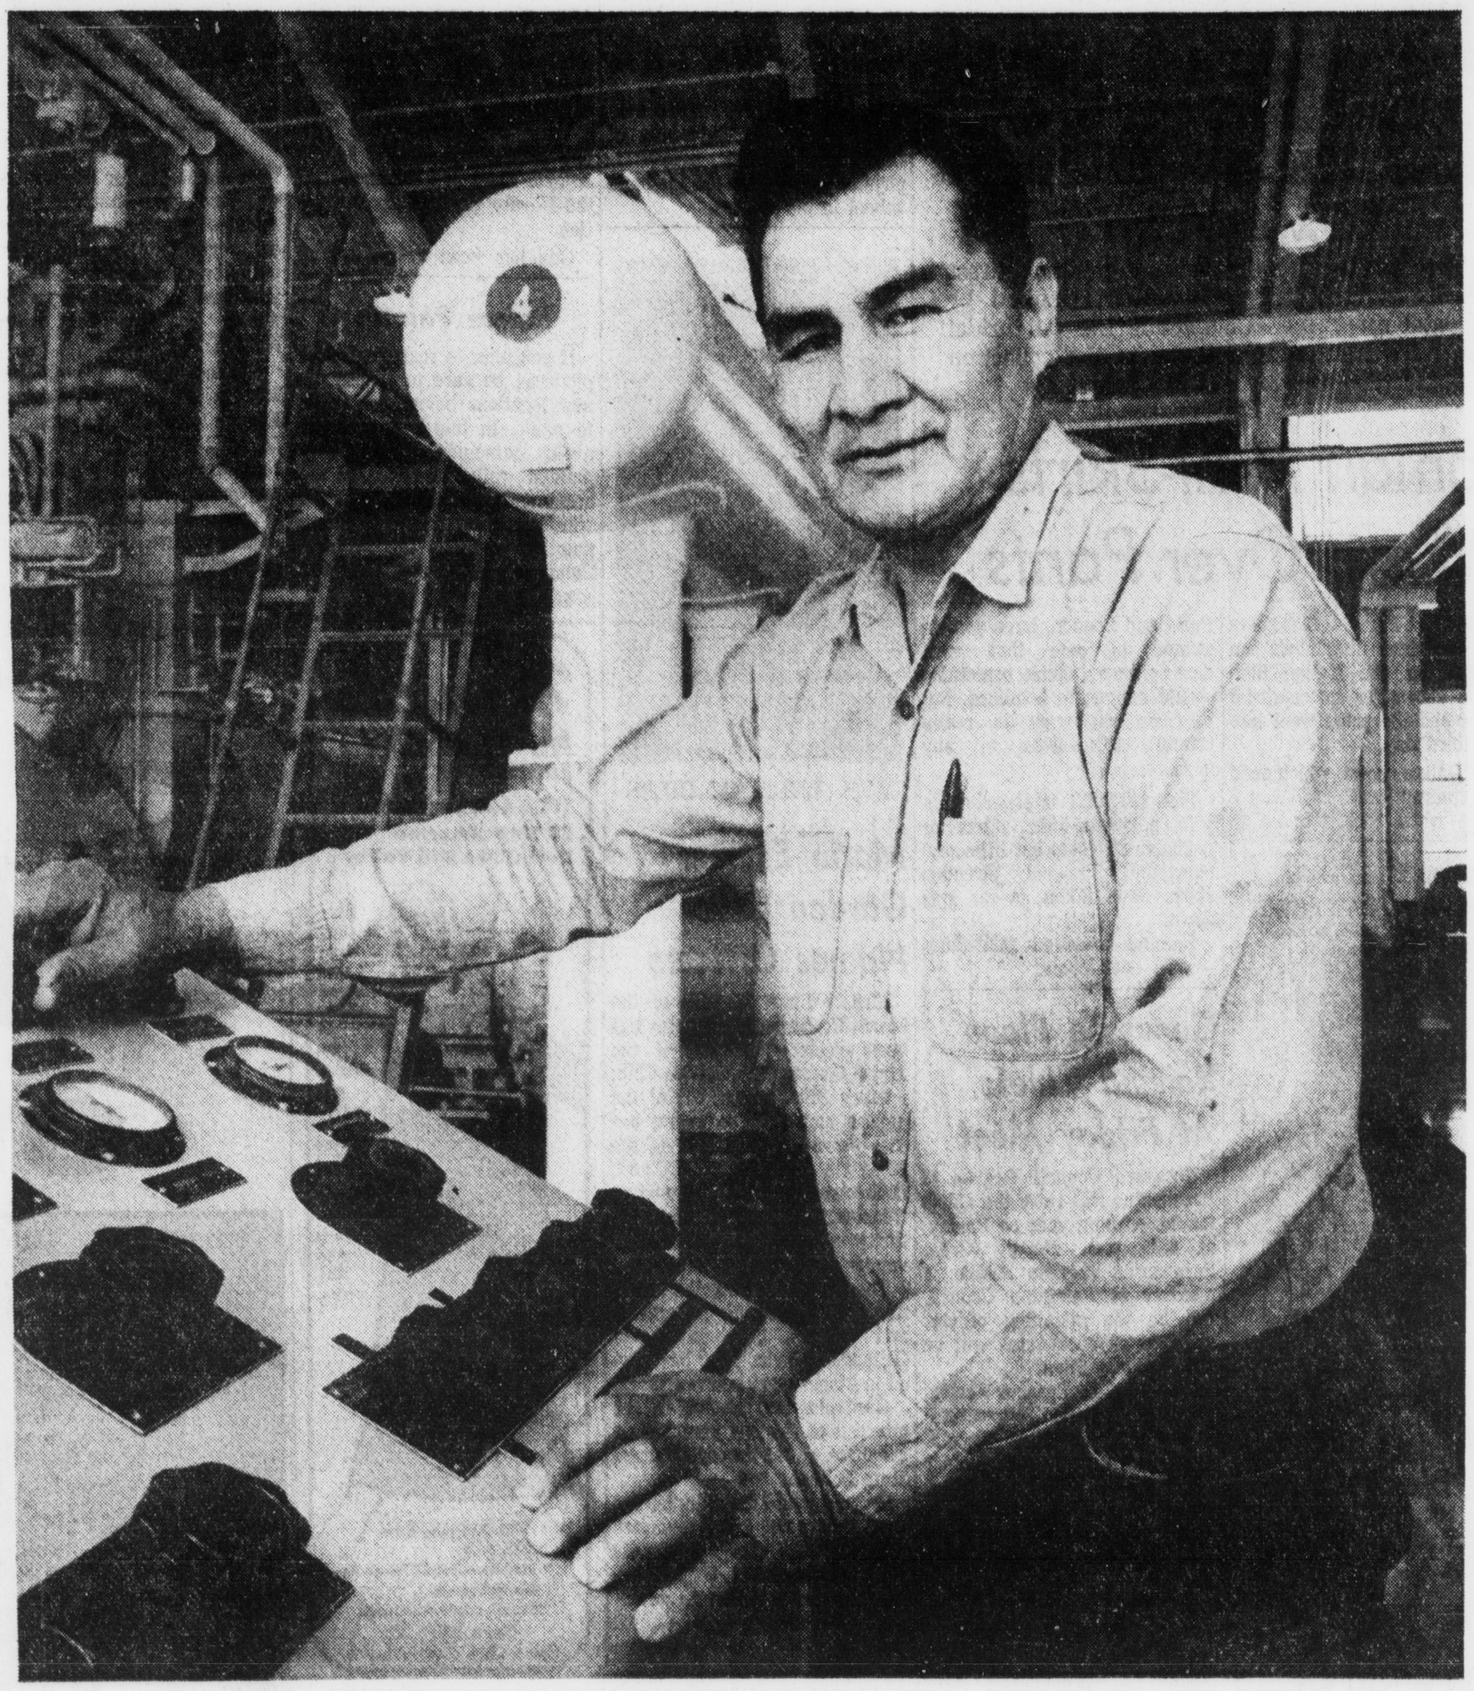
The number of spaces to be set aside for permit parking in a new waterfront lot is to be recommended by City Mgr. George M. Patterson to Sausalito City Council at 8 p.m. today in City Hall.

Councilmen agreed last week to provide reserved permit parking in the now free lot behind the post office and Shell station. The lot is to be metered later this month.

Patterson said last week his recommendation will depend upon the number of persons who want permits. Written requests for about 20 spaces were received by City Hall as of yesterday.

Patterson also is to recommend a fee for the spaces.

Councilmen also will consider a request from library trustees to extend validated parking weekdays to library users for a three-month trial period.



1,239,455 Horses

Chee Keams rides herd on 30,500 horses. Iron horses.

An operator at an El Paso Natural Gas Company compressor station, Chee assures that the mammoth engines of his station are constantly at their best. Fuel combustion must be excellent; oil must flow to all parts; pressures must be maintained; operating temperatures are precisely controlled.

Chee's station is one of 130 on the El Paso Natural system. Chee's station has 30,500 horsepower; the 130, in total, are rated at 1,239,455 horsepower.

One of many Navajos who work with El Paso to serve the West, Chee is dedicated and skillful. His high competency along with that of the other 5,400 employees of El Paso Natural — who specialize in fields ranging from electronics through aviation to mechanics — is among the reasons that California has natural gas rates that are among the lowest in the nation.*

EL PASO NATURAL GAS COMPANY

Through its pipelines El Paso Natural serves California and ten other western states.

*Federal Power Commission figures show that Los Angeles and San Francisco-Oakland enjoy the lowest wholesale gas prices of any of the 14 largest metropolitan areas in the nation. El Paso Natural's rates are the lowest of the three pipelines bringing gas to the state. All communities in California, regardless of size, enjoy the benefits of these low rates.

Water District Agenda Includes Annexation Pact

Construction agreements and an annexation are the main items on the agenda of the North Marin County Water District board for today's meeting at 8 p.m. in the district office at 999 Atherton Avenue, Novato.

The construction agreements are to bring water service to the San Marin Elementary School on San Carlos Drive, the projected Sinaloa Junior High School on Wilson Avenue at Vineyard Road and the Novato Auto Mart on Redwood Highway South.

The annexation is a parcel of approximately 40 acres on the east side of Highway 101 in Sonoma County, which can get service from the North Marin district's 30-inch aqueduct to Petaluma.

Other items to come before the board on a short agenda include a discussion of the pension trust agreement and amendments of assessments to the Black Point Improvement District.

Unification Bonus To Be Discussed

The Marin County School District Organization Committee will discuss tomorrow Reed School District's opposition to an increase of the unification bonus from $15 to $30 per pupil proposed in Assembly Bill 272.

The committee meets at 8 p.m. at the Marin County superintendent of schools office, 201 Tamal Vista Boulevard, Corte Madera.

Reed School District trustees hope the committee and other school districts will join their stand in being "unalterably opposed" to the state granting a bonus to districts which voted "yes" in unsuccessful unification elections. The district holds that such a bonus is unconstitutional.

An appointment to fill the vacancy left by Floyd Fisher's resignation from the committee is expected at the meeting. Names of candidates were not available today from the county schools office.

San Rafael Personnel Cut To Ease Budget

San Rafael's work force has been decreased by six because of a tight budget and a slackening of activity in two departments.

During recent budget deliberations the council eliminated three maintenance men and a stenographer-clerk in public works and a typist-clerk in the building department. An electrical inspector will be transferred from the building department to a new job of city electrical maintenance formerly done by an outside contractor.

In two other cases, men who are leaving the public works department won't be replaced during the year, Public Works Director Norris M. Rawles said.

The building inspection staff was cut because of a slowdown in building activity.

There were 226 city employees during the 1966-67 fiscal year.

In the clerical positions Mayor C. Paul Bettini said the council authorized City Mgr. Dan E. Andersen to move clerks "according to seniority" to other positions in their classifications.

Mrs. Regina Buchanan, stenographer-clerk in the building department, who has been four years with the city, was transferred to the parks and recreation department. She replaced Mrs. Rosalie Wise, a clerk-typist, who had one year, four months of city employment.

Mrs. Junita Maguire, a typist-clerk in the building department, was transferred to the finance department, replacing Mrs. Vivian Byars, an account clerk, who has been with the city four months.

Concert Series Dates Announced

Dates for the seventh annual Mozart festival and candlelight concert series were announced today by Mrs. Martin Goldschmidt, music chairman for sponsoring Homestead Valley Improvement Club.

The Mozart festival will be held on Sept. 3 at 1 p.m. in Stolte Grove, Mill Valley.

The candlelight concerts, all scheduled for 8 p.m. in Brown's Hall, Mill Valley, will be: the Francesco Trio, Dec. 17; and Bach-to-Mozart group concerts on Jan. 28, Feb. 25 and March 31.

Sculpture Display Uses Found Objects

A showing of "found object" sculpture by Art Grant of Sausalito opened Saturday for a 45-day run at Creative Arts, 22 El Portal, Sausalito.

The show coincides with release of a book by Grant and Henry Rasmusen of Mill Valley, "Sculpture From Junk." Photography for the book was done by Rasmusen and by Glenn Mitchell, Ray Anderson and Edward Bigelow, all of Sausalito.

Opening Delayed

The Straw Hat Lemonade Concert, "To Soothe the Savage," has delayed its opening in the Festival Theater, 2 Kensington Road, San Anselmo from Thursday to Friday at 8:30 p.m., a theater spokesman said yesterday. It will run through Aug. 27.

Million Dollar School Contract Is Awarded

A $1,290,695 contract was awarded last night to E. C. Anderson Co. of San Francisco to construct Sinaloa Junior High School at Wilson Avenue and Vineyard Road by the Novato Unified School District trustees.

Although Anderson was not the low bidder in the base bid for the building and utilities, the board took all the alternatives added together which made him the lowest of seven bidders.

The next low bidder was Pacific Coast Builders of San Francisco with a total bid of $1,309,500 and third was Martinelli Construction Co. of San Francisco with a bid of $1,326,000.

Martinelli with a base bid of $1,157,700 was the low bidder for the building and utilities. However, his bid for landscaping for erosion control was $56,000 compared to Anderson's bid of $10,000 which made Anderson low for the total.

Richard Banwell, architect of the building, said that there was "some misunderstanding over that portion of the bidding."

"The documents were not completely clear showing the soil erosion plantings," Banwell told the board.

He said that an hour prior to bid time, his firm had phoned the contractors and told them that the state allocation for the item was $10,000.

The board decided that all seven bidders had access to the state figures and therefore could have met the Anderson bid on this site.

The alternates which were approved by the board, in addition to the base bid for the building and utilities, included the cut bank erosion control plantings, sprinkler system, chain link fencing, turfing, carpets and flooring.

The Novato Unified School District Board also:

SCIENCE — Awarded an $11,714 contract to Clifford Francis Construction Co. of Novato to remodel the science room at San Jose Junior High School.

GRADING — Approved changing the grading plans at the Sinaloa Junior High School to leave the catch basins to be finished with the building for a credit of approximately $800 and to install pipe line for utilities at the same time the $4,500 bridges over a creek are constructed. The exact figures on these will be submitted to the board at its next meeting.

APPLICATION — Approved an application for $51,374 in federal funds for books and materials for libraries for language courses under the aid for educationally deprived children.

DRUGS — Heard a report from Gilbert Gurin, who compiled material to teach the bad effects of drug use, that more than half of the students who took the course last spring reported that it had helped them.

EMPLOYMENT — Accepted the resignation of Pamela Dokken form San Jose Junior High School and hired James Caranica at $6,657 for the high school and Lou Elsa Nathe at $6,094 for elementary school.

Planners Approve Ramp And Carport

The San Anselmo Planning Commission last night approved two variance requests, for a carport and for an approach ramp.

Variances were granted to Dewayne Toulous for a deck-carport at 17 Hawthorne Avenue and to Samuel A. Young for an approach ramp at 78 Longwood Drive. Commissioners John F. West and Alan J. Creighton were absent.

What to do about obscene, harassing or threatening phone calls

We're very much concerned about offensive and malicious phone calls and we're expanding our efforts to combat them.

We hope you never receive such a call, but if you do, here are some ways you and your family can discourage the caller:

Hang up—if the caller doesn't answer when you say "hello".

Hang up—at the first obscene word or improper personal question.

Hang up—if the caller doesn't identify himself to your satisfaction. And never give your phone number to an unknown caller.

What these malicious callers really want is an audience. You can usually discourage them by simply hanging up.

If the calls persist, call our Business Office. We have employees who are trained to assist and advise you and who can frequently help in identifying the origin of unwelcome and troublesome calls.

Obscene or threatening phone calls violate state laws, and conviction can result in fines and imprisonment up to six months. We're working closely with law enforcement agencies in prosecuting violators.

We want to do all we can to protect your right to privacy.

SINGING LESSON

Marjorie Casebier gives a music lesson to Andy Coburn in this scene from the Straw Hat Lemonade Concert-Revue, opening Thursday at Festival Theatre, San Anselmo. Performances of the satiric examination of music and musicians will begin at 8:30 p.m. Thursdays through Saturdays and at 7:30 p.m. Sundays. (Claire Henze photo)

San Rafael Personnel Cut To Ease Budget

San Rafael's work force has been decreased by six because of a tight budget and a slackening of activity in two departments.

During recent budget deliberations the council eliminated three maintenance men and a stenographer-clerk in public works and a typist-clerk in the building department. An electrical inspector will be transferred from the building department to a new job of city electrical maintenance formerly done by an outside contractor.

In two other cases, men who are leaving the public works department won't be replaced during the year, Public Works Director Norris M. Rawles said.

The building inspection staff was cut because of a slowdown in building activity.

There were 226 city employees during the 1966-67 fiscal year.

In the clerical positions Mayor C. Paul Bettini said the council authorized City Mgr. Dan E. Andersen to move clerks "according to seniority" to other positions in their classifications.

Mrs. Regina Buchanan, stenographer-clerk in the building department, who has been four years with the city, was transferred to the parks and recreation department. She replaced Mrs. Rosalie Wise, a clerk-typist, who had one year, four months of city employment.

Mrs. Junita Maguire, a typist-clerk in the building department, was transferred to the finance department, replacing Mrs. Vivian Byars, an account clerk, who has been with the city four months.

Concert Series Dates Announced

Dates for the seventh annual Mozart festival and candlelight concert series were announced today by Mrs. Martin Goldschmidt, music chairman for sponsoring Homestead Valley Improvement Club.

The Mozart festival will be held on Sept. 3 at 1 p.m. in Stolte Grove, Mill Valley.

The candlelight concerts, all scheduled for 8 p.m. in Brown's Hall, Mill Valley, will be: the Francesco Trio, Dec. 17; and Bach-to-Mozart group concerts on Jan. 28, Feb. 25 and March 31.

Sculpture Display Uses Found Objects

A showing of "found object" sculpture by Art Grant of Sausalito opened Saturday for a 45-day run at Creative Arts, 22 El Portal, Sausalito.

The show coincides with release of a book by Grant and Henry Rasmusen of Mill Valley, "Sculpture From Junk." Photography for the book was done by Rasmusen and by Glenn Mitchell, Ray Anderson and Edward Bigelow, all of Sausalito.

Opening Delayed

The Straw Hat Lemonade Concert, "To Soothe the Savage," has delayed its opening in the Festival Theater, 2 Kensington Road, San Anselmo from Thursday to Friday at 8:30 p.m., a theater spokesman said yesterday. It will run through Aug. 27.

Million Dollar School Contract Is Awarded

A $1,290,695 contract was awarded last night to E. C. Anderson Co. of San Francisco to construct Sinaloa Junior High School at Wilson Avenue and Vineyard Road by the Novato Unified School District trustees.

Although Anderson was not the low bidder in the base bid for the building and utilities, the board took all the alternatives added together which made him the lowest of seven bidders.

The next low bidder was Pacific Coast Builders of San Francisco with a total bid of $1,309,500 and third was Martinelli Construction Co. of San Francisco with a bid of $1,326,000.

Martinelli with a base bid of $1,157,700 was the low bidder for the building and utilities. However, his bid for landscaping for erosion control was $56,000 compared to Anderson's bid of $10,000 which made Anderson low for the total.

Richard Banwell, architect of the building, said that there was "some misunderstanding over that portion of the bidding."

"The documents were not completely clear showing the soil erosion plantings," Banwell told the board.

He said that an hour prior to bid time, his firm had phoned the contractors and told them that the state allocation for the item was $10,000.

The board decided that all seven bidders had access to the state figures and there fore could have met the Anderson bid on this site.

The alternates which were approved by the board, in addition to the base bid for the building and utilities, included the cut bank erosion control plantings, sprinkler system, chain link fencing, turfing, carpets and flooring.

The Novato Unified School District Board also:

SCIENCE — Awarded an $11,714 contract to Clifford Francis Construction Co. of Novato to remodel the science room at San Jose Junior High School.

GRADING — Approved changing the grading plans at the Sinaloa Junior High School to leave the catch basins to be finished with the building for a credit of approximately $800 and to install pipe line for utilities at the same time the $4,500 bridges over a creek are constructed. The exact figures on these will be submitted to the board at its next meeting.

APPLICATION — Approved an application for $51,374 in federal funds for books and materials for libraries for language courses under the aid for educationally deprived children.

DRUGS — Heard a report from Gilbert Gurin, who compiled material to teach the bad effects of drug use, that more than half of the students who took the course last spring reported that it had helped them.

EMPLOYMENT — Accepted the resignation of Pamela Dokken form San Jose Junior High School and hired James Caranica at $6,657 for the high school and Lou Elsa Nathe at $6,094 for elementary school.

Planners Approve Ramp And Carport

The San Anselmo Planning Commission last night approved two variance requests, for a carport and for an approach ramp.

Variances were granted to Dewayne Toulous for a deck-carport at 17 Hawthorne Avenue and to Samuel A. Young for an approach ramp at 78 Longwood Drive. Commissioners John F. West and Alan J. Creighton were absent.

Mill Valley Will Ask State Funds To Fix Slides Caused By Rains

Mill Valley City Council last night voted to apply for $59,000 in state funds under the emergency flood relief law.

The funds, if voted by the legislature, would be for repair of four slides caused by heavy rains last winter.

City Eng. Stanley M. Bala said his estimates were based on visual inspection of the slides. He figured cost of repairs at $9,000 for a slide at 389 Ethel Avenue, $25,000 for a slide across from 81 Fairway Drive, $10,000 for collapse of the roadway at 143 Ethel Avenue and $15,000 for a slide near 66 Hillside Avenue.

City Councilman George E. Wickham urged deletion from the application of the $25,000 for Fairway Drive, arguing it was not a city-owned street. "State funds are local funds, when you come right down to it," he said.

Asst. City Mgr. Harold E. Soule, however, said deletion of the $25,000 would bring amount of the application below the minimum to be eligible for a grant, also, Fairway Drive is a public street and may be dedicated to the city by the time state funds are available, he said.

Repair of the Hillside Avenue slide anticipates some sharing of costs between the city and Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church, Bala said. "The whole hill is nothing but springs."

It would be "difficult" to determine that construction of the new church below the avenue triggered the slide, Bala said.

Councilman Michael Wornum was absent.

Mill Valley City Council also:

DIPSEA — Changed time of special meeting Saturday from 9 to 9:30 a.m. in city hall to award contract for repair of Ocean Way portion of Dipsea Trail before the Aug. 27 race, cost estimated at $7,000. Bids will be opened 8:30 a.m. in Bala's Corte Madera office.

DRAINAGE—Approved plans for drainage improvements in Ryan Avenue easement between Nelson Avenue and Camino Alto and set bid opening 2 p.m. Aug. 4 in Bala's office, cost estimated at $7,800.

CHANNEL — Heard Soule report the Army Corps of Engineers' report on design and cost of Saucelito Canal dredging project "is expected momentarily."

FEES — Gave first reading to an ordinance increasing drainage fees 10 per cent and extending them to single lot developments.

GARBAGE — Adopted an ordinance amending carrying charges for garbage cans from 25 cents for each 50 feet beyond the first 50 feet, to 25 cents for carrying 101 to 300 feet, and 50 cents beyond 300 feet, carrying distance measured from street.

APPOINTMENTS — Heard Mayor Albert E. White, for the fourth meeting in a row, put off appointments to vacancies on the planning commission, architectural advisory committee, art commission and board of permit appeals.

MIDDLE SCHOOL — Heard Dr. James A. Collins, Mill Valley School District superintendent, report appraisals of private property in Project 17 area for proposed "middle school" may be complete Monday. Councilmen rejected a proposal by Mayor White to have the school district extend appraisal to all private lands in area proposed for joint school-city recreation facility.

ADJOURN — Adjourned in memory of Lawrence M. Douglas of Mill Valley, veteran Sierra Club mountaineer killed July 7 in a fall near Juneau, Alaska.

Residence Site Request Denied Second Time

Richard A. Toschi's request for approval of a residence site Stirling Road west of Vision Road, Inverness, was denied for the second time in three years yesterday by Marin County Zoning Administrator Thomas E. Cordill.

Toschi needs a variance because the lot is too narrow for the residentail zone.

Toschi indicated he would appeal the decision. In 1964, Cordill rejected a similar application, but the decision was reversed by the planning commission. The board of supervisors then overturned the planning commission's ruling.

Approved yesterday by Cordill were varience applications by Mrs. Amy Jacobs to add a bedroom to her home at 602 Edgewood Avenue, near Mill Valley, and by Joseph Rasonsky of 5 Barranca Road, Forest Knolls, for a utility shed in the rear of his home.

Yams contain 100 times more vitamin A than white potatoes. It takes 7½ pounds of fresh yams to make 1 pound of instant yam flakes. The flakes come in 5-ounce packages; reconstituted with water or fruit juice, one package makes 1¼ cups, enough for 3 to 4 servings.

Apartment Complex Occupancy Approved

The Corte Madera Town Council last night approved occupancy of the Mariner Green apartment complex after the Public Utilities Commission took responsibility for the apartments' controversial electrical wiring hookup.

The council withheld the permits last month pending a PUC ruling on jurisdiction over the hookup. Building Inspector William G. McBride told the council then that the hookup was far below national electrical code standards and was a potential fire hazard.

The PUC notified the town last week the commission had jurisdiction, and had found the wiring adequate.

The PUC finding was challenged last night by attorney David W. Leahy for the Electrical Contractors Association, who asked the council to insist on the heavier hookup called for in the code.

Leahy said "several fires" had occurred at Rossmoore Leisure World in Contra Costa County, where an identical hookup was used.

He said the PUC has yet to issue a decision on two cases stemming from Rossmoor, and said the League of California Cities agrees the Rossmoor installation is not up to standard.

"The esstential question has to do with your power to regulate the health and safety" of the town, Leahy told the council.

The council qualified its action by adding that if the PUC increases standards later, Mariner Green will have to meet the higher standards.

In another action, the council approved buying a corporation yard site on Lucky Drive for $67,377. Owners of the lot west of Fifer Avenue are Carl E. Priest and Stanley A. Weigel.

The Corte Madera Town Council Also:

ANIMAL LAW — Adopted an ordinance increasing county-wide fees for animal services charged by the Marin County Humane Society. The ordinance will take effect only after all cities in Marin have adopted it.

AUTO CENTER — Set a public hearing at 8 p.m. Aug. 7 for a proposal to add automotive diagnostic centers to the permitted uses in highway commercial districts.

WEED NUISANCE — Declared weeds at 251 Sausalito Street a public nuisance and set a public hearing at 8:15 p.m. Aug. 7 to start abatement.

SPECIFICATIONS — Set bid specifications for sprinkler materials for 1967-8 beautification projects and called for bids to be opened at 2 p.m. Aug. 4 at Town Hall.

Mini-Mines Blind Demolition Man

FORT WALTON BEACH, Fla. (AP)—A box of mini-mines exploded in the face of an Air Force demolition expert yesterday and blinded him.

The mines, collected from North Florida shores where they were accidentally scattered Sunday, detonated in the face of T/Sgt. Johnny B. Brady, 37.

Officials said Brady was blinded, suffered ear damage and facial lacerations. An Eglin Air Force Base spokesman said, "We don't know if the blindness is permanent or not."

Brady was one of a task force of servicemen and deputies who scoured 120 miles of shore for the tiny explosives.

Mini-Mines Blind Demolition Man

FORT WALTON BEACH, Fla. (AP)—A box of mini-mines exploded in the face of an Air Force demolition expert yesterday and blinded him.

The mines, collected from North Florida shores where they were accidentally scattered Sunday, detonated in the face of T/Sgt. Johnny B. Brady, 37.

Officials said Brady was blinded, suffered ear damage and facial lacerations. An Eglin Air Force Base spokesman said, "We don't know if the blindness is permanent or not."

Brady was one of a task force of servicemen and deputies who scoured 120 miles of shore for the tiny explosives.

Farmland, Open Space Tax Relief Studied

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — A joint legislative comittee has been given the task of developing methods to provide property tax relief for farmers and other owners of open space land.

Joint committee chairman, Assemblyman John T. Knox, D-Richmond, said he hopes the committee's recommendations will be ready for the 1968 legislature in January.

The committee was authorized by the legislature after it rejected several measures designed to carry out provisions of Proposition 3, the so-called open space amendment. The constitutional amendment, directing the legislature to establish separate assessment standards for open space lands, was approved by the voters last November.

Knox said present tax laws enable open space land in the path of urban development to be assessed as a potential subdivision. Because of the higher tax rate, he said, the farmers cannot make enough money to pay his taxes and must sell his property for urban uses.

"My committee's job is to develop new assessment laws so that a serious farmer, for example, might continue to till his land and continue to pay taxes as a farmer not as the owner of a shopping center," Knox said.

Balloons served as aerial observation posts in the American Civil War.

Fifth Round On Novato's Budget

The Novato City Council will hold its fifth budget study session at 8 p.m., today in the Novato Community House.

The council will go to Saramento tomorrow morning to meet with the State Highway Commission to see it the construction of the freeway (101) through Novato can be speeded up by the state.

North Arthritis Unit Quits Bay Group

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The Arthritis Foundation's northern California chapter withdrew yesterday from the United Bay Area Crusade, saying its allocation was not adequate.

The foundation asked $120,000 and got $91,500 from the last crusade which collected $14 million, $1 million less than its goal. goal.

Reagan-Fired State Workers May Get Cash

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Civil service employees who lose their jobs during Gov. Ronald Reagan's economy cutbacks would be eligible for unemployment benefits under legislation before the Assembly today.

The bill by Assemblyman Bob Moretti, D-Van Nuys, was approved by the Ways and Means Committee yesterday. Legislative analyst A. Alan Post said the measure would cost the state $1.4 million a year.

Moretti said state employees should be treated the same as private employees in receiving unemployment compensation.

His bill would provide benefits for workers who are involuntarily laid off as a money-saving move. It would not affect workers who lose their jobs for other reasons or who quit voluntarily.

Elderly Homeowners May Be Granted Tax Deferment

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Property tax relief aimed to save the homes and slim budgets of "several hundred thousand" elderly Californians moved to the Assembly today after winning Senate approval.

The bill, backed by Republican Gov. Ronald Reagan and sponsored by Sen. James Q. Wedworth, D-Hawthorne, won bipartisan approval on a 32-2 vote yesterday.

Under the plan, property taxes on elderly citizens with modest means could be postponed until they sell their homes, or until they die.

The state would loan local governments the lost tax revenue. Wedworth estimated the first year's cost at $11 million, with eventual state cost at $110 million annually.

Persons over 65 would have to ask for the tax postponement by next April 15 — if the legislation is passed — to be eligible when it would take effect in 1968-69.

To qualify, Californians would have to be 65 — 62 for women — with annual retirement incomes of less than $5,000 annually and owning homes assessed at less than $7,500. They must also have been California residents for at least five years.

The Mason-Dixon Line was drawn in 1767 to end a bitter colonial land dispute. It extends from east to west between Pennsylvania and Maryland, with a shorter branch reaching southward then east between Maryland and Delaware. All three states were on the Union side during the Civil War.

San Rafael City Employees Get 2.5 Per Cent Increase In Pay

San Rafael City Council last night granted city employees a 2.5 per cent cost of living pay boost and major medical insurance coverage.

Employees had requested a 5 per cent pay hike and upgrading of some job classifications.

The vote was 3-1 with Councilman John A. Miskimen, who favored a higher increase, dissenting. Councilman Fred E. Jensen was absent because of illness.

Mayor C. Paul Bettini noted that the pay boost didn't cover department heads, whose salaries will be reviewed before the city budget for 1967-68 is adopted.

The mayor estimated that the 2.5 per cent pay boost would cost $38,437 and the insurance coverage about $5,000. He said the 2.5 per cent boost was all the city could afford.

Councilmen explained to the audience, including about 30 city employees, that the city's financial situation for 1967-68 is tight.

Councilman Harry A. Barbier said the city isn't in the financial position to do "as well as we did last year," when it granted 5 per cent pay boosts.

Barbier said the employees' proposal would have cost more than $160,000, with most of the cost in changing classifications.

Mayor Bettini said the sales tax revenues and revenues from building fees have dropped during the past year.

Richard R. Endy, who works in the city engineering department, asked why employees "have to bear the brunt" because of a decline in revenues.

Bettini noted that the council granted the raises before it "put aside" any funds for capital improvements for 1967-68.

Before the vote, councilmen were discussing statistics that the cost of living in the Bay Area was up 1.91 per cent.

Miskimen said councilmen would be kidding themselves if they thought that a "two per cent increase in Marin" would enable employees "to keep even." The trend in cost of living raises has been "in the neighborhood" of 5 per cent, he said. Baar later moved for the 2.5 per cent hike.

The San Rafael City Council also:

FIRE PACT—Approved a mutual assistance agreement between city and the Terra Linda Community Services District for fire protection, which permits Terra Linda firemen to respond to calsl in city territory in the Terra Linda area.

LARGE ANNEXATION — After a hearing at which there were no protests, introduced an ordinance to annex 397 acres southwest of Highway 17 from opposite Harbor Street to San Quentin Point, but excluding a trailer court at 742 Francisco Boulevard.

OFF-STREET PARKING — Designated half of the city's upper parking lot at Third Street and Lootens Place for all-day parking (nine hours) with one-half to remain for two-hour parking. The vote was 3-1 with Baar, who felt that the lot should be for shoppers rather than "all-day sleepers," dissenting.

QUAIL HILL REZONING — Passed to print an ordinance rezoning Quail Hill in Northgate to allow construction of a conference center, administrative-professional buildings, a commercial building, 34 houses and 110 townhouses in an 82-acre planned community. The former plan was all residential, 34 houses and 216 townhouses.

CHARTER REVISIONS — Postponed until Aug. 7 introduction of an ordinance to put into effect charter revisions approved by voter in April, including new regulations covering commissions.

GLENWOOD SUBDIVISIONS — Approved a final map of Glenwood Forest Unit Two, north and east of Glenwood, a 93-lot subdivision by Perma-Bilt Enterprises, including a 23-acre parcel to be donated to the city for open space and recreational activities.

DEMOLITION LIEN — Approved a $2,468 lien against the property at 1364 Grand Avenue for city costs for demolition of an old partially burned residence and three shacks that were declared a public nuisance.

UNDERGROUNDING — Entered into an agreement with Pacific Gas and Electric Co. to place an overhead line in the alley between B and C streets, west of Julia Court, underground at a city cost of $358, since two city street light poles are involved

HEARINGS — Set Aug. 7 for a hearing on rezoning of property at 25 to 111 Third Street from duplex to general commercial and a hearing on an ordinance amendment to permit accessory structures in side and rear yard areas.

FIREMEN'S LEAVE — Granted Fireman Leo F. Schwab a three-month leave of absence for a family emergency subject to approval of Fire Chief Vance Trivett. The vote was 3-1 with Barbier, a member of the fire commission, dissenting, because he felt the request should have been referred back to the commission, which earlier denied Schwab's request for a six-month leave.

TEMPORARY OFFICE — Granted Harold Hall permission to use a small trailer as an office at 931 Second Street for six months because his office building was smashed by a car June 22.

PLANNING COMMISSIONER — Postponed until Aug. 7 appointment of a planning commissioner to succeed Daniel L. Connell, who resigned last month.

NEW DRIVEWAY — Approved a driveway from C street to the police department parking lot at city hall at a cost of from $300 to $600.

HIRE PATROLMAN — Hired Scott E. Nelson as a patrolman effective Aug. 1, at a salary of $379 a month.

Innocent Plea On Marijuana

A plea of innocent was entered in Marin Municipal Court yesterday by William James Fulton Jr., charged with possessing marijuana and a preliminary hearing was set for Sept. 5 at 1:30 p.m.

Sheriff's deputies arrested Fulton a week ago when he was found trespassing in an empty house at 1492 Redwood Highway, Corte Madera. A capsule of the drug was said to have been found in the house.

Juvenile Hall Jury Report To Be Out In Few Weeks

An interim grand jury report on investigation of the Marin County Juvenile Hall may be expected "within a few weeks," grand jury foreman Clifford S. Lund said today.

Lund said the grand jury's special assignments committee, headed by Fred Mantegani of Tiburon, had already been assigned to investigate juvenile hall operation before a complaint by Herbert M. Briggs of Mill Valley early this month.

Briggs asked investigation after Francis M. Griffin, a group counselor at the hall, resigned June 21, charging that discipline is undercut by the administration's attitude.

In resigning, Griffin called for the ouster of his supervisor, Hubert A. Black. He claimed that Black, a Negro, refused to back him in disciplining a Negro youth who struck Griffin with a metal pitcher. Instead, the youth was released ahead of his scheduled date after the attack.

In asking investigation, Briggs, a Mill Valley resident, claimed racial tensions are increasing at the hall because of the administration's attitude.

Lund said this is only one facet of juvenile hall matters which were already under study by the grand jury committee when Briggs's request was received.

Black, a Berkeley resident, has been employed at juvenile hall since Sept. 1, 1963; Griffin, a Petaluma resident, since June 1, 1964. Until last Feb. 1, both were in the same classification: group counselor two. On that date, Black was promoted to supervising group counselor, placing him over Griffin.

The promotion was given without examination, according to Robert D. Elliott, county personnel director.

"We have not given examinations in the group counselor series for some time," Elliott said yesterday. "We are thinking about this now."

Hearing Is Set In Drug Giving

Judge Alvin H. Goldstein Jr., yesterday set Aug. 15 at 1:30 p.m. in Marin Municipal Court for preliminary hearing of charges against Elden C. Valasco, 31, of Lagunitas.

An unemployed machinist, Valasco had earlier pleaded innocent to charges he furnished the dangerous drug methedrine to an 18-year-old San Anselmo youth.

The first proudcing oil wells in Texas came in at a rate of 10 barrels a day.

San Rafael City Employees Get 2.5 Per Cent Increase In Pay

San Rafael City Council last night granted city employees a 2.5 per cent cost of living pay boost and major medical insurance coverage.

Employees had requested a 5 per cent pay hike and upgrading of some job classifications.

The vote was 3-1 with Councilman John A. Miskimen, who favored a higher increase, dissenting. Councilman Fred E. Jensen was absent because of illness.

Mayor C. Paul Bettini noted that the pay boost didn't cover department heads, whose salaries will be reviewed before the city budget for 1967-68 is adopted.

The mayor estimated that the 2.5 per cent pay boost would cost $38,437 and the insurance coverage about $5,000. He said the 2.5 per cent boost was all the city could afford.

Councilmen explained to the audience, including about 30 city employees, that the city's financial situation for 1967-68 is tight.

Councilman Harry A. Barbier said the city isn't in the financial position to do "as well as we did last year," when it granted 5 per cent pay boosts.

Barbier said the employees' proposal would have cost more than $160,000, with most of the cost in changing classifications.

Mayor Bettini said the sales tax revenues and revenues from building fees have dropped during the past year.

Richard R. Endy, who works in the city engineering department, asked why employees "have to bear the brunt" because of a decline in revenues.

Bettini noted that the council granted the raises before it "put aside" any funds for capital improvements for 1967-68.

Before the vote, councilmen were discussing statistics that the cost of living in the Bay Area was up 1.91 per cent.

Miskimen said councilmen would be kidding themselves if they thought that a "two per cent increase in Marin" would enable employees "to keep even." The trend in cost of living raises has been "in the neighborhood" of 5 per cent, he said. Baar later moved for the 2.5 per cent hike.

The San Rafael City Council also:

FIRE PACT—Approved a mutual assistance agreement between city and the Terra Linda Community Services District for fire protection, which permits Terra Linda firemen to respond to calsl in city territory in the Terra Linda area.

LARGE ANNEXATION — After a hearing at which there were no protests, introduced an ordinance to annex 397 acres southwest of Highway 17 from opposite Harbor Street to San Quentin Point, but excluding a trailer court at 742 Francisco Boulevard.

OFF-STREET PARKING — Designated half of the city's upper parking lot at Third Street and Lootens Place for all-day parking (nine hours) with one-half to remain for two-hour parking. The vote was 3-1 with Baar, who felt that the lot should be for shoppers rather than "all-day sleepers," dissenting.

QUAIL HILL REZONING — Passed to print an ordinance rezoning Quail Hill in Northgate to allow construction of a conference center, administrative-professional buildings, a commercial building, 34 houses and 110 townhouses in an 82-acre planned community. The former plan was all residential, 34 houses and 216 townhouses.

CHARTER REVISIONS — Postponed until Aug. 7 introduction of an ordinance to put into effect charter revisions approved by voter in April, including new regulations covering commissions.

GLENWOOD SUBDIVISIONS — Approved a final map of Glenwood Forest Unit Two, north and east of Glenwood, a 93-lot subdivision by Perma-Bilt Enterprises, including a 23-acre parcel to be donated to the city for open space and recreational activities.

DEMOLITION LIEN — Approved a $2,468 lien against the property at 1364 Grand Avenue for city costs for demolition of an old partially burned residence and three shacks that were declared a public nuisance.

UNDERGROUNDING — Entered into an agreement with Pacific Gas and Electric Co. to place an overhead line in the alley between B and C streets, west of Julia Court, underground at a city cost of $358, since two city street light poles are involved

HEARINGS — Set Aug. 7 for a hearing on rezoning of property at 25 to 111 Third Street from duplex to general commercial and a hearing on an ordinance amendment to permit accessory structures in side and rear yard areas.

FIREMEN'S LEAVE — Granted Fireman Leo F. Schwab a three-month leave of absence for a family emergency subject to approval of Fire Chief Vance Trivett. The vote was 3-1 with Barbier, a member of the fire commission, dissenting, because he felt the request should have been referred back to the commission, which earlier denied Schwab's request for a six-month leave.

TEMPORARY OFFICE — Granted Harold Hall permission to use a small trailer as an office at 931 Second Street for six months because his office building was smashed by a car June 22.

PLANNING COMMISSIONER — Postponed until Aug. 7 appointment of a planning commissioner to succeed Daniel L. Connell, who resigned last month.

NEW DRIVEWAY — Approved a driveway from C street to the police department parking lot at city hall at a cost of from $300 to $600.

HIRE PATROLMAN — Hired Scott E. Nelson as a patrolman effective Aug. 1, at a salary of $379 a month.

Innocent Plea On Marijuana

A plea of innocent was entered in Marin Municipal Court yesterday by William James Fulton Jr., charged with possessing marijuana and a preliminary hearing was set for Sept. 5 at 1:30 p.m.

Sheriff's deputies arrested Fulton a week ago when he was found trespassing in an empty house at 1492 Redwood Highway, Corte Madera. A capsule of the drug was said to have been found in the house.

Juvenile Hall Jury Report To Be Out In Few Weeks

An interim grand jury report on investigation of the Marin County Juvenile Hall may be expected "within a few weeks," grand jury foreman Clifford S. Lund said today.

Lund said the grand jury's special assignments committee, headed by Fred Mantegani of Tiburon, had already been assigned to investigate juvenile hall operation before a complaint by Herbert M. Briggs of Mill Valley early this month.

Briggs asked investigation after Francis M. Griffin, a group counselor at the hall, resigned June 21, charging that discipline is undercut by the administration's attitude.

In resigning, Griffin called for the ouster of his supervisor, Hubert A. Black. He claimed that Black, a Negro, refused to back him in disciplining a Negro youth who struck Griffin with a metal pitcher. Instead, the youth was released ahead of his scheduled date after the attack.

In asking investigation, Briggs, a Mill Valley resident, claimed racial tensions are increasing at the hall because of the administration's attitude.

Lund said this is only one facet of juvenile hall matters which were already under study by the grand jury committee when Briggs's request was received.

Black, a Berkeley resident, has been employed at juvenile hall since Sept. 1, 1963; Griffin, a Petaluma resident, since June 1, 1964. Until last Feb. 1, both were in the same classification: group counselor two. On that date, Black was promoted to supervising group counselor, placing him over Griffin.

The promotion was given without examination, according to Robert D. Elliott, county personnel director.

"We have not given examinations in the group counselor series for some time," Elliott said yesterday. "We are thinking about this now."

CITY JOB RULES CONFLICT FOUND

San Rafael Councilmen Hold Closed Talk On Probation Status, Take No Action

By BRYCE W. ANDERSON

The City of San Rafael has ignored one of its own ordinances in adopting regulations for city employees.

This came to light in connection with a reduction in the city force which has brought about some shuffling of women employees to fill positions on the basis of seniority.

One employee "bumped" to make room for another with additional seniority protested verbally, partly on the basis that another who was still on probation according to the city's rules was left untouched. This was the subject of a closed session of the city council at 7:15 p.m. yesterday, preceding its regular meeting.

No light on the matter resulted from the closed session. Mayor C. Paul Bettini announced afterward that no action had been taken because Councilman Fred E. Jensen was absent. Today, the mayor said he did not expect the matter to come up again.

The employee who protested — though not in writing — was Mrs. Rosalie Wise, clerk-typist on the parks and recreation commission with one year, four months of city employment. A stenographer-typist with greater seniority was transferred from the public works department to fill her post.

Mrs. Wise protested that Mrs. Doris Bachman, secretary to the city manager, had only nine months of city employment and had not completed her probationary period.

Bettini said after last night's closed session that Mrs. Bachman's service qualifies her as a permanent employee. He said Mrs. Wise "couldn't fill the position as secretary. If she could have, she would have."

Rule 9 of the city's civil service rules, adopted by council resolution on request of City Mgr. Dan E. Andersen, says: "All original and promotional appointments are tentative and subject to a probationary period of one year." Mrs. Wise based her protest on this rule.

However, Mayor Bettini was right about Mrs. Bachman's permanent status. For Ordinance 293 (Section 2.20.050 of the city code) provides for "a period of probation of six months before an appointment or promotion is made complete." Thus, the council in adopting the one-year resolution went counter to its own ordinance.

Transfer of the stenographer-clerk to the park-recreation department position was under Rule 12 of the city's civil service rules, which provides: "An employee may be transferred at any time from one position to another position in the same or comparable class. . . . No person shall be transferred to a position for which he does not possess the minimum qualifications."

Apparently this rule was applied also in another transfer of a typist-clerk from the building department to replace Mrs. Vivian Byars as account clerk in the finance department. However, asked to comment on the comparableness of the two positions, Finance Officer Orrin C. Wendling said yesterday, "It's like comparing a typist to a bookkeeper."

Mrs. Byars had been with the city only four months, so was still on probation under both ordinance and resolution.

Closed Session Is Tonight For Demoted Worker

Edgar Phillips, 52, demoted last Thursday from Fairfax street superintendent to street maintenance man, will meet in closed session tonight with city councilmen to answer charges brought against him.

The closed session will come at the end of the adjourned council meeting which begins at 7:30 p.m. in Fairfax Women's Club.

Councilmen plan to discuss an architect's agreement and appointment of bond counsel for the proposed fall bond election to build a civic center complex.

The council will also discuss whether to fill the position of building inspector or combine the job with another post such as that of city engineer. Building Inspector Lester Britton is leaving city employ.

Police Committee Is Countywide Unit

The Police-Community Relations Committee, an adjunct of the County Human Rights Commission, is a countywide group, and not based in Marin City, as it incorrectly appeared Friday in a story in the Independent-Journal.

Also, James Quiett, commission chairman, denied yesterday he used the word "unembalmed," as the story reported, when he suggested the commission try to motivate Marin City residents to improve police relations there. A check of the secretary's minutes revealed the quote was not recorded.

Camp Registration

Registration for the summer day camp sponsored by the San Rafael Park and Recreation Department will be at Albert Park Friday at 11 a.m., the department announced. The day camp for children 7 through 12 years old will begin July 24 at Deer Park in Fairfax.

Red Hill Slide Area Feared Hazard To Curious Children

By CAROL MARSH

Trespassing is forbidden on the area of San Anselmo's Red Hill where the ruins of three two-story apartment buildings have remained since a slide destroyed the buildings during January's storms.

But that legal barrier might not stop an inquisitive child, for whom the ruined buildings could provide a very attractive and potentially deadly playground.

A car can still drive to within a few feet of the wrecked buildings. There are barriers to stop cars on the road at that point, but no barriers to stop someone on foot.

Public Works Director Charles R. Leitzell warned the San Anselmo City Council three months ago that the debris should be removed before the weather cleared enough to make the ruins a hazardous Playground. He estimated the cost of clearing the ruins at $8,000 to $12,000.

To date, the council has not condemned the buildings but Leitzell said yesterday he plans to ask the council for condemnation soon.

The General Insurance Co. of America, San Francisco, bonded the original owner, Mill Valley architect Norman T. Gilroy, for $46,909 to insure that all required improvements for the development would be installed. City Atty. John G. Buresh is trying to get the bonding company to remove the debris in lieu of putting in all the guaranteed improvements.

Leitzell is trying to get the same company to correct some other areas affected by the slide and to install improvements. Neither Leitzell nor Buresh could say how long these negotiations will continue.

Buresh explained that the bonding company could be held to putting in all of the bonded improvements. "If we demand that they put in the improvements, they would certainly have to remove what is there now even as a preliminary matter. So we suggested they remove everything there and clean it up."

During a June 7 budget session the council approved $13,500 for slide corrections on Woodside Court and Woodside Avenue, but the councilmen felt the city should not spend taxpayers' money to correct the Red Hill slide.

Closed Session Vote Defended As 'Proper'

By M. ELIZABETH JOHNSTON

Chairman Erik Rettig of the Tiburon Planning Commission last night rejected a charge that his election to the chairmanship at a closed session was invalid because it violated the Ralph M. Brown Act.

Rettig said the commission has taken no action on Anne L. Ellinwood's letter of July 5, requesting a reelection of officers, because it regarded the closed electionas "perfectly proper."

Also elected at the closed session June 22 was John McChesney as vice chairman.

The matter was not raised at last night's meeting and Miss Ellinwood, in the audience, did not bring up the matter.

At the conclusion of the meeting, when asked about the charge, Rettig said that, when the commission was first formed, it was advised by its first planning consultant that it was proper procedure to elect officers in a closed session. He could nor recall the consultant's name.

Rettig said he talked to City Mgr. Lawrence D. Rose during the "last day or two" and was assured this was the proper way to hold elections.

Rettig said "the purpose of the Brown Act is to prevent collusion. "He felt there was no collusion in an election and "no harm was done."

The Brown Act provides that closed sessions may be held only for purposes of hiring or firing a public officer or employee or to hear complaints and charges against an officer or employee. It also requires 24-hour advance public notice be given of a closed session. No such notice was given by the commission.

Youth Released Pending Report

David F. Allen, 19, of San Rafael, charged with possession of narcotics paraphernalia and resisting arrest, was released on his own recognizance yesterday by Judge Alvin H. Goldstein Jr. pending a probation report to the municipal court Friday at 1:30 p.m.

Police reported Allen had threatened to kill his parents "and the first cop to come through the door" and that he had had to be forcibly subdued.

Allen told the court yesterday he had forgotten he had the narcotics equipment police found in his room.

$23,663 For Heart Study At Hospital

Marin General Hospital has received $23,663 from the Public Health Service of the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare, for a heart research program.

Under the grant, the hospital will continue and evaluate its patient bedside teaching rounds, which have been in effect at the heart unit for the past two years.

Under the program, patients' case histories of special interest have been presented to the physicians and nurses weekly and any interesting physical findings are then listened to by the group.

This program will be studied for possible use at other community hospitals throughout the U.S.

The grant covers the cost of special medical equipment including a phonocardiograph, which records heart sounds and allows doctors to compare their findings with that of the machine. It also covers the salaries of a nurse-educator, statistician, secretary and clerk and office equipment.

The project will be directed by Dr. Gerson Jacobs of San Rafael, chairman of the heart unit, and supervised by Ray K. Bolinger, hospital administrator.

Selective Service Inducts Five Men

Five Marin County men were inducted into the armed forces this month, according to Joy M. Kinzer, clerk of the Selective Service System local board in San Rafael. None were married, she said.

Inducted were: Edward W. Bird of Tiburon; Steven L. Blair and Donald A. Curry of San Rafael; Barry M. Lear of Novato; and Larry J. Plaa of San Anselmo.

Gilroy, for $46,909 to insure that all required improvements for the development would be installed. City Atty. John G. Buresh is trying to get the bonding company to remove the debris in lieu of putting in all the guaranteed improvements.

Leitzell is trying to get the same company to correct some other areas affected by the slide and to install improvements. Neither Leitzell nor Buresh could say how long these negotiations will continue.

Buresh explained that the bonding company could be held to putting in all of the bonded improvements. "If we demand that they put in the improvements, they would certainly have to remove what is there now even as a preliminary matter. So we suggested they remove everything there and clean it up."

During a June 7 budget session the council approved $13,500 for slide corrections on Woodside Court and Woodside Avenue, but the councilmen felt the city should not spend taxpayers' money to correct the Red Hill slide.

Closed Session Vote Defended As 'Proper'

By M. ELIZABETH JOHNSTON

Chairman Erik Rettig of the Tiburon Planning Commission last night rejected a charge that his election to the chairmanship at a closed session was invalid because it violated the Ralph M. Brown Act.

Rettig said the commission has taken no action on Anne L. Ellinwood's letter of July 5, requesting a reelection of officers, because it regarded the closed electionas "perfectly proper."

Also elected at the closed session June 22 was John McChesney as vice chairman.

The matter was not raised at last night's meeting and Miss Ellinwood, in the audience, did not bring up the matter.

At the conclusion of the meeting, when asked about the charge, Rettig said that, when the commission was first formed, it was advised by its first planning consultant that it was proper procedure to elect officers in a closed session. He could nor recall the consultant's name.

Rettig said he talked to City Mgr. Lawrence D. Rose during the "last day or two" and was assured this was the proper way to hold elections.

Rettig said "the purpose of the Brown Act is to prevent collusion. "He felt there was no collusion in an election and "no harm was done."

The Brown Act provides that closed sessions may be held only for purposes of hiring or firing a public officer or employee or to hear complaints and charges against an officer or employee. It also requires 24-hour advance public notice be given of a closed session. No such notice was given by the commission.

Youth Released Pending Report

David F. Allen, 19, of San Rafael, charged with possession of narcotics paraphernalia and resisting arrest, was released on his own recognizance yesterday by Judge Alvin H. Goldstein Jr. pending a probation report to the municipal court Friday at 1:30 p.m.

Police reported Allen had threatened to kill his parents "and the first cop to come through the door" and that he had had to be forcibly subdued.

Allen told the court yesterday he had forgotten he had the narcotics equipment police found in his room.

$23,663 For Heart Study At Hospital

Marin General Hospital has received $23,663 from the Public Health Service of the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare, for a heart research program.

Under the grant, the hospital will continue and evaluate its patient bedside teaching rounds, which have been in effect at the heart unit for the past two years.

Under the program, patients' case histories of special interest have been presented to the physicians and nurses weekly and any interesting physical findings are then listened to by the group.

This program will be studied for possible use at other community hospitals throughout the U.S.

The grant covers the cost of special medical equipment including a phonocardiograph, which records heart sounds and allows doctors to compare their findings with that of the machine. It also covers the salaries of a nurse-educator, statistician, secretary and clerk and office equipment.

The project will be directed by Dr. Gerson Jacobs of San Rafael, chairman of the heart unit, and supervised by Ray K. Bolinger, hospital administrator.

Selective Service Inducts Five Men

Five Marin County men were inducted into the armed forces this month, according to Joy M. Kinzer, clerk of the Selective Service System local board in San Rafael. None were married, she said.

Inducted were: Edward W. Bird of Tiburon; Steven L. Blair and Donald A. Curry of San Rafael; Barry M. Lear of Novato; and Larry J. Plaa of San Anselmo.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS
(Advertisement)

1. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Dixie School District, Marin County, California, will receive bids for the furnishing of all labor, materials, transportation and services for the construction of paving at several school sites in Terra Linda, Lucas Valley and Marinwood.

2. Each bid to be in accordance with the plans and specifications now on file at the Dixie School District Office, 35 Trellis Drive, San Rafael, California, where same may be examined and copies obtained upon request.

3. Each bid shall be made on a form to be obtained at the office of the Dixie School District, and must be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check or bid bond in the amount of $500.00, made payable to the order of the Dixie School District. Bids must be sealed and filed at the District Office, located at 35 Trellis Drive, San Rafael, California, prior to 4:00 P.M., July 27, 1967, where and at which time they will be publicly opened and declared.

4. The above mentioned check or bond shall be given as a guarantee that the bidder will enter into a contract if awarded the work and will be declared forfeited if the successful bidder refuses to enter into said contract or to furnish the necessary bonds, after being requested to do so by the Board of Trustees of the Dixie School District.

5. The successful bidder will be required to furnish a labor and material bond in an amount equal to 50% of the contract price and a faithful performance bond in an amount equal to 100% of the contract price, said bonds to be secured from a surety company satisfactory to the Board of Trustees of the Dixie School District.

6. The Board of Trustees of the Dixie School District reserves the right to reject any and all bids, or any alternate contained in any bid and to accept or reject any combination of alternates which is to the best advantage of the District, but subject to the limitation that not more than one contract will be awarded for the work. The board reserves the right to waive any informality or irregularity in the bidding or any bid or portion thereof. No bidder may withdraw his bid prior to August 4, 1967.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Adult Education Is Antidote For Boredom Of Retired Persons

VAN DELLEN

Adult education is a wonderful antidote for the loneliness and boredom that beset many retirees. Facilities for self-improvement should be used more frequently by persons over 40 years of age. Education stimulates and augments independent thinking. It also helps the individual communicate with his neighbor.

Technological progress encourages submissiveness. It is easy to become a robot after a routine day at the office and succumb to television, popcorn, and beer. In time the capacity to think shrinks and the potential faculties of the mind atrophy from disuse. Magazine abstracts, commercials, and political slogans replace critical evaluation that brings emotional satisfaction. Those who graduate from this environment into retirement have difficulty adjusting.

THE PASSIVE individual soon feels insecure and falls for authoritarian voices that promise everything. In time he develops prejudices and becomes intolerant. Such a person enjoys any entertainment that makes him feel superior without trying.

Accumulating worldly goods is not an end in itself. The retired individual finds more satisfaction in a worthwhile endeavor that brings a sense of achievement. Adult education is one way of acquiring this goal. Discussion groups encourage independent thinking and help to dispel lethargy.

THROUGH EDUCATION the individual is better able to face the social pressures of today. Modern society tends to belittle individual effort and the depreciation is accentuated when carried over into retirement. To be happy, our sense of values must improve. This can be done but it should not be put off until it is too late.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request to the Independent-Journal.)

LITTLE FOOLER

Mrs. E. writes: What is false pregnancy? Can it happen more than once?

REPLY

As the term implies, this is not a real pregnancy. It is an emotional disorder in which the woman thinks she is pregnant because of cessation of menstruation, enlargement of breasts and abdomen, morning sickness, and labor pains at the end of nine months. She goes through all the preparations for having a baby, including the layette. If the little fooler happens once, it can happen again.

DARK CIRCLES

J. I. writes: I have dark circles under my eyes. Is this a sign of some illness? I have a good appetite and sleep well.

REPLY

Illness may be responsible, but there are other possibilities. Our leaflet on this subject can be obtained by sending stamped, self-addressed envelope with request.

INSTANT RELAXATION

M. F. writes: Why is it that some people can take a nap during the day time and others cannot doze for even a minute?

REPLY

Sleep habits vary and most people who cat nap either are tired or have the ability to relax completely.

EAR PLUGGING

Mrs. J. writes: My husband snores. Is it safe for me to wear ear plugs all night?

REPLY

Yes. It's cheaper than separate bedrooms and healthier than staying awake.

LATE PHASE

A. M. M. writes: What do night sweats in a tuberculous patient indicate?

REPLY

Fever is the most common cause followed by weakness.

Today's Health Hint — The sensitive child has a special need for security.

(Advertisement)

1. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Dixie School District, Marin County, California, will receive bids for the furnishing of all labor, materials, transportation and services for the construction of paving at several school sites in Terra Linda, Lucas Valley and Marinwood.

2. Each bid to be in accordance with the plans and specifications now on file at the Dixie School District Office, 35 Trellis Drive, San Rafael, California, where same may be examined and copies obtained upon request.

3. Each bid shall be made on a form to be obtained at the office of the Dixie School District, and must be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check or bid bond in the amount of $500.00, made payable to the order of the Dixie School District. Bids must be sealed and filed at the District Office, located at 35 Trellis Drive, San Rafael, California, prior to 4:00 P.M., July 27, 1967, where and at which time they will be publicly opened and declared.

4. The above mentioned check or bond shall be given as a guarantee that the bidder will enter into a contract if awarded the work and will be declared forfeited if the successful bidder refuses to enter into said contract or to furnish the necessary bonds, after being requested to do so by the Board of Trustees of the Dixie School District.

5. The successful bidder will be required to furnish a labor and material bond in an amount equal to 50% of the contract price and a faithful performance bond in an amount equal to 100% of the contract price, said bonds to be secured from a surety company satisfactory to the Board of Trustees of the Dixie School District.

6. The Board of Trustees of the Dixie School District reserves the right to reject any and all bids, or any alternate contained in any bid and to accept or reject any combination of alternates which is to the best advantage of the District, but subject to the limitation that not more than one contract will be awarded for the work. The board reserves the right to waive any informality or irregularity in the bidding or any bid or portion thereof. No bidder may withdraw his bid prior to August 4, 1967.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

VAN DELLEN

Adult education is a wonderful antidote for the loneliness and boredom that beset many retirees. Facilities for self-improvement should be used more frequently by persons over 40 years of age. Education stimulates and augments independent thinking. It also helps the individual communicate with his neighbor.

Technological progress encourages submissiveness. It is easy to become a robot after a routine day at the office and succumb to television, popcorn, and beer. In time the capacity to think shrinks and the potential faculties of the mind atrophy from disuse. Magazine abstracts, commercials, and political slogans replace critical evaluation that brings emotional satisfaction. Those who graduate from this environment into retirement have difficulty adjusting.

THE PASSIVE individual soon feels insecure and falls for authoritarian voices that promise everything. In time he develops prejudices and becomes intolerant. Such a person enjoys any entertainment that makes him feel superior without trying.

Accumulating worldly goods is not an end in itself. The retired individual finds more satisfaction in a worthwhile endeavor that brings a sense of achievement. Adult education is one way of acquiring this goal. Discussion groups encourage independent thinking and help to dispel lethargy.

THROUGH EDUCATION the individual is better able to face the social pressures of today. Modern society tends to belittle individual effort and the depreciation is accentuated when carried over into retirement. To be happy, our sense of values must improve. This can be done but it should not be put off until it is too late.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request to the Independent-Journal.)

LITTLE FOOLER

Mrs. E. writes: What is false pregnancy? Can it happen more than once?

REPLY

As the term implies, this is not a real pregnancy. It is an emotional disorder in which the woman thinks she is pregnant because of cessation of menstruation, enlargement of breasts and abdomen, morning sickness, and labor pains at the end of nine months. She goes through all the preparations for having a baby, including the layette. If the little fooler happens once, it can happen again!

DARK CIRCLES

J. I. writes: I have dark circles under my eyes. Is this a sign of some illness? I have a good appetite and sleep well.

REPLY

Illness may be responsible, but there are other possibilities. Our leaflet on this subject can be obtained by sending stamped, self-addressed envelope with request.

INSTANT RELAXATION

M. F. writes: Why is it that some people can take a nap during the day time and others cannot doze for even a minute?

REPLY

Sleep habits vary and most people who cat nap either are tired or have the ability to relax completely.

EAR PLUGGING

Mrs. J. writes: My husband snores. Is it safe for me to wear ear plugs all night?

REPLY

Yes. It's cheaper than separate bedrooms and healthier than staying awake.

LATE PHASE

A. M. M. writes: What do night sweats in a tuberculous patient indicate?

REPLY

Fever is the most common cause followed by weakness.

A MOTORIZED HULA HOOP

"Ride 'em, Prof!" cried Stanford rooters as Steve DiZio of Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute of Troy, N.Y., pilots a motorized hoop which he and four other professors built. The hoop is one of the products of a four-week Stanford summer workshop in engineering design teaching methods. The hoop rider sits behind a motor on a narrow platform which rolls around a track inside the hoop. Belts and pulleys connect the motor and platform wheels to provide power. (UPI Telephoto)

Three-Mile Limit Fishing Case Going To Court

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (UPI) —The captain of a Japanese fishing boat seized by the Coast Guard inside the three-mile limit Sunday was to be arraigned in U.S. District Court today on federal charges of violating U. S. territorial waters.

Capt. Masami Miyamoto and a representative of the craft's owner, Taisaku Fujii, arrived in Anchorage last night, escorted by Coast Guard officers and federal officials.

The charges against Miyamoto could bring him a fine of $10,000 and one year in jail, or confiscation of the vessel and its cargo.

Although there is an agreement between the United States and Japan allowing Japanese craft which traditionally fished within the new 12-mile limit to continue, no nation is allowed to operate its fleet within the three-mile line.

Fair Condition

James D. Schroeder, 20, of the Carmel Hotel, 830 D Street, in San Rafael, was reported still in fair condition today at Marin General Hospital after suffering a cerebral concussion yesterday when the car he was driving struck a guard rail on the Richardson Bay Bridge and veered into a steel center divider.

Boys Survive 225-Foot Drop In Automobile

PACIFICA (UPI)—Two small San Francisco boys, who survived a 225-foot plunge into the sea, were in satisfactory condition today.

Their father, Richard M. Tong, San Francisco, took Michael, 4½, and Richard, 2½, to Pacifica in his car yesterday. He parked his car at Morey's Point and left the boys in it while he made his way down to fish.

According to Pacifica police the boys apparently released the brake. The car rolled to the edge of the cliff, dropped 75 feet to a boulder below, fell the remaining distance, and landed in shallow water.

Tong waded out to the car. Michael crawled out and Tong pulled the younger boy out. Both suffered shock and Richard had a cut on his back.

Driver Innocent Of Drunk Charge

A Marin Municipal Court jury yesterday found John C. Abney of 71 Corte Loyola, Greenbrae, innocent of a charge of drunken driving.

Abney had been charged with being drunk while driving his car on Highway 101 near the Corte Madera interchance Feb. 1.

It took the jury two and three-quarter hours to reach its verdict after a trial lasting three days.

Coin Box Rifled

Someone pried open a soft drink machine at the Toscanini Shell Service Station, 5639 Paradise Drive, Corte Madera, and emptied the coin box of an undetermined amount of change last night, according to Corte Madera police.

A MOTORIZED HULA HOOP

"Ride 'em, Prof!" cried Stanford rooters as Steve DiZio of Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute of Troy, N.Y., pilots a motorized hoop which he and four other professors built. The hoop is one of the products of a four-week Stanford summer workshop in engineering design teaching methods. The hoop rider sits behind a motor on a narrow platform which rolls around a track inside the hoop. Belts and pulleys connect the motor and platform wheels to provide power. (UPI Telephoto)

Three-Mile Limit Fishing Case Going To Court

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (UPI) —The captain of a Japanese fishing boat seized by the Coast Guard inside the three-mile limit Sunday was to be arraigned in U.S. District Court today on federal charges of violating U. S. territorial waters.

Capt. Masami Miyamoto and a representative of the craft's owner, Taisaku Fujii, arrived in Anchorage last night, escorted by Coast Guard officers and federal officials.

The charges against Miyamoto could bring him a fine of $10,000 and one year in jail, or confiscation of the vessel and its cargo.

Although there is an agreement between the United States and Japan allowing Japanese craft which traditionally fished within the new 12-mile limit to continue, no nation is allowed to operate its fleet within the three-mile line.

Fair Condition

James D. Schroeder, 20, of the Carmel Hotel, 830 D Street, in San Rafael, was reported still in fair condition today at Marin General Hospital after suffering a cerebral concussion yesterday when the car he was driving struck a guard rail on the Richardson Bay Bridge and veered into a steel center divider.

Boys Survive 225-Foot Drop In Automobile

PACIFICA (UPI)—Two small San Francisco boys, who survived a 225-foot plunge into the sea, were in satisfactory condition today.

Their father, Richard M. Tong, San Francisco, took Michael, 4½, and Richard, 2½, to Pacifica in his car yesterday. He parked his car at Morey's Point and left the boys in it while he made his way down to fish.

According to Pacifica police the boys apparently released the brake. The car rolled to the edge of the cliff, dropped 75 feet to a boulder below, fell the remaining distance, and landed in shallow water.

Tong waded out to the car. Michael crawled out and Tong pulled the younger boy out. Both suffered shock and Richard had a cut on his back.

Driver Innocent Of Drunk Charge

A Marin Municipal Court jury yesterday found John C. Abney of 71 Corte Loyola, Greenbrae, innocent of a charge of drunken driving.

Abney had been charged with being drunk while driving his car on Highway 101 near the Corte Madera interchance Feb. 1.

It took the jury two and three-quarter hours to reach its verdict after a trial lasting three days.

Coin Box Rifled

Someone pried open a soft drink machine at the Toscanini Shell Service Station, 5639 Paradise Drive, Corte Madera, and emptied the coin box of an undetermined amount of change last night, according to Corte Madera police.

Boccabella Farmed Out, But Will Return—Leo

By GLENN BECKER

John Boccabella had to cut the interview short Sunday.

"We're having a meeting," he explained, running toward the visitor's clubhouse at Candlestick Park, where the Chicago Cubs would shortly play a doubleheader against the Giants.

According to unofficial reports, Manager Leo Durocher instructed his slumping team to hit its home runs with men on base, field flawlessly, pitch superbly and hit sacrifice flies with the winning run on third base.

The Cubs had a postwar tradition of ignoring such advice, but Durocher has 'em behaving beautifully this year and they proved his strategy sound by racking up the Giants, 9-0 and 3-2.

Unfortunately for Boccabella, he did not play in either game and afterwards was sent on option to the Cub farm club in Tacoma. The move made Durocher look like a genius, for Boc's replacement, Clarence Jones, drove in two runs yesterday as the Cubs won again, 4-3.

Boccabella, the former Marin Catholic High School and Santa Clara star from San Anselmo, fairly earned his trip to Tacoma. In 28 official at bats this season he had managed just 4 hits — and 16 strikeouts — while drawing 2 walks and getting hit once.

In John's defense, he did not play much and for that he can partly blame the nicest man in all Chicagoland, Ernie Banks. Like many senior citizens of baseball, including Mickey Mantle, the 36-year-old Banks turned to first base — Boccabella's regular position — when the legs started feeling the years.

Halfway through last year it seemed Banks was through and Boccabella could have the job anyway if he hit even moderately well. But ol' Ernie suddenly learned to hit to right field (yesterday he set up a run with a single to right), then started getting pitches he could pull again and he's been slugging like the Banks of old ever since.

The rejuvenation of Banks left Boccabella with nowhere to go but rightfield. He started catching in spring training, but ex-Giant Randy Hundley has been hitting about .290 this year.

Right field looked good, since the Cubs have been looking for someone to play it. As of Sunday they were still looking, since in addition to Boccabella's .143, they had Ted Savage hitting .226 and Lee Thomas .242. As of yesterday, though, they are much healthier out there with Jones, who was tearing the Coast League apart until Durocher called him up.

Leo the Lion said yesterday that Boc will play regularly at first base at Tacoma. "If he hits, we may call him back before their season ends," Durocher said. "He'll be back in any case after that. Boc'll play regularly up there and that's what he needs."

One game does not make a career, but if Jones continues to hit as his manager expects, Johnny B. will have to wait for Mr. Banks to stop hitting before he gets into the Cub lineup. And that could take a while.

Durocher has the Cubs playing tighter ball than they have in the last 25 years — they have the fewest errors in the majors — and one reason Boccabella noted for their resurgence was a great spring training.

"Last year we trained in Long Beach," he said, "and it seemed we were always on the road traveling to Arizona. We never got extra hitting, for one thing. This year we trained in Scottsdale (Arizona)."

He ascribed the late June-ear-

Hornung's Chances Not Good

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Paul Hornung, the Golden Boy of pro football for the last decade, may be through.

No one knows. Or at least no one is saying. But the prospects are not good.

"Hornung has a 50-50 chance to play," said Tom Fears, coach of the New Orleans Saints, the expansion team that claimed the do-everything halfback in the draft.

"I don't want to make a statement until everything is sure," said Saints owner John Mecom Jr.

Hornung wasn't saying anything.

The 31-year-old veteran, a two-time NFL Most Valuable Player for the Green Bay Packers and holder of the league scoring record, was in the Scripps Clinic in La Jolla, Calif., today undergoing a second series of tests to determine whether or not he can continue his career.

NERVE DAMAGE

The question centers around possible nerve damage to his neck and-or left arm, arising out a neck injury he suffered last season while scoring a touchdown against the Chicago Bears.

"My neck snapped back diving into the end zone," Hornung said. "I don't remember the guy who was defending but he fell on me and jammed my neck."

Hornung already has undergone a series of tests at the Mayo Clinic. Those results have not been disclosed, but presumably he would not be taking a second set of tests had Mayo given him a clean bill of health.

Hornung said Mecom urged further tests to get "a couple of opinions. So they thought it would be a good idea to enter Scripps."

GOOD NEWS

While the Saints were holding their breath about Hornung, the New York Jets and Cleveland Browns got some good news and the Detroit Loins got some backtalk as the highlights from the training camps as the major pro teams prepared to get down to heavy work.

Joe Namath, the Jets' $400,000 bonus quarterback, said his latest knee operation apparently was successful. Frank Ryan, Cleveland quarterback, who suffered a shoulder separation last year, said he was fully recovered. Defensive halfback Dick Lebeau and linebacker Wayne Walker became holdouts with Detroit.

"The knee hasn't bothered me since the operation, and it feels the best it has in two years," said Namath, who had a second operation on his balky right knee during the offseason.

"I haven't tried to run and cut yet. Not because I'm afraid to. It just hasn't been necessary."

A Crucial Road Trip For Mays-Less Giants

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — The San Francisco Giants begin an abbreviated eight-game six-day road trip tonight with a doubleheader against the Pittsburgh Pirates, and before they come home again they should be back in the National League race or well back in the pack.

Juan Marichal and Joe Gibbon are the pitchers in tonight's twi-night twinbill. Marichal was pounded for 10 hits and seven runs inside of five innings in his last start—against the Houston Astros—while Gibbon has been the long relief man in recent weeks and will be making one of his rare starts.

The Giants dropped a 4-3 decision to the Chicago Cubs yesterday in San Francisco. It was their third straight loss to the second-place Cubs and came at a time when the club had to play without Willie Mays.

Mays is in a San Francisco hospital undergoing tests and rest for a severe case of influenza. He did not accompany the club to Pittsburgh and if all goes well will rejoin the Giants in Chicago on Friday.

San Francisco plays Pittsburgh four games and the Cubs four before returning to Candlestick Park for a nine-day homestand. In the most recent homestand, the Giants won five of nine games, suffering three losses in a row at the end just when it seemed they might be making a run at first place.

The Giants didn't get into Monday's game with the Cubs until it was too late.

With Rich Nye, who a year ago was pitching for the University of California at Berkeley, chucking shutout ball, the Giants finally scored in the sixth inning for a 2-1 deficit. The Cubs had built their margin off Ray Sadecki on six hits, scoring single runs in the fifth and sixth.

Bob Etheridge, playing in his first big league game, opened the San Francisco sixth with a hit and eventually made it around on a walk, an error and Dick Dietz' sacrifice fly.

The Cubs scored in the eighth and ninth innings with Clarence Jones, playing his first game since being called up from Tacoma of the PCL, driving in one of the runs and Billy Williams the other.

The Giants finally chased Nye in the ninth as Dick Groat got a pinch-hit, two-out single and Jim Davenport followed with another single, setting the stage for a triple by Etheridge. Chuck Hartenstein, one of the Cubs' most reliable relievers, came on to nail the pinch-hitting Willie McCovey on a grounder to close it out.

The victory was Nye's ninth in 18 decisions and the save was Hartenstein's sixth. Sadecki took the loss, his first after three victories.

JIM GILMARTIN

Fallon Strikes Back! Gilly The Kid Hanged

Don't invite me and the City of Fallon, Nev. to the same party.

I'm about as popular in that desert town as a windstorm.

And for heaven's sake, don't drive through there with an I-J bumper sticker on your car or you may become guest of honor at a lynching party.

Just say "Jim Who?" if anyone asks for me.

A couple of weeks ago I wrote an uncomplimentary description of Fallon following the San Rafael Braves' baseball series there. I've never won any scholarships from Dale Carnegie, but how did I know EVERYBODY in Fallon reads the I-J.

Well, the Fallon Eagle-Standard reprinted my column bigger than life across page one. Golly, from the spread they gave me you'd think I was Ernest Hemmingway. The last guy who got the eight-column treatment in the Eagle-Standard was Billy the Kid.

Anyhoo, Publisher Norman H. Butler, apparently madder than a rattler, accompanied my prose with a retaliatory piece that stamps him as the Will Rogers of our day. He also wrote me a nasty letter and concluded it with: "Put this in your pipe and smoke it!"

Here is Butler's answer to my column as published in the July 11 issue of the Eagle-Standard:

1.01 Miles In The Town—All Square

"Yes, Mr. Gilmartin. We heard you, and. . .

"Here is our answer . . . As one fellow put it, 'this is my town and I can say what I please about it, but you better not.' As for me, I chose Fallon 3½ years ago, it didn't choose me. And what makes you such an authority on the subject of small towns anyway? So we are a small town, but the sign isn't glued 'back-to-back,' not quite! There is exactly 1.27 miles between the North-South limits and 1.30 miles separating the East-West limits encompassing 1.01 square miles.

"So we have a few mosquitoes in Fallon, well, who doesn't? Anywhere there is water, you will find mosquitoes and we do have plenty of water here. If our 'western' friends think the Fallon mosquitoes are as large as baseballs, then they should visit the Louisiana swamps — they would swear the mosquitoes there are larger than beachballs, and really they aren't.

There MUST Be Someplace Worse

"But to say that Fallon is 'the hell hole of creation,' really, now, don't you think that is a little strong? I'm sure there must be at least one or two places in the world that is worse. Why not ask our Fallon boys in Vietnam? The ones that have returned home are most happy to be here. These boys are in a 'hell hole' fighting for our freedom, one of those basic freedoms being a 'free press,' or doesn't our writer read the paper on which he earns his living 'writing' such drivel?

"As for the temperature, when you have waited

Drake Ace On North Grid Team

Jerry Sprout, Drake High School's 6-6, 230-pound all-everything, will play in the North-South Shrine Football Game in the Los Angeles Coliseum Aug. 3.

Sprout, an all-Marin County Athletic League tackle and basketball center last season, was informed Sunday that he would be playing in the high school extravaganza by Dan Albert, coach at Monterey High School and co-coach of the North squad.

Picked as an alternate in balloting for the squad, Sprout will replace Monty Consani, Riordan tackle who was injured while working out for the game.

"I couldn't believe it," Sprout said.

STANFORD BOUND

Sprout, who will attend Stanford on a football scholarship this fall, said that he had already started working out seriously for the game, with former teammate Carl Gonser, another all-league tackle. He has a summer job with the San Rafael Parks and Recreation Department.

"I haven't worked out that much this summer," he said. "But I'll be ready for the game. I'm already stiff from working out. I think I'll have a good chance to play. There's 25 players on the squad and they'll be using two units."

Sprout played both ways in helping coach Bob Franceschini's Pirates grab a share of the MCAL title last year.

Easy Victory For Novato In Tourney

The Novato All-Stars move into the second round of the district Babe Ruth League tournament at Vacaville tonight when they meet the Vallejo Nationals at 6 o'clock.

The Novatans had no problems yesterday in disposing of Vacaville, 10-1, in the double-elimination tournament.

Russ Dillon almost did it by himself, hurling a one-hitter and striking out 13 batters in seven innings.

He won his own game for all paractical purposes, ripping a two-run double in the second inning for Novato's first runs.

Novato's 11-hit attack was led by Glenn Holslaw (2 for 4), Randy Foster (2 for 4) and Tom Cechlin (2 for 5).

Holslaw will hurl tonight.

Leach Fails In Nationals; Cerrdo 71 In Trans-Miss.

Ron Cerrudo of San Rafael is in a good position to make the championship round of the Trans-Mississippi Golf Tournament at San Antonio, Tex., and Don Hawken of San Rafael still has a chance, but Ray Leach of Novato failed yesterday to qualify for the U. S. Golf Association junior championship he almost won last year.

Leach, 17, runnerup in the USGA junior tourney last year, missed by one stroke in qualifying at the Stanford Golf Club for the 1967 tournament to be held Aug. 1-5 in Oklahoma City. He shot a 78; five golfers made it with 77s. A triple bogey on the second hole sent Leach ballooning to a 41 on the front nine and he could not overcome that burden.

Cerrudo, 22, toured the San Antonio Country Club course in 71 yesterday while Hawken, 17, had 76. He will probably have to better that as qualifying ends today to make the 64-man championship field which will start match play tomorrow. Tourney officials said they expect the worst qualifying score to be 148.

The best round at San Antonio was a six-under-par 66 shot by Joe Porter of Scottsdale, Ariz. Guy Bill of Oakland had a 68.

TRANS-PACIFIC YACHT SURPRISE

Lady Is Likely Handicap Champion

HONOLULU (UPI) — Beginner's luck probably has nothing to do with it, but the fact is the most likely handicap winner of the 24th annual Trans-Pacific yacht race is manned by a crew which has never sailed further than 250 miles from shore.

And besides that, her skipper is a lady.

The Diabetical II, piloted by Miss Marcia Campbell, was pegged by race officials yesterday as the probable over-all winner of the race. The 26-foot sloop was expected to cross the finish line sometime today.

Injuries and death continue to mar the race. The latest injured participant was William S. Nevin, the skipper of the Babba III, who suffered broken ribs and was in mild shock after a fall.

A Coast Guard cutter which had been towing the disabled Rampage to Honolulu, hopes to rendezvous with the Babba III late Monday. Dr. M. H. Stevenson, a crewman aboard the Rampage, went with the Coast Guard to treat Nevin.

Earlier yesterday, the skipper of the 47-foot sloop Bluebell, Morgan Pattison, was reported by race officials to have died in a Los Angeles hospital. Pattison was evacuated from the Bluebell after he suffered an ulcer attack. Another crewman was removed from the Bluebell when he suffered a badly cut head.

Fleet officials said most of the Class A boats will cross the Diamond Head finish line by today. The Audacious, whose skipper refused to reveal his position throughout the race, appeared certain to take handicap honors in that division.

By midnight yesterday, 10 boats had completed the 2,225 mile race.

Yachts finishing yesterday afternoon were Orient, elapsed time 13 days, 4 hours, 31 minutes and 32 seconds, corrected time 9 days, 23 hours, 14 minutes, 38 seconds; Westward, elapsed time 13 days, 5 hours, 5 minutes, 22 seconds, corrected time 9 days, 8 hours, 21 minutes, 1 second.

Boccabella Farmed Out, But Will Return—Leo

By GLENN BECKER

John Boccabella had to cut the interview short Sunday.

"We're having a meeting," he explained, running toward the visitor's clubhouse at Candlestick Park, where the Chicago Cubs would shortly play a doubleheader against the Giants.

According to unofficial reports, Manager Leo Durocher instructed his slumping team to hit its home runs with men on base, field flawlessly, pitch superbly and hit sacrifice flies with the winning run on third base.

The Cubs had a postwar tradition of ignoring such advice, but Durocher has 'em behaving beautifully this year and they proved his strategy sound by racking up the Giants, 9-0 and 3-2.

Unfortunately for Boccabella, he did not play in either game and afterwards was sent on option to the Cub farm club in Tacoma. The move made Durocher look like a genius, for Boc's replacement, Clarence Jones, drove in two runs yesterday as the Cubs won again, 4-3.

Boccabella, the former Marin Catholic High School and Santa Clara star from San Anselmo, fairly earned his trip to Tacoma. In 28 official at bats this season he had managed just 4 hits — and 16 strikeouts — while drawing 2 walks and getting hit once.

In John's defense, he did not play much and for that he can partly blame the nicest man in all Chicagoland, Ernie Banks. Like many senior citizens of baseball, including Mickey Mantle, the 36-year-old Banks turned to first base — Boccabella's regular position — when the legs started feeling the years.

Halfway through last year it seemed Banks was through and Boccabella could have the job anyway if he hit even moderately well. But ol' Ernie suddenly learned to hit to right field (yesterday he set up a run with a single to right), then started getting pitches he could pull again and he's been slugging like the Banks of old ever since.

The rejuvenation of Banks left Boccabella with nowhere to go but rightfield. He started catching in spring training, but ex-Giant Randy Hundley has been hitting about .290 this year.

Right field looked good, since the Cubs have been looking for someone to play it. As of Sunday they were still looking, since in addition to Boccabella's .143, they had Ted Savage hitting .226 and Lee Thomas .242. As of yesterday, though, they are much healthier out there with Jones, who was tearing the Coast League apart until Durocher called him up.

Leo the Lion said yesterday that Boc will play regularly at first base at Tacoma. "If he hits, we may call him back before their season ends," Durocher said. "He'll be back in any case after that. Boc'll play regularly up there and that's what he needs."

One game does not make a career, but if Jones continues to hit as his manager expects, Johnny B. will have to wait for Mr. Banks to stop hitting before he gets into the Cub lineup. And that could take a while.

Durocher has the Cubs playing tighter ball than they have in the last 25 years — they have the fewest errors in the majors — and one reason Boccabella noted for their resurgence was a great spring training.

"Last year we trained in Long Beach," he said, "and it seemed we were always on the road traveling to Arizona. We never got extra hitting, for one thing. This year we trained in Scottsdale (Arizona)."

He ascribed the late June-ear-

Hornung's Chances Not Good

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Paul Hornung, the Golden Boy of pro football for the last decade, may be through.

No one knows. Or at least no one is saying. But the prospects are not good.

"Hornung has a 50-50 chance to play," said Tom Fears, coach of the New Orleans Saints, the expansion team that claimed the do-everything halfback in the draft.

"I don't want to make a statement until everything is sure," said Saints owner John Mecom Jr.

Hornung wasn't saying anything.

The 31-year-old veteran, a two-time NFL Most Valuable Player for the Green Bay Packers and holder of the league scoring record, was in the Scripps Clinic in La Jolla, Calif., today undergoing a second series of tests to determine whether or not he can continue his career.

NERVE DAMAGE

The question centers around possible nerve damage to his neck and-or left arm, arising out a neck injury he suffered last season while scoring a touchdown against the Chicago Bears.

"My neck snapped back diving into the end zone," Hornung said. "I don't remember the guy who was defending but he fell on me and jammed my neck."

Hornung already has undergone a series of tests at the Mayo Clinic. Those results have not been disclosed, but presumably he would not be taking a second set of tests had Mayo given him a clean bill of health.

Hornung said Mecom urged further tests to get "a couple of opinions. So they thought it would be a good idea to enter Scripps."

GOOD NEWS

While the Saints were holding their breath about Hornung, the New York Jets and Cleveland Browns got some good news and the Detroit Loins got some backtalk as the highlights from the training camps as the major pro teams prepared to get down to heavy work.

Joe Namath, the Jets' $400,000 bonus quarterback, said his latest knee operation apparently was successful. Frank Ryan, Cleveland quarterback, who suffered a shoulder separation last year, said he was fully recovered. Defensive halfback Dick Lebeau and linebacker Wayne Walker became holdouts with Detroit.

"The knee hasn't bothered me since the operation, and it feels the best it has in two years," said Namath, who had a second operation on his balky right knee during the offseason.

"I haven't tried to run and cut yet. Not because I'm afraid to. It just hasn't been necessary."

A Crucial Road Trip For Mays-Less Giants

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — The San Francisco Giants begin an abbreviated eight-game six-day road trip tonight with a doubleheader against the Pittsburgh Pirates, and before they come home again they should be back in the National League race or well back in the pack.

Juan Marichal and Joe Gibbon are the pitchers in tonight's twi-night twinbill. Marichal was pounded for 10 hits and seven runs inside of five innings in his last start—against the Houston Astros—while Gibbon has been the long relief man in recent weeks and will be making one of his rare starts.

The Giants dropped a 4-3 decision to the Chicago Cubs yesterday in San Francisco. It was their third straight loss to the second-place Cubs and came at a time when the club had to play without Willie Mays.

Mays is in a San Francisco hospital undergoing tests and rest for a severe case of influenza. He did not accompany the club to Pittsburgh and if all goes well will rejoin the Giants in Chicago on Friday.

San Francisco plays Pittsburgh four games and the Cubs four before returning to Candlestick Park for a nine-day homestand. In the most recent homestand, the Giants won five of nine games, suffering three losses in a row at the end just when it seemed they might be making a run at first place.

The Giants didn't get into Monday's game with the Cubs until it was too late.

With Rich Nye, who a year ago was pitching for the University of California at Berkeley, chucking shutout ball, the Giants finally scored in the sixth inning for a 2-1 deficit. The Cubs had built their margin off Ray Sadecki on six hits, scoring single runs in the fifth and sixth.

Bob Etheridge, playing in his first big league game, opened the San Francisco sixth with a hit and eventually made it around on a walk, an error and Dick Dietz' sacrifice fly.

The Cubs scored in the eighth and ninth innings with Clarence Jones, playing his first game since being called up from Tacoma of the PCL, driving in one of the runs and Billy Williams the other.

The Giants finally chased Nye in the ninth as Dick Groat got a pinch-hit, two-out single and Jim Davenport followed with another single, setting the stage for a triple by Etheridge. Chuck Hartenstein, one of the Cubs' most reliable relievers, came on to nail the pinch-hitting Willie McCovey on a grounder to close it out.

The victory was Nye's ninth in 18 decisions and the save was Hartenstein's sixth. Sadecki took the loss, his first after three victories.

JIM GILMARTIN

Fallon Strikes Back! Gilly The Kid Hanged

Don't invite me and the City of Fallon, Nev. to the same party.

I'm about as popular in that desert town as a windstorm.

And for heaven's sake, don't drive through there with an I-J bumper sticker on your car or you may become guest of honor at a lynching party.

Just say "Jim Who?" if anyone asks for me.

A couple of weeks ago I wrote an uncomplimentary description of Fallon following the San Rafael Braves' baseball series there. I've never won any scholarships from Dale Carnegie, but how did I know EVERYBODY in Fallon reads the I-J.

Well, the Fallon Eagle-Standard reprinted my column bigger than life across page one. Golly, from the spread they gave me you'd think I was Ernest Hemmingway. The last guy who got the eight-column treatment in the Eagle-Standard was Billy the Kid.

Anyhoo, Publisher Norman H. Butler, apparently madder than a rattler, accompanied my prose with a retaliatory piece that stamps him as the Will Rogers of our day. He also wrote me a nasty letter and concluded it with: "Put this in your pipe and smoke it!"

Here is Butler's answer to my column as published in the July 11 issue of the Eagle-Standard:

1.01 Miles In The Town—All Square

"Yes, Mr. Gilmartin. We heard you, and. . .

"Here is our answer . . . As one fellow put it, 'this is my town and I can say what I please about it, but you better not.' As for me, I chose Fallon 3½ years ago, it didn't choose me. And what makes you such an authority on the subject of small towns anyway? So we are a small town, but the sign isn't glued 'back-to-back,' not quite! There is exactly 1.27 miles between the North-South limits and 1.30 miles separating the East-West limits encompassing 1.01 square miles.

"So we have a few mosquitoes in Fallon, well, who doesn't? Anywhere there is water, you will find mosquitoes and we do have plenty of water here. If our 'western' friends think the Fallon mosquitoes are as large as baseballs, then they should visit the Louisiana swamps — they would swear the mosquitoes there are larger than beachballs, and really they aren't.

There MUST Be Someplace Worse

"But to say that Fallon is 'the hell hole of creation,' really, now, don't you think that is a little strong? I'm sure there must be at least one or two places in the world that is worse. Why not ask our Fallon boys in Vietnam? The ones that have returned home are most happy to be here. These boys are in a 'hell hole' fighting for our freedom, one of those basic freedoms being a 'free press,' or doesn't our writer read the paper on which he earns his living 'writing' such drivel?

"As for the temperature, when you have waited

Drake Ace On North Grid Team

Jerry Sprout, Drake High School's 6-6, 230-pound all-everything, will play in the North-South Shrine Football Game in the Los Angeles Coliseum Aug. 3.

Sprout, an all-Marin County Athletic League tackle and basketball center last season, was informed Sunday that he would be playing in the high school extravaganza by Dan Albert, coach at Monterey High School and co-coach of the North squad.

Picked as an alternate in balloting for the squad, Sprout will replace Monty Consani, Riordan tackle who was injured while working out for the game.

"I couldn't believe it," Sprout said.

STANFORD BOUND

Sprout, who will attend Stanford on a football scholarship this fall, said that he had already started working out seriously for the game, with former teammate Carl Gonser, another all-league tackle. He has a summer job with the San Rafael Parks and Recreation Department.

"I haven't worked out that much this summer," he said. "But I'll be ready for the game. I'm already stiff from working out. I think I'll have a good chance to play. There's 25 players on the squad and they'll be using two units."

Sprout played both ways in helping coach Bob Franceschini's Pirates grab a share of the MCAL title last year.

Easy Victory For Novato In Tourney

The Novato All-Stars move into the second round of the district Babe Ruth League tournament at Vacaville tonight when they meet the Vallejo Nationals at 6 o'clock.

The Novatans had no problems yesterday in disposing of Vacaville, 10-1, in the double-elimination tournament.

Russ Dillon almost did it by himself, hurling a one-hitter and striking out 13 batters in seven innings.

He won his own game for all paractical purposes, ripping a two-run double in the second inning for Novato's first runs.

Novato's 11-hit attack was led by Glenn Holslaw (2 for 4), Randy Foster (2 for 4) and Tom Cechlin (2 for 5).

Holslaw will hurl tonight.

Leach Fails In Nationals; Cerrdo 71 In Trans-Miss.

Ron Cerrudo of San Rafael is in a good position to make the championship round of the Trans-Mississippi Golf Tournament at San Antonio, Tex., and Don Hawken of San Rafael still has a chance, but Ray Leach of Novato failed yesterday to qualify for the U. S. Golf Association junior championship he almost won last year.

Leach, 17, runnerup in the USGA junior tourney last year, missed by one stroke in qualifying at the Stanford Golf Club for the 1967 tournament to be held Aug. 1-5 in Oklahoma City. He shot a 78; five golfers made it with 77s. A triple bogey on the second hole sent Leach ballooning to a 41 on the front nine and he could not overcome that burden.

Cerrudo, 22, toured the San Antonio Country Club course in 71 yesterday while Hawken, 17, had 76. He will probably have to better that as qualifying ends today to make the 64-man championship field which will start match play tomorrow. Tourney officials said they expect the worst qualifying score to be 148.

The best round at San Antonio was a six-under-par 66 shot by Joe Porter of Scottsdale, Ariz. Guy Bill of Oakland had a 68.

TRANS-PACIFIC YACHT SURPRISE

Lady Is Likely Handicap Champion

HONOLULU (UPI) — Beginner's luck probably has nothing to do with it, but the fact is the most likely handicap winner of the 24th annual Trans-Pacific yacht race is manned by a crew which has never sailed further than 250 miles from shore.

And besides that, her skipper is a lady.

The Diabetical II, piloted by Miss Marcia Campbell, was pegged by race officials yesterday as the probable over-all winner of the race. The 26-foot sloop was expected to cross the finish line sometime today.

Injuries and death continue to mar the race. The latest injured participant was William S. Nevin, the skipper of the Babba III, who suffered broken ribs and was in mild shock after a fall.

A Coast Guard cutter which had been towing the disabled Rampage to Honolulu, hopes to rendezvous with the Babba III late Monday. Dr. M. H. Stevenson, a crewman aboard the Rampage, went with the Coast Guard to treat Nevin.

Earlier yesterday, the skipper of the 47-foot sloop Bluebell, Morgan Pattison, was reported by race officials to have died in a Los Angeles hospital. Pattison was evacuated from the Bluebell after he suffered an ulcer attack. Another crewman was removed from the Bluebell when he suffered a badly cut head.

Fleet officials said most of the Class A boats will cross the Diamond Head finish line by today. The Audacious, whose skipper refused to reveal his position throughout the race, appeared certain to take handicap honors in that division.

By midnight yesterday, 10 boats had completed the 2,225 mile race.

Yachts finishing yesterday afternoon were Orient, elapsed time 13 days, 4 hours, 31 minutes and 32 seconds, corrected time 9 days, 23 hours, 14 minutes, 38 seconds; Westward, elapsed time 13 days, 5 hours, 5 minutes, 22 seconds, corrected time 9 days, 8 hours, 21 minutes, 1 second.

JACK HANLEY

Marichal Huffing, Puffing Since Bunning's Pop Homer

PITTSBURGH — When Juan Marichal lost his first three starts this season, the Giants were deeply disturbed. Nobody pushed the panic button because the Dominican Dandy finally got things turned around, winning his fourth start.

Then he won his next seven and was working on an eight game win streak when the Phillies beat him on Memorial Day in Candlestick Park 5-4. It was a fluke home run by Jim Bunning in the ninth inning that did the damage. Any place else it would have been a pop fly but Bunning, a pitcher who hits maybe one homer a season, swung at a high outside fast ball and got it up in Candlestick Park's jet stream which did the rest of the work.

SUCH THINGS can happen and if Bunning had been a better hitter he wouldn't even have swung at the pitch. So Marichal wasn't really held strictly accountable for the loss although it went into his record. It was a weird loss on a weird home run.

But ever since that Memorial Day defeat, it has been an up-and-down battle for Marichal. He has been unable to put wins back-to-back since Memorial Day. And he has been hit as never before in his eight year major league career.

IT'S TRUE that throwing errors by Jim Ray Hart at third base cost him a couple of games. But Hart now is in left field and Hart won a game for Marichal July 8, just before the All-Star break, after Marichal was bombed by Lou Johnson and Ron Fairly for two-run homers which established a 4-0 Dodger lead by the fourth inning. In that July 8 game Hart hit a three-run homer in the fifth and a two-run homer in the seventh.

Since Memorial Day, when his record was 8-4, Marichal has made nine starts, one of which ended in no decision at Cincinnati where the Reds had Marichal down 3-0 June 7 at the end of seven. He was lifted for an eighth inning pinch hitter and the Giants pulled it out 4-3 in the final frames.

OF THE OTHER EIGHT games, Marichal won four and lost four, the most memorable loss coming on the Fourth of July in New York from the Mets who never previously had beaten Marichal. His record against the Mets was a perfect 19-0 when they declared their baseball independence from him with a rocketing 14-hit attack.

The only other time a team ever got 14 hits off Marichal was in the opener of this season April 11 at St. Louis where the Cardinals ran up the hit high on the Dominican Dandy.

IN A TOTAL of 21 starts thus far, Marichal has yielded 159 hits in 170 innings, including 17 homers. If it had not been for a five-hit shutout of the Dodgers April 25 and a following four-hit blanking of the Mets four days later, Marichal's record for the first time would show more hits than innings pitched.

Maybe Don Juan will get things turned around again when he faces the Pirates for the first time tonight in Forbes Field. He fervently hopes so. And so do his Giant teammates who, until this season, had few qualms about a ball game when Marichal was pitching.

Braves Charge On Alou's Grand Slam

By BOB GREEN
Associated Sports Writer

The Atlanta Braves are off and running, making a serious, concerted bid for the top spot in the National League, and Felipe Alou says the signs are all there that they'll succeed.

Alou cracked a grand-slam homer last night, helping the Braves to a 6-2 decision over Pittsburgh, and then did some reminiscing.

"The only other one I hit was in 1962 in Candlestick Park when I was playing for San Francisco.

"And we won the pennant that year.

"We had the desire then, too. This is the first time I've been with the Braves that I've seen everyone with that same desire to win."

CARDS TRIUMPH

The victory left the Braves still 4½ games back of leading St. Louis, which fought off the New York Mets 6-4 in a night game. Cincinnati topped Philadelphia 8-5 in another night game, while the Chicago Cubs called on Charlie Hartenstein to put down a ninth-ining rally and preserve a 4-3 day victory over San Francisco.

Los Angeles and Houston were not scheduled.

Alou's grand slam was the clincher for Atlanta, which won its fourth straight and eighth in the last ten games.

The Pirates' Bob Veale gave up a single to Joe Torre leading off the decisive sixth. Two walks and a sacrifice followed, producing one run. Veale then walked pitcher Ken Johnson intentionally to load the bases, and Alou unloaded his 10th homer of the season.

The Braves now face a 29-game stretch that could be decisive. They play their next 19 games against St. Louis, Cincinnati and Chicago, the top three teams in the league.

SHANNON STARS

Mike Shannon drove in four runs on a homer, double and sacrifice fly, and Tim McCarver had four singles, lifting his average to a league- leading .355 for St. Louis, but the Cards had to fight off a bases-loaded Met threat in the ninth to preserve it.

Dale Maxvill had a homer for the Cards, who broke a three-game losing string, and Jerry Buchek had one for the Mets.

Vada Pinson's fourth hit of the game, a run-scoring double in the eighth inning, broke a 5-5 tie and pointed Cincinnati to its victory over the Reds. Moments later Tony Perez clinched it with a two-runu triple. Pinson also singled three times and walked. Lee May had a solo homer for the winners.

"What do we have to fear from big government getting bigger? Socialized baseball, for one thing!"

Leo Looks Like Genius With Cubs

ly July Cub winning streak, when they climbed to a first place tie by taking 14 of 15, to momentum and playing at home.

"We just kept winning and it got so we didn't think we could lose. The fans were great — it was a great thrill, really."

Oh, to be young and — a Cub?!!

Boccabella rates Durocher tops. "As soon as he got here he got rid of the older players. We'd been in the second division for 20 years and he felt some of the older guys had kind of developed a defeatist attitude. Leo's instilled a winning spirit — he's done a great job."

PRIVATE RAILROAD

Durocher doesn't let anyone stay around long enough to develop a defeatist attitude. He has shuffled players between Chicago and Tacoma until it almost seems the Wrigleys have their own railroad.

Yesterday he brought in Charley Hartenstein to relieve starter Rich Nye in the ninth with the tying run on third and two outs. Hartenstein was called up from Tacoma last month and has saved six games since then.

"I knew (Herman) Franks would bring in (Willie) McCovey to hit for (Ollie) Brown," Durocher said, "but it didn't make a bit of difference to me. I just told him to keep the ball low and away and he'll try to pull it. He's not going to left field with the wind blowing like it was.

"Of course, I can't do it. I can only think it. The Twig (Hartenstein) has to do it, and he did." McCovey reached for his first pitch — low and away — and grounded out to Banks.

Hartenstein is 5-10 and weighs about 165 pounds. He got his nicknames from huge Dick Radatz, who has since replaced him at Tacoma. Another old relief pitcher, Don Larsen, lasted 11 days before he went out to Tacoma.

"I'm not keeping any kinds here if they can't pitch, but they are pitching well and I'm going to go with them," Durocher said.

Rain Hampers PGA Tuneups

DENVER (AP) — The country's top pro golfers returned to the tees at Columbine Country Club today, hoping for a break in the weather that has dampened everything but their enthusiasm for the course.

With two days remaining before the start of the 1967 PGA Championship, the pros are trying to familiarize themselves with the long, narrow fairways at Columbine. Most agree with Arnold Palmer in calling it "a good golf course."

Defending champion Al Geiberger arrived at noon, but had to wait for close to three hours to go out as rain blanketed the course. The long wait made him fidgety, but of his status he said, "Being defending champion doesn't bother me a bit."

ARNIE'S ARMY

About 5,000 fans showed up for the practice rounds Monday. Most of them collected around Palmer, who has yet to win a PGA crown. Palmer fired a 1-over-par 73 Sunday, and said he was right around par yesterday.

Bruce Devlin carded a 72 for the day, but most of the pros were more interested in getting to know the course than in keeping score. Former PGA champ Dow Finsterwald said he drove two balls into the water on the 469-yard fourth hole" and quit counting."

Most of the pros have arrived, with their retinues and equipment. Doug Sanders brought in a dozen pair of golf shoes.

When they weren't fretting over the rain, many of the golfers were worrying about what would happen when the rain stopped and the sun came out. The rough was cut to three inches Friday. It won't be cut again. "If it ever stops raining the fairway rough is going to be tough," commented Jacky Cupit. "That bluegrass can be tough as leather," he added.

Bears' Jon Arnett Retires; Drag Boat Champion Dies

COMBINED AP & UPI

Halfback Jon Arnett of the Chicago Bears announced yesterday he is retiring from professional football because of business interests in Los Angeles.

Arnett, 32, was a star halfback at the University of Southern California before joining the Los Angeles Rams in 1957. He was traded to the Bears in 1964.

BOAT RACING

SOCCER

LOS ANGELES — United Soccer Association Commissioner Dick Walsh announced yesterday that his league will discuss merger with the National Professional Soccer League when the two meet Friday in Chicago.

SWIMMING

DOVER, England — Elaine Gray, 21-year-old English librarian, set a woman's record for crossing the English channel yesterday by swimming from France to England in 10 hours, 24 minutes.

Greg Ryan, Tom Olund and Pam Blair each won three races Saturday to lead the Terra Linda Swim Club past Strawberry 324-153 in a Marin Swim League meet at Terra Linda.

Lucas Valley Swim Club downed the Tiburon Peninsula Swim Club in a dual meet at Lucas Valley yesterday, 333-135.

Denise Locati was a triple winner for Tiburon in the girls 11-12 division, capturing the 50 butterfly, the 100 I.M. and the 50 back.

SPORTS SHORTS

AUTO RACING

LOS ANGELES — J. C. Agajanian announced yesterday he has signed Bill Vukovich Jr. to drive his cars at Indianapolis and other tracks. Vukovich's father was killed in 1955 trying to win a third straight Indianapolis 500-mile race.

HORSE RACING

CHULA VISTA — William T. (Pop) Westrope, well-known racing figure who had two sons killed in racing accidents, died yesterday at 71 after a long illness.

BASKETBALL

LOS ANGELES — The Los Angeles Lakers have announced the signing of Cliff Anderson, 6-4 forward who set 18 school scoring records at St. Joseph's College in Philadelphia.

FOOTBALL

LOS ANGELES — The Los Angeles Rams yesterday acquired veteran center Bob Whitlow, 31, from the Atlanta Falcons for a future draft choice. Whitelow, a graduate of the University of Arizona, has played with Chicago, Washington, Detroit and Atlanta in his eight-year career. He will back up regular Ram center Ken Iman.

Heavyweight Reinstated

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Heavyweight Leotis Martin, suspended two weeks ago for failure to meet Roger Russell in a June 26 bout here, was reinstated yesterday by the Pennsylvania State Athletic Commission.

Frank Wildman, commission chairman said the ruling would allow Martin to fight Jimmy Ellis of Miami Beach in a World Boxing Association championship elimination tournament at Houston, Aug. 5 to determine a successor to Cassius Clay.

Martin was suspended after suffering a right knee injury in addition to an ailing back during training for the Russell fight. He was examined yesterday by an orthopedic specialist and pronounced fit. Dr. Wilbur H. Strickland, commission physician, then removed Martin from the "ill and unavailable list."

Astrodome Comfort

HOUSTON, Tex. (UPI)—The Houston Astrodome is the only major league baseball arena to boast theatre-type upholstered seats, says American Seating Company, which has furnished chairs for about 20 major league ball parks.

MORE JIM GILMARTIN

for summer as long as Fallon has, who is going to complain when it hits 103 degrees two days in a row? After all, this is a farming community and without 'Ole Sol' we don't have much of a growing season.

"The visiting manager must have chosen the Cannon Motel for accomodations (it has been closed for more than a year) because none of our motels fit the description of (one shower) and I suppose our California neighbors are blaming the church for 'tripping up' their catcher. Now, really, can a church be blamed for an injury to a ball player who is too 'heavy on his feet' to 'lift them up and put them down'? I ask you, is that really fair?

The Joint Was Really Jumping

"As for Mr. Dinsmore's comments, the sportcaster, well, what do you expect in a town of 3,000 plus? A ball team chooses a weekend when at least four large weddings, two teen-age dances, a class reunion, an excellent drive-in theater program, a family reunion, and an equally excellent downtown theater program, not to mention the normal happenings, were going on in 'our stinky little town' and they expect a crowd? 'Taint funny Magee! There just aren't that many people to go around . . . and let's face it, the above mentioned events are just as important to us as a ball game. Oh yes, the Miss Nevada pageant was going on in Reno that weekend also with Fallon's Janice Erb participating, so naturally there were those who attended.

"A final word! If Mr. Gilmartin thinks Fallon is 'hell' then I suggest he send his team to the front lines in Vietnam to assist our boys there. I'm sure they will appreciate the assistance in preserving a freedon, so that he, Mr. Gilmartin, may continue to write such drivel about something of which he is 'no authority.'

Have You Checked Your Home Lately?

"P.S. Independent-Journal: Print our side of this 'Long Hot Weekend In Fallon, Nevada' if you have the nerve. This publisher and his family had the pleasure of enjoying a weekend in your town several summers ago and it was far, far from cool, not to mention the discourteous drivers, the fog, lack of parking, houses sliding down the mud hills, etc. . . .But we didn't knock it, we assumed these were the things that go with 'big city living.' But we happen to prefer the small town living."

Golly, those small town guys sure know how to hurt us big city slickers. Now if you'll excuse me, I'm going to go and watch the homes slide down the hills. It's a helluva lot more fun than measuring the town.

Marin's Beardall Takes Oakland Distance Race

Darryl Beardall, of Marin Athletic Club, used the five-minute handicap accorded runners aged 30-34 to win a 9.3-mile race at Joaquin Miller Park in Oakland yesterday.

The race, sponsored by the East Bay Road Runners Club, was run over a hilly course somewhat like the Dipsea Trail from Mill Valley to Stinson Beach.

Beardall carded a corrected time of 47:15. The fastest uncorrected time was recorded by Richard Hunter of the Redwood City Striders, 51:14.

Other Marin A.C. runners who did well included John Satti, fifth with a corrected time of 66:55-15:00-51:55; Paul Reese, seventh; Robert Biancalana, 12th; Mike Biancalana, 16th; Mark Reese, 19th; John Noonan, 21st, and Otis Miles, 23rd.

There were 103 finishers.

Long Title Play

LOS ANGELES (UPI) —The longest play of any type recorded in a National Football League championship game was 82 yards, a pass play from Bob Waterfield to Glenn Davis of the Los Angeles Rams in a losing effort against the Cleveland Browns.

Globe Trotting Soccer Player

BALTIMORE (UPI)—When it comes to globe trotting, few players in the National Professional Soccer League can top Baltimore Bays' Karl Minor.

He was born in West Germany in an American hospital of Polish parents who later emigrated to Australia. He worked his way from Australia to London where he won a tryout for the West Ham United team. Recently he crossed the Atlantic to play for the Bays, and he's only 19.

Marichal Huffing, Puffing Since Bunning's Pop Homer

PITTSBURGH — When Juan Marichal lost his first three starts this season, the Giants were deeply disturbed. Nobody pushed the panic button because the Dominican Dandy finally got things turned around, winning his fourth start.

Then he won his next seven and was working on an eight game win streak when the Phillies beat him on Memorial Day in Candlestick Park 5-4. It was a fluke home run by Jim Bunning in the ninth inning that did the damage. Any place else it would have been a pop fly but Bunning, a pitcher who hits maybe one homer a season, swung at a high outside fast ball and got it up in Candlestick Park's jet stream which did the rest of the work.

SUCH THINGS can happen and if Bunning had been a better hitter he wouldn't even have swung at the pitch. So Marichal wasn't really held strictly accountable for the loss although it went into his record. It was a weird loss on a weird home run.

But ever since that Memorial Day defeat, it has been an up-and-down battle for Marichal. He has been unable to put wins back-to-back since Memorial Day. And he has been hit as never before in his eight year major league career.

IT'S TRUE that throwing errors by Jim Ray Hart at third base cost him a couple of games. But Hart now is in left field and Hart won a game for Marichal July 8, just before the All-Star break, after Marichal was bombed by Lou Johnson and Ron Fairly for two-run homers which established a 4-0 Dodger lead by the fourth inning. In that July 8 game Hart hit a three-run homer in the fifth and a two-run homer in the seventh.

Since Memorial Day, when his record was 8-4, Marichal has made nine starts, one of which ended in no decision at Cincinnati where the Reds had Marichal down 3-0 June 7 at the end of seven. He was lifted for an eighth inning pinch hitter and the Giants pulled it out 4-3 in the final frames.

OF THE OTHER EIGHT games, Marichal won four and lost four, the most memorable loss coming on the Fourth of July in New York from the Mets who never previously had beaten Marichal. His record against the Mets was a perfect 19-0 when they declared their baseball independence from him with a rocketing 14-hit attack.

The only other time a team ever got 14 hits off Marichal was in the opener of this season April 11 at St. Louis where the Cardinals ran up the hit high on the Dominican Dandy.

IN A TOTAL of 21 starts thus far, Marichal has yielded 159 hits in 170 innings, including 17 homers. If it had not been for a five-hit shutout of the Dodgers April 25 and a following four-hit blanking of the Mets four days later, Marichal's record for the first time would show more hits than innings pitched.

Maybe Don Juan will get things turned around again when he faces the Pirates for the first time tonight in Forbes Field. He fervently hopes so. And so do his Giant teammates who, until this season, had few qualms about a ball game when Marichal was pitching.

Braves Charge On Alou's Grand Slam

By BOB GREEN
Associated Sports Writer

The Atlanta Braves are off and running, making a serious, concerted bid for the top spot in the National League, and Felipe Alou says the signs are all there that they'll succeed.

Alou cracked a grand-slam homer last night, helping the Braves to a 6-2 decision over Pittsburgh, and then did some reminiscing.

"The only other one I hit was in 1962 in Candlestick Park when I was playing for San Francisco.

"And we won the pennant that year.

"We had the desire then, too. This is the first time I've been with the Braves that I've seen everyone with that same desire to win."

CARDS TRIUMPH

The victory left the Braves still 4½ games back of leading St. Louis, which fought off the New York Mets 6-4 in a night game. Cincinnati topped Philadelphia 8-5 in another night game, while the Chicago Cubs called on Charlie Hartenstein to put down a ninth-ining rally and preserve a 4-3 day victory over San Francisco.

Los Angeles and Houston were not scheduled.

Alou's grand slam was the clincher for Atlanta, which won its fourth straight and eighth in the last ten games.

The Pirates' Bob Veale gave up a single to Joe Torre leading off the decisive sixth. Two walks and a sacrifice followed, producing one run. Veale then walked pitcher Ken Johnson intentionally to load the bases, and Alou unloaded his 10th homer of the season.

The Braves now face a 29-game stretch that could be decisive. They play their next 19 games against St. Louis, Cincinnati and Chicago, the top three teams in the league.

SHANNON STARS

Mike Shannon drove in four runs on a homer, double and sacrifice fly, and Tim McCarver had four singles, lifting his average to a league- leading .355 for St. Louis, but the Cards had to fight off a bases-loaded Met threat in the ninth to preserve it.

Dale Maxvill had a homer for the Cards, who broke a three-game losing string, and Jerry Buchek had one for the Mets.

Vada Pinson's fourth hit of the game, a run-scoring double in the eighth inning, broke a 5-5 tie and pointed Cincinnati to its victory over the Reds. Moments later Tony Perez clinched it with a two-runu triple. Pinson also singled three times and walked. Lee May had a solo homer for the winners.

Marin's Beardall Takes Oakland Distance Race

Darryl Beardall, of Marin Athletic Club, used the five-minute handicap accorded runners aged 30-34 to win a 9.3-mile race at Joaquin Miller Park in Oakland yesterday.

The race, sponsored by the East Bay Road Runners Club, was run over a hilly course somewhat like the Dipsea Trail from Mill Valley to Stinson Beach.

Beardall carded a corrected time of 47:15. The fastest uncorrected time was recorded by Richard Hunter of the Redwood City Striders, 51:14.

Other Marin A.C. runners who did well included John Satti, fifth with a corrected time of 66:55-15:00-51:55; Paul Reese, seventh; Robert Biancalana, 12th; Mike Biancalana, 16th; Mark Reese, 19th; John Noonan, 21st, and Otis Miles, 23rd.

There were 103 finishers.

Long Title Play

LOS ANGELES (UPI) —The longest play of any type recorded in a National Football League championship game was 82 yards, a pass play from Bob Waterfield to Glenn Davis of the Los Angeles Rams in a losing effort against the Cleveland Browns.

BIFF BUFF

"What do we have to fear from big government getting bigger? Socialized baseball, for one thing!"

Leo Looks Like Genius With Cubs

ly July Cub winning streak, when they climbed to a first place tie by taking 14 of 15, to momentum and playing at home.

"We just kept winning and it got so we didn't think we could lose. The fans were great — it was a great thrill, really."

Oh, to be young and — a Cub?!!

Boccabella rates Durocher tops. "As soon as he got here he got rid of the older players. We'd been in the second division for 20 years and he felt some of the older guys had kind of developed a defeatist attitude. Leo's instilled a winning spirit — he's done a great job."

PRIVATE RAILROAD

Durocher doesn't let anyone stay around long enough to develop a defeatist attitude. He has shuffled players between Chicago and Tacoma until it almost seems the Wrigleys have their own railroad.

Yesterday he brought in Charley Hartenstein to relieve starter Rich Nye in the ninth with the tying run on third and two outs. Hartenstein was called up from Tacoma last month and has saved six games since then.

"I knew (Herman) Franks would bring in (Willie) McCovey to hit for (Ollie) Brown," Durocher said, "but it didn't make a bit of difference to me. I just told him to keep the ball low and away and he'll try to pull it. He's not going to left field with the wind blowing like it was.

"Of course, I can't do it. I can only think it. The Twig (Hartenstein) has to do it, and he did." McCovey reached for his first pitch — low and away — and grounded out to Banks.

Hartenstein is 5-10 and weighs about 165 pounds. He got his nicknames from huge Dick Radatz, who has since replaced him at Tacoma. Another old relief pitcher, Don Larsen, lasted 11 days before he went out to Tacoma.

"I'm not keeping any kinds here if they can't pitch, but they are pitching well and I'm going to go with them," Durocher said.

Bears' Jon Arnett Retires; Drag Boat Champion Dies

COMBINED AP & UPI

Halfback Jon Arnett of the Chicago Bears announced yesterday he is retiring from professional football because of business interests in Los Angeles.

Arnett, 32, was a star halfback at the University of Southern California before joining the Los Angeles Rams in 1957. He was traded to the Bears in 1964.

BOAT RACING

SOCCER

LOS ANGELES — United Soccer Association Commissioner Dick Walsh announced yesterday that his league will discuss merger with the National Professional Soccer League when the two meet Friday in Chicago.

SWIMMING

DOVER, England — Elaine Gray, 21-year-old English librarian, set a woman's record for crossing the English channel yesterday by swimming from France to England in 10 hours, 24 minutes.

Greg Ryan, Tom Olund and Pam Blair each won three races Saturday to lead the Terra Linda Swim Club past Strawberry 324-153 in a Marin Swim League meet at Terra Linda.

Lucas Valley Swim Club downed the Tiburon Peninsula Swim Club in a dual meet at Lucas Valley yesterday, 333-135.

Denise Locati was a triple winner for Tiburon in the girls 11-12 division, capturing the 50 butterfly, the 100 I.M. and the 50 back.

AUTO RACING

LOS ANGELES — J. C. Agajanian announced yesterday he has signed Bill Vukovich Jr. to drive his cars at Indianapolis and other tracks. Vukovich's father was killed in 1955 trying to win a third straight Indianapolis 500-mile race.

HORSE RACING

CHULA VISTA — William T. (Pop) Westrope, well-known racing figure who had two sons killed in racing accidents, died yesterday at 71 after a long illness.

BASKETBALL

LOS ANGELES — The Los Angeles Lakers have announced the signing of Cliff Anderson, 6-4 forward who set 18 school scoring records at St. Joseph's College in Philadelphia.

FOOTBALL

LOS ANGELES — The Los Angeles Rams yesterday acquired veteran center Bob Whitlow, 31, from the Atlanta Falcons for a future draft choice. Whitelow, a graduate of the University of Arizona, has played with Chicago, Washington, Detroit and Atlanta in his eight-year career. He will back up regular Ram center Ken Iman.

Rain Hampers PGA Tuneups

DENVER (AP) — The country's top pro golfers returned to the tees at Columbine Country Club today, hoping for a break in the weather that has dampened everything but their enthusiasm for the course.

With two days remaining before the start of the 1967 PGA Championship, the pros are trying to familiarize themselves with the long, narrow fairways at Columbine. Most agree with Arnold Palmer in calling it "a good golf course."

Defending champion Al Geiberger arrived at noon, but had to wait for close to three hours to go out as rain blanketed the course. The long wait made him fidgety, but of his status he said, "Being defending champion doesn't bother me a bit."

ARNIE'S ARMY

About 5,000 fans showed up for the practice rounds Monday. Most of them collected around Palmer, who has yet to win a PGA crown. Palmer fired a 1-over-par 73 Sunday, and said he was right around par yesterday.

Bruce Devlin carded a 72 for the day, but most of the pros were more interested in getting to know the course than in keeping score. Former PGA champ Dow Finsterwald said he drove two balls into the water on the 469-yard fourth hole" and quit counting."

Most of the pros have arrived, with their retinues and equipment. Doug Sanders brought in a dozen pair of golf shoes.

When they weren't fretting over the rain, many of the golfers were worrying about what would happen when the rain stopped and the sun came out. The rough was cut to three inches Friday. It won't be cut again. "If it ever stops raining the fairway rough is going to be tough," commented Jacky Cupit. "That bluegrass can be tough as leather," he added.

SPORTS SHORTS

Heavyweight Reinstated

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Heavyweight Leotis Martin, suspended two weeks ago for failure to meet Roger Russell in a June 26 bout here, was reinstated yesterday by the Pennsylvania State Athletic Commission.

Frank Wildman, commission chairman said the ruling would allow Martin to fight Jimmy Ellis of Miami Beach in a World Boxing Association championship elimination tournament at Houston, Aug. 5 to determine a successor to Cassius Clay.

Martin was suspended after suffering a right knee injury in addition to an ailing back during training for the Russell fight. He was examined yesterday by an orthopedic specialist and pronounced fit. Dr. Wilbur H. Strickland, commission physician, then removed Martin from the "ill and unavailable list."

Astrodome Comfort

HOUSTON, Tex. (UPI)—The Houston Astrodome is the only major league baseball arena to boast theatre-type upholstered seats, says American Seating Company, which has furnished chairs for about 20 major league ball parks.

for summer as long as Fallon has, who is going to complain when it hits 103 degrees two days in a row? After all, this is a farming community and without 'Ole Sol' we don't have much of a growing season.

"The visiting manager must have chosen the Cannon Motel for accomodations (it has been closed for more than a year) because none of our motels fit the description of (one shower) and I suppose our California neighbors are blaming the church for 'tripping up' their catcher. Now, really, can a church be blamed for an injury to a ball player who is too 'heavy on his feet' to 'lift them up and put them down'? I ask you, is that really fair?

The Joint Was Really Jumping

"As for Mr. Dinsmore's comments, the sportcaster, well, what do you expect in a town of 3,000 plus? A ball team chooses a weekend when at least four large weddings, two teen-age dances, a class reunion, an excellent drive-in theater program, a family reunion, and an equally excellent downtown theater program, not to mention the normal happenings, were going on in 'our stinky little town' and they expect a crowd? 'Taint funny Magee! There just aren't that many people to go around . . . and let's face it, the above mentioned events are just as important to us as a ball game. Oh yes, the Miss Nevada pageant was going on in Reno that weekend also with Fallon's Janice Erb participating, so naturally there were those who attended.

"A final word! If Mr. Gilmartin thinks Fallon is 'hell' then I suggest he send his team to the front lines in Vietnam to assist our boys there. I'm sure they will appreciate the assistance in preserving a freedon, so that he, Mr. Gilmartin, may continue to write such drivel about something of which he is 'no authority.'

Have You Checked Your Home Lately?

"P.S. Independent-Journal: Print our side of this 'Long Hot Weekend In Fallon, Nevada' if you have the nerve. This publisher and his family had the pleasure of enjoying a weekend in your town several summers ago and it was far, far from cool, not to mention the discourteous drivers, the fog, lack of parking, houses sliding down the mud hills, etc. . . .But we didn't knock it, we assumed these were the things that go with 'big city living.' But we happen to prefer the small town living."

Golly, those small town guys sure know how to hurt us big city slickers. Now if you'll excuse me, I'm going to go and watch the homes slide down the hills. It's a helluva lot more fun than measuring the town.

Globe Trotting Soccer Player

BALTIMORE (UPI)—When it comes to globe trotting, few players in the National Professional Soccer League can top Baltimore Bays' Karl Minor.

He was born in West Germany in an American hospital of Polish parents who later emigrated to Australia. He worked his way from Australia to London where he won a tryout for the West Ham United team. Recently he crossed the Atlantic to play for the Bays, and he's only 19.

Bad News About Bass Fishing, Some Good News About Salmon

STEVENS

The news today is both good and bad. Let's take the bad news first, so that we will appreciate the good more.

The very fine run of medium and large stripers tapered off to blanks or near blanks at San Bruno Shoals. Nary a bass was reported.

The local anglers of South County did find some fish off the Naval Airport. Lyle Glenny reported about 20 boats and only 15 bass.

IT TAKES a series of low or minus tides to enliven the San Bruno locale, and we are entering such a series. So we can hope the San Bruno Shoals fishery will again send the red blood running in an angler's veins.

The expected improvement in striper striving in the upper San Pablo Bay area failed to materialize, not only was it slow bass fishing but the sturgeon seem to have declared a holiday. With an eight-day series of minus tides, bait fishing in the upper Bay will likely be no better than fair. Chances are, however the late evening trolling will come into its own. Here's hoping it happens that way.

NOW FOR SOME good news. The salmon have apparently left the former locales and have started running in the waters south of the Gate and off the San Pedro coast.

Hal Boenner of the Lee Anderson Bait and tackle shop reported the following party boats and their respective catches on Sunday or Saturday: The Chinook, 16 salmon to 15 pounds; Wilma H, 21 to 18 pounds; Sea Wolf, 16 to 18 pounds; Hazel B, 10 to 19 pounds; Yvette, 21 to 14 pounds, and Anna V., 15 salmon to 18 pounds.

HAL ALSO reported Gil Souza with Sal Pazio and son limiting out on stripers while trolling White Bug-ey jigs with porkrind tail bait on the Berkeley Flats.

Mrs. Edding of Buck's Landing at Santa Venetia told me some fair to good trolling was had by boats from the Landing that fished the Sisters-Brothers area. "Best early in the morning and toward dusk," she said.

HERE'S A REPORT to tantalize fly fishermen hither and yon. Jim Roberts of South County called to relate an extremely fine trip, with Bud Goodman and Verne O'Connor, for ten days at High Lake at the base of Mount Langley. The lucky trio caught the beautiful state fish — Golden trout, and exceptionally large ones, too. The smallest they brought home measured 14 inches, and they weighed from 2½ to 3 pounds.

JIM TOLD ME all of them (the boys, not the fish) used flies.

"We fished mosquitos dry and black gnats, wet. We caught so many the first couple of days we filed off the barbs of our hooks so that we could immediately release the trout with one shake," he said.

I UNDERSTAND the boys made headquarters at Cottonwood Park at the Barkley Pack Station.

You may not realize it, but that catch of Golden Trout was a very unusual event. The three anglers estimated they released over 200 Goldens — kept to bring home only the last day's catch.

Some Omens In Summer Cage League

For people that see winter omens in summer basketball, a look at the high school standings of the Drake Summer Basketball League would probably be revealing.

One can see that Marin County Athletic League schools should avoid Lowell and Poly, two San Francisco entries, like the plague. The two are currently tied for the league lead with 4-0 records.

After that, it appears that Marin Catholic may be ready to give serious trouble in the league and that San Rafael still has something left after losing its entire first team. And that defending champ Drake has a tough row to hoe. The summer Pirates are 0-4.

Last year's College of Marin basket squad is making its presence felt in the adult league with three of the ex-Tars showing up two, three and four in the indivudual scoring derby. Terry Overlid has 73 points, and Bob Phillips and Bill Pandiani have 71 seach while Russ Smith, who will be back next season, has 57, good for eighth.

Steve Durham of San Rafael of the Bulldogs (San Rafael) is the best Marin scorer in the race for individual honors in the high school league with a 19.5 average.

Hard Luck Bronco

DENVER (UPI)—Tackle Eldon Danenhauer of the AFL Denver Broncos holds the hard luck record for the 1966 season. Danenhauer, who had been thinking of retiring, changed his mind on a Monday, reported to training camp on Tuesday and broke his left arm Wednesday.

Two Teams Tied For San Rafael Softball Title

San Rafael Recreation Department Adult Softball League ended its 16-inch slow pitch division of the spring league with a two-way tie for first place.

Green Mill Inn and Cliff's Chevron both finished with 4-1 records and took convincing victories in their final games yesterday at Albert Field

Green Mill Inn whipped Fairchild, 10-1 as Bob Pawlo put it away in the first inning with a three-run homer. Cliff's Chevron routed the Harding Gophers, 10-2, with Gene Hiller hurling a two-hitter. In another game, Dexter Pontiac nicked E and E Chevron, 2-1, on Ned Hassen's two-run triple in the fifth inning.

Tennis Battle Cry: 'Break Up Aussies'

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass. (UPI)—Any day now someone is bound to start crying: "Put the U.S. back in the U.S. pro tennis championship."

For the third time in the last four years, Australian Rod Laver romped home with the U.S. pro tennis title last night. He spotted Spain's Andres Gimeno a set before turning on the heat to capture first place in the $25,000 tournament, 4-6, 6-4, 6-3, 7-5.

When the left-handed Laver hasn't been picking up the U.S. crown, fellow Aussie Ken Rosewall has, winning in 1963 and 1965. Laver won in 1964 and has taken the last two championships, the first back-to-back winner since Pancho Gonzales won seven straight titles beginning in 1953. Butch Buchholz—in 1962—was the last American to win the U.S. pro title.

For some 500 tennis diehards who stayed on, the top-seeded doubles team of Rosewall and Dennis Ralston defeated Gimeno and Pierre Barthes of France in a 16-14, 7-5 marathon match that ended at 12:52 a.m.

'Luck' Helps Underdog Surprise Davis Cupper

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — Lenny Schloss, a shirtmaker's son at the tailend of the U.S. tennis rankings, was dreaming of the top 20 today after fashioning a major upset over Davis Cupper Clark Graebner in the opening round of the National Clay Court Tennis Tournament.

"To get into the top 20, that's my goal this year," said the 38th ranked Baltimore resident, who shot down second-ranked and third-seeded Graebner 2-6, 6-4, 6-4 yesterday. "I want to be good enough to travel to Europe."

Graebner of Beachwood, Ohio, was one of three seeded players to fall in the first day. Also losing were fifth-seeded John Pickens of Tuscaloosa, Fla., who fell before Mexico's unseeded Marcelo Lara, 6-1, 6-2, and seventh-seeded Steve Tidball, Van Nuys, Calif., a loser to Bailey Brown, Bronxville, N.Y., 6-1, 6-0.

Top-seeded Arthur Ashe, Richmond, Va., the nation's highest- ranked player, defeated Bill Burns, Mequon, Wis., 6-4, 6-1 and second-seeded Cliff Richey, San Angelo, Tex., the defending champion, breezed by Ron Goldman, Chevy Chase, Md., 6-3, 6-1.

Schloss, the captain-elect of the University of Tennessee tennis team, beat Graebner after taking command in the second set.

"He was real sharp in the first set," said Schloss, the 21-year-old son of a shirt company vice president. "I got some good breaks after that that kept me in the match."

The breaks included at least four balls that clipped the net and fell over the other side. At one point, Graebner muttered, "How lucky can a guy get?"

Key Tilt Tonight For Marin Team

When it counts, it's nice to have your ace on the mound.

Sohner Tree Service of San Anselmo will do just that when it sends Morey Swarm to the mound against unbeaten Francis Realty in the Tri-County District Softball Tournament at Santa Rosa tonight at 9:30 o'clock.

Sohner is also undefeated in the 10-team tournament which features teams from Marin, Sonoma and Mendocino counties. The Treeman last chopped down Lady Lea Salon of San Rafael Sunday behind Swarm's two-hit hurling in the double elimination tourney.

The winner of the double elimination tournament goes on to the State Softball tournament in Napa, Aug. 10-20.

TV Engineers Solve Late Shadow Problem

NEW YORK (UPI) —The problem of late-afternoon shadows that creep across a baseball infield has been solved —at least on television.

Engineers at RCA report they have developed a new camera that for the first time combines light weight with the ability to handle the high contrasts in lighting that are encountered in televising outdoor action.

Today is Tuesday, July 18, the 199th day of 1967 with 166 to follow.

The moon is between its first quarter and full phase. The morning star is Saturn. The evening stars are Venus and Mars.

Born on this day in 1921, was the first American to orbit the earth, John Glenn.

On this day in history:

In 1914, the United States created an aviation section within the Signal Corps—with six planes available.

In 1938, Douglas Corrigan arrived in Dublin after having left New York City ostensibly for California. He earned the nickname "Wrong Way."

In 1951, Jersey Joe Walcott knocked out Ezzard Charles in seven rounds to win the heavyweight championship.

In 1966, astronauts John Young and Mike Cooper set an orbital height record by reaching just over 478 miles.

A thought for the day — French satirist Francois Rabelais once said: "So much is a man worth as he esteems himself."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey, Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

The column of heights gives the elevation in feet of each tide above or below the plane of Coast Survey chart soundings. The depths are always additive to the chart depths unless preceded by a minus sign (-), when the numbers are subtracted from the depth given in the chart. Light-face type indicates a.m. times: bold-face type indicates p.m. times.

Sammy Kehela, of Toronto, picked up the South hand during the recent world championship in Miami Beach. Do you feel a little better already?

CHEAP RESPONSE

Kehela made the cheapest possible response to his partner's takeout double and drew a small breath when North passed. East bid two hearts, and Kehela drew another small breath as he passed. What joy, when you hold such garbage, to have the opponents stop at a part score.

But Eric Murray doubled with the North hand. Since Kehela dared not pass, he once more made the cheapest bid: two spades. West's double was passed around to Kehela, who redoubled.

He assumed his partner, a friend for many years, would rescue at three of a minor suit.

But false friend Murray passed, and Kehela had to play the hand at two spades redoubled. Now do you see that you are not alone?

HAPPY ENDING

Kehela took the opening lead in dummy and returned the heart. East took the king of hearts and the top clubs. West ruffed the next club and led a diamond for East to ruff. East's ten of clubs then won when South threw a diamond.

East led a heart, and dummy ruffed. South got to his hand by ruffing a diamond, took a trump finesse, ruffed another diamond and won the last two tricks with dummy's ace-queen of trumps.

THE PENALTY

The penalty for going down one was only 200 points. At the other table of the match, New York expert Edgar Kaplan had bid and made four hearts on the East-West cards, scoring 620 points. The North American team gained 420 points on the hand as a whole, and Kehela's nightmare had a happy ending.

OTHER PEOPLE'S BUSINESS

By HARRY CRAFT

Catania Sound Will Move, Expand San Rafael Store

About the middle of September, Catania Sound, which has been at 1541 Fourth Street for the past 10 years and longer than that in total years in downtown San Rafael, will have a new Fourth Street address in a more active segment of the city's shopping area.

Charles Catania has leased the quarters at 857 Fourth Street (where the Mr. K restaurant used to be) and will remodel to establish an elaborate retail store handling records, tapes, radio, sound, stereo and high fidelity equipment. This type of operation has not been possible at the present location. Ed Kingsland of Redmond Realty and Richard Oesterman of Capital Assistance and Mortgage Co. handled the lease transaction.

There will be a service department at the rear of the store, with customer drive-in and pick-up facilities at the back of the building.

Heretofore Catania has dealt exclusively in custom sound installations. This will open up for it an entirely new field of merchandising. Custom work will continue, of course, and offices, drafting and engineering departments probably will be headquartered upstairs at 912 Lootens Place nearby. This is in the building where Marin County Office Equipment used to be.

Catania will undoubtedly observe the Wednesday evening hours of other stores in this busy area and perhaps have other evening openings.

DR. P. R. BALLINGER of San Rafael has been appointed senior research engineer in the fuel additives section at the Richmond laboratory of Chevron Research Co. He has been with Chevron since 1959 and has made important contributions to the company's fundamental combustion research program.

Ballinger Goebel

NEWLY ELECTED as president of the Red Hill Shopping Center Merchants Association, San Anselmo, is Richard Goebel, owner of the Hickory Farms of Ohio store. Cleon Tilman, manager of the Safeway Store is vice president; Don Furbush of Grubb and Ellis, the shopping center developers, is secretary-treasurer. Richard Scott, manager of Longs Drug Store, and George Loizos, manager of the Pepperwood coffee shop and lounge, were named directors.

REDWOOD NATIONAL BANK is now displaying the paintings of C. Wolpert at its San Rafael offices. The showing will continue through all of July.

June's 860 ship movements through the Golden Gate were off slightly from the May total of 892 (a near record) — but above the 843 ship movements of a year ago.

Arrivals totaled 430 and the same number of ships sailed away. About 43 per cent of them carried foreign flags — the majority being Japanese, Norwegian, Liberian, British, German and Swedish, in that order of volume.

B. C. SOLARI of Belvedere has been re-elected president and general manager of United Vintners. He reports that wine sales so far this year are up 5 per cent over last year, with a great demand for champagne, vermouth and brandy. But he estimates this year's grape crop will be about 13 per cent less than last year, due to excessive rains.

Barnett Named New President Of Northwestern Savings-Loan

James W. Barnett has been appointed new president of Northwestern Savings and Loan Association.

The announcement was made by Warren Brown Jr., vice chairman of the board, who said that Mrs. Esther M. Dearth, president of Northwestern since last April and the firm's managing officer for many years, has decided to retire. He said that when he and his associates purchased Northwestern in May, Mrs. Dearth had agreed to remain with the company for a temporary "transistion period." Barnett, 35, comes to Northwestern from Tamalpais Savings and Loan, Corte Madera, where he has been manager, secretary and a member of the board.

LOAN CAREER

Member of an old Marin family which has maintained a home at Inverness since the early 1900s, Barnett began his career as a teller trainee at Santa Rosa Savings and Loan Association in 1956. In successive stages he became controller, loan officer and treasurer, leaving in 1962 ot become manager at Tamalpais Savings.

A graduate of Stanford University, he served as a first lieutenant with the U. S. Army Artillery from 1953 to 1956 and served as battalion operations officer. He is a member of the San Anselmo Rotary Club, a board member of the Corte Madera Chamber of Commerce, board member and past president of the Marin Stanford Club, past president of the North Bay Savings and Loan League and a past director of the Campfire Girls.

RESIGNATIONS

He, his wife Jean and their two sons, Charles, 8, and Michael, 5, live at 12 Ridgecrest Road, Kentfield.

With the retirement of Mrs. Dearth from Northwestern, her son Kevin appointed executive vice president last May and with the company since 1956, has also resigned.

Mrs. Dearth joined the company in 1943 as a bookkeeper and secretary to the organizer, S. W. Dayton. Her husband, R. Keith Dearth, who resigned as president last April because of ill health had been with the company since 1946. Under the management of the Dearths, Northwestern grew from assets of 14 million in 1958 to $47.7 million at Dec. 31, 1966.

Mrs. Dearth has been active in many community affairs around Marin County and has held offices in a number of organizations. She is a past president of the Marin Visitors Bureau, a former president of the Soroptimist Club of Marin and the Marin Toastmistress Club. She served two years as governor of the district Savings and Loan Controllers Association.

She and her family are now reported to be vacationing in Southern California.

S.P. Forming Air Freight Division

SAN FRANCISCO — Southern Pacific Co. has announced plans to inaugurate a domestic and international air freight forwarding business designed to bring the advantages of air freight to shippers in thousands of communities where it is not now readily available.

The San Francisco-based transportation company has filed incorporation papers for a new subsidiary, Southern Pacific Air Freight, Inc., to carry out the plan, and is asking the Civil Aeronautics Board for authority to put it into operation.

S.P.'s president, B. F. Biaggini, said his company plans to use the truck fleet of its motor carrier subsidiaries to pick up air shipments in numerous communities they now serve in 12 states, take them to airports, and turn consolidated shipments over to existing air carriers. At destination airports, trucks would pick up the shipments for delivery. The entire transaction would be handled under a single charge.

At cities not now served by Southern Pacific, both American and foreign, S.P.A.F. would provide arrangements to handle the pick-up and delivery of air freight shipments.

"Our trucking subsidiaries serve 63 regional airports and thousands of freight generating points surrounding them," Biaggini said.

In the past, he added, Southern Pacific has diversified into other forms of transport when it developed they could do the job better than rails.

Currently, in addition to trains, truck and piggy-back operations, it maintains refined petroleum product pipelines. It recently announced plans for a 275-mile coal slurry pipeline, the largest yet conceived.

Market Is Staging A Big Rally

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market mounted a strong rally today, moving ahead 10 points in the Dow Jones industrial average. Trading was heavy.

Blue chips and speculative issues moved up on a broad front.

The market topped the June 13 recovery high on an intraday basis and, if the gain were kept by the close, this would be a bullish technical signal.

The $9-billion rise in Gross National Product in the second quarter was interpreted by some analysts as a resumption of business expansion. Swift congressional action to end the nationwide railroadstrike was a tonic to business confidence.

Low-priced Atlas Corp. paced the list on volume, showing a fractional gain.

Among blue chips, General Low-priced AtlasCoaced rp.p Electric rose about 4½, while gains of about 2 were made by Chrysler, General Motors and Du Pont.

Ahead a point or so were American Standard, Glen Alden, Westinghouse Electric, U.S. Gypsum, United Aircraft, Zenith, Commonwealth Edison, Anaconda, Kennecott, Control Data and Chicago & North Western.

Prices were mostly higher on the American Stock Exchange.

Stockholder Vote Set On Selling

BAKERSFIELD (AP) — A spokesman for Kern County Land Co. of Bakersfield said stockholders in the firm will meet Monday in San Francisco to vote on an acquisition offer approved today by stockholders of the Tenneco Corp. of Houston Tex.

Tenneco shareholders today voted to buy the California based operation for $432 million, then operate it as a separate entity, utilizing present KCL management and employees.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

First Investment For Older Couple

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. "We are a couple 60 and 59 years of age. We have $4,000 and we would like to invest. This will be our first venture in stocks and we would appreciate your advice. We own our home, have $30,000 in savings and 240 acres of good land. Our income is very modest." H. R.

A. It seems to me that you should be warmly commended for doing so well on a modest income. Your land is presumably well situated and if this is so it affords a considerable degree of protection against inflation.

I believe that the $4,000 you have to invest should be placed in conservative issues with fairly good income, reasonable stability and some potential for long-term price appreciation. In this category I would place American Telephone, International Harvester and Continental Baking. I suggest that you divide your investment equally among these three stocks.

Q. "I have purchased stock in two corporations and asked to have the shares delivered to me. In both cases there has been a long delay. One issue I bought declared a stock dividend after my purchase with the record date a month later. Will I get these additional shares? Who will handle this, my broker or the company?" D. L., H. N.

A. Volume has been at a record pace and because of this there have been frequent and sometimes exasperating delays in delivery. If you bought your stock four business days before the record date, you are entitled to the stock dividend and it is your broker's responsibility to claim it for you. I assume that you are dealing with a reputable firm belonging to a national or regional exchange or to the National Association of Security Dealers. In this event you have nothing really to worry about, but you may have to push a little. If delays in delivery persist, I would get in touch with the managing partner or senior officer and make a formal demand.

Kern Land Firm To Combine With Tenneco

SAN FRANCISCO — Shareholders of Kern County Land Co. voted yesterday to combine the company with Tenneco Inc. Shareholders of Tenneco had approved the combination in a special meeting July 11.

In the combination of the companies, Tenneco is to exchange one share of a new convertible preference stock for each of Kern County Land Company's shares. The new stock will have a cumulative dividend of $5.50 per share and a liquidating value of $100 per share. Each share of the new stock will be convertible to 3.6 Tenneco common shares after July 1, 1969.

Kern County Land Co., founded in the 1870s, has major operations in oil production and oil royalties, land-use operations such as agriculture, cattle and real estate, and manufacturing such as automotive parts, electronics and agricultural machinery and construction equipment. Its net earnings last year were $22.71 million on revenues of $183,221,000.

Tenneco, which is based in Houston, started as Tennessee Gas and Transmission Co. and is still the nation's largest gas transmission company. That part of its business will now account for only about 25 per cent of its total income. It also has major operations in oil production, chemicals and packaging. Its net income last year was $108,118,000 on operating revenues of $1.164 million.

West Coast Offices Ship Lines Combine

SAN FRANCISCO — The American President Lines passenger offices in San Francisco and Los Angeles are now general agencies for United States Lines, Inc., which has closed its Pacific Coast offices.

American Pioneer Lines, an affiliate of U.S. Lines, will also be served for the territory involved, which includes California, Nevada, Arizona, New Mexico, Utah and the El Paso market in Texas.

OTHER PEOPLE'S BUSINESS

By HARRY CRAFT

Catania Sound Will Move, Expand San Rafael Store

About the middle of September, Catania Sound, which has been at 1541 Fourth Street for the past 10 years and longer than that in total years in downtown San Rafael, will have a new Fourth Street address in a more active segment of the city's shopping area.

Charles Catania has leased the quarters at 857 Fourth Street (where the Mr. K restaurant used to be) and will remodel to establish an elaborate retail store handling records, tapes, radio, sound, stereo and high fidelity equipment. This type of operation has not been possible at the present location. Ed Kingsland of Redmond Realty and Richard Oesterman of Capital Assistance and Mortgage Co. handled the lease transaction.

There will be a service department at the rear of the store, with customer drive-in and pick-up facilities at the back of the building.

Heretofore Catania has dealt exclusively in custom sound installations. This will open up for it an entirely new field of merchandising. Custom work will continue, of course, and offices, drafting and engineering departments probably will be headquartered upstairs at 912 Lootens Place nearby. This is in the building where Marin County Office Equipment used to be.

Catania will undoubtedly observe the Wednesday evening hours of other stores in this busy area and perhaps have other evening openings.

DR. P. R. BALLINGER of San Rafael has been appointed senior research engineer in the fuel additives section at the Richmond laboratory of Chevron Research Co. He has been with Chevron since 1959 and has made important contributions to the company's fundamental combustion research program.

Ballinger Goebel

NEWLY ELECTED as president of the Red Hill Shopping Center Merchants Association, San Anselmo, is Richard Goebel, owner of the Hickory Farms of Ohio store. Cleon Tilman, manager of the Safeway Store is vice president; Don Furbush of Grubb and Ellis, the shopping center developers, is secretary-treasurer. Richard Scott, manager of Longs Drug Store, and George Loizos, manager of the Pepperwood coffee shop and lounge, were named directors.

REDWOOD NATIONAL BANK is now displaying the paintings of C. Wolpert at its San Rafael offices. The showing will continue through all of July.

June's 860 ship movements through the Golden Gate were off slightly from the May total of 892 (a near record) — but above the 843 ship movements of a year ago.

Arrivals totaled 430 and the same number of ships sailed away. About 43 per cent of them carried foreign flags — the majority being Japanese, Norwegian, Liberian, British, German and Swedish, in that order of volume.

B. C. SOLARI of Belvedere has been re-elected president and general manager of United Vintners. He reports that wine sales so far this year are up 5 per cent over last year, with a great demand for champagne, vermouth and brandy. But he estimates this year's grape crop will be about 13 per cent less than last year, due to excessive rains.

Barnett Named New President Of Northwestern Savings-Loan

James W. Barnett has been appointed new president of Northwestern Savings and Loan Association.

The announcement was made by Warren Brown Jr., vice chairman of the board, who said that Mrs. Esther M. Dearth, president of Northwestern since last April and the firm's managing officer for many years, has decided to retire. He said that when he and his associates purchased Northwestern in May, Mrs. Dearth had agreed to remain with the company for a temporary "transistion period." Barnett, 35, comes to Northwestern from Tamalpais Savings and Loan, Corte Madera, where he has been manager, secretary and a member of the board.

LOAN CAREER

Member of an old Marin family which has maintained a home at Inverness since the early 1900s, Barnett began his career as a teller trainee at Santa Rosa Savings and Loan Association in 1956. In successive stages he became controller, loan officer and treasurer, leaving in 1962 ot become manager at Tamalpais Savings.

A graduate of Stanford University, he served as a first lieutenant with the U. S. Army Artillery from 1953 to 1956 and served as battalion operations officer. He is a member of the San Anselmo Rotary Club, a board member of the Corte Madera Chamber of Commerce, board member and past president of the Marin Stanford Club, past president of the North Bay Savings and Loan League and a past director of the Campfire Girls.

RESIGNATIONS

He, his wife Jean and their two sons, Charles, 8, and Michael, 5, live at 12 Ridgecrest Road, Kentfield.

With the retirement of Mrs. Dearth from Northwestern, her son Kevin appointed executive vice president last May and with the company since 1956, has also resigned.

Retires from Northwestern

JAMES W. BARNETT
New Northwestern president

Mrs. Dearth joined the company in 1943 as a bookkeeper and secretary to the organizer, S. W. Dayton. Her husband, R. Keith Dearth, who resigned as president last April because of ill health had been with the company since 1946. Under the management of the Dearths, Northwestern grew from assets of 14 million in 1958 to $47.7 million at Dec. 31, 1966.

Mrs. Dearth has been active in many community affairs around Marin County and has held offices in a number of organizations. She is a past president of the Marin Visitors Bureau, a former president of the Soroptimist Club of Marin and the Marin Toastmistress Club. She served two years as governor of the district Savings and Loan Controllers Association.

She and her family are now reported to be vacationing in Southern California.

S.P. Forming Air Freight Division

SAN FRANCISCO — Southern Pacific Co. has announced plans to inaugurate a domestic and international air freight forwarding business designed to bring the advantages of air freight to shippers in thousands of communities where it is not now readily available.

The San Francisco-based transportation company has filed incorporation papers for a new subsidiary, Southern Pacific Air Freight, Inc., to carry out the plan, and is asking the Civil Aeronautics Board for authority to put it into operation.

S.P.'s president, B. F. Biaggini, said his company plans to use the truck fleet of its motor carrier subsidiaries to pick up air shipments in numerous communities they now serve in 12 states, take them to airports, and turn consolidated shipments over to existing air carriers. At destination airports, trucks would pick up the shipments for delivery. The entire transaction would be handled under a single charge.

At cities not now served by Southern Pacific, both American and foreign, S.P.A.F. would provide arrangements to handle the pick-up and delivery of air freight shipments.

"Our trucking subsidiaries serve 63 regional airports and thousands of freight generating points surrounding them," Biaggini said.

In the past, he added, Southern Pacific has diversified into other forms of transport when it developed they could do the job better than rails.

Currently, in addition to trains, truck and piggy-back operations, it maintains refined petroleum product pipelines. It recently announced plans for a 275-mile coal slurry pipeline, the largest yet conceived.

Market Is Staging A Big Rally

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market mounted a strong rally today, moving ahead 10 points in the Dow Jones industrial average. Trading was heavy.

Blue chips and speculative issues moved up on a broad front.

The market topped the June 13 recovery high on an intraday basis and, if the gain were kept by the close, this would be a bullish technical signal.

The $9-billion rise in Gross National Product in the second quarter was interpreted by some analysts as a resumption of business expansion. Swift congressional action to end the nationwide railroadstrike was a tonic to business confidence.

Low-priced Atlas Corp. paced the list on volume, showing a fractional gain.

Among blue chips, General Low-priced AtlasCoaced rp.p Electric rose about 4½, while gains of about 2 were made by Chrysler, General Motors and Du Pont.

Ahead a point or so were American Standard, Glen Alden, Westinghouse Electric, U.S. Gypsum, United Aircraft, Zenith, Commonwealth Edison, Anaconda, Kennecott, Control Data and Chicago & North Western.

Prices were mostly higher on the American Stock Exchange.

Stockholder Vote Set On Selling

BAKERSFIELD (AP) — A spokesman for Kern County Land Co. of Bakersfield said stockholders in the firm will meet Monday in San Francisco to vote on an acquisition offer approved today by stockholders of the Tenneco Corp. of Houston Tex.

Tenneco shareholders today voted to buy the California based operation for $432 million, then operate it as a separate entity, utilizing present KCL management and employees.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

First Investment For Older Couple

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. "We are a couple 60 and 59 years of age. We have $4,000 and we would like to invest. This will be our first venture in stocks and we would appreciate your advice. We own our home, have $30,000 in savings and 240 acres of good land. Our income is very modest." H. R.

A. It seems to me that you should be warmly commended for doing so well on a modest income. Your land is presumably well situated and if this is so it affords a considerable degree of protection against inflation.

I believe that the $4,000 you have to invest should be placed in conservative issues with fairly good income, reasonable stability and some potential for long-term price appreciation. In this category I would place American Telephone, International Harvester and Continental Baking. I suggest that you divide your investment equally among these three stocks.

Q. "I have purchased stock in two corporations and asked to have the shares delivered to me. In both cases there has been a long delay. One issue I bought declared a stock dividend after my purchase with the record date a month later. Will I get these additional shares? Who will handle this, my broker or the company?" D. L., H. N.

A. Volume has been at a record pace and because of this there have been frequent and sometimes exasperating delays in delivery. If you bought your stock four business days before the record date, you are entitled to the stock dividend and it is your broker's responsibility to claim it for you. I assume that you are dealing with a reputable firm belonging to a national or regional exchange or to the National Association of Security Dealers. In this event you have nothing really to worry about, but you may have to push a little. If delays in delivery persist, I would get in touch with the managing partner or senior officer and make a formal demand.

Kern Land Firm To Combine With Tenneco

SAN FRANCISCO — Shareholders of Kern County Land Co. voted yesterday to combine the company with Tenneco Inc. Shareholders of Tenneco had approved the combination in a special meeting July 11.

In the combination of the companies, Tenneco is to exchange one share of a new convertible preference stock for each of Kern County Land Company's shares. The new stock will have a cumulative dividend of $5.50 per share and a liquidating value of $100 per share. Each share of the new stock will be convertible to 3.6 Tenneco common shares after July 1, 1969.

Kern County Land Co., founded in the 1870s, has major operations in oil production and oil royalties, land-use operations such as agriculture, cattle and real estate; and manufacturing such as automotive parts, electronics and agricultural machinery and construction equipment. Its net earnings last year were $22.71 million on revenues of $183,221,000.

Tenneco, which is based in Houston, started as Tennessee Gas and Transmission Co. and is still the nation's largest gas transmission company. That part of its business will now account for only about 25 per cent of its total income. It also has major operations in oil production, chemicals and packaging. Its net income last year was $108,118,000 on operating revenues of $1.164 million.

West Coast Offices Ship Lines Combine

SAN FRANCISCO — The American President Lines passenger offices in San Francisco and Los Angeles are now general agencies for United States Lines, Inc., which has closed its Pacific Coast offices.

American Pioneer Lines, an affiliate of U.S. Lines, will also be served for the territory involved, which includes California, Nevada, Arizona, New Mexico, Utah and the El Paso market in Texas.

Each Individual Can Do Something About Litter

When litter baskets were installed several years ago on San Rafael street corners, the hope was that pedestrians would develop the habit of using the litter containers instead of dumping their rubbish on sidewalks, streets or gutters.

The litter baskets are being used by the thoughtful. Walk along Fourth Street almost any time of day, and you can spot people walking the short distance to one of the conveniently located baskets to deposit their gum or candy wrappers or paper bags.

But for every pedestrian who has developed the anti-litter habit, there is another who continues to drop his wrappings wherever he happens to be at the time. Even those driving by in automobiles can be seen tossing scraps of paper, wrappings or cigarette butts out of the car windows.

Controlling of air and water pollution is a job too large and involved for each of us to tackle individually. Bay Area agencies have been set up to police the polluters of air and water.

But the pollution of streets, highways and recreation areas through indiscriminate littering is something that is within the control of individuals and families.

This is the time of season when litter offenders are most rampant. People are on the move, hiking, driving, picnicking, trail riding, and camping.

They will be toting beer and soft drink bottles, cans, boxes and cartons into the beaches and parks. Many of the disposable carstons are made of synthetics that do not disintegrate with weather and will remain a permanent scar on the natural landscape.

We hope more of our citizens will develop the habit of using litter baskets on San Rafael's Fourth Street, and that these habits will not be forgotten when families get out on the open highways this summer.

Carry a trash bag in your car and use it. After using picnic and camp grounds, leave a clean camp and clean picnic table for the next family. Make vacation more enjoyable for yourselves and your fellow citizens.

UNUSUAL GENEROSITY FOR FIRE VICTIMS

A kind-hearted bus line employee gave away his apartment to a homeless family in New York City when a blaze destroyed their home and belongings.

Hearing from a social worker friend of the family's plight, the 26-year-old Greyhound Lines employee did what came "automatically" — he offered his own apartment to the stranded family.

"They had no place to stay, and no clothes," he commented. "I have seen a lot of cases of this sort and just felt it was my turn to do a good turn. I just wanted to do my part like anybody else."

As for his own plans, he said: "I guess I'll room with a friend for the time being."

The refreshing part of this man's action is the matter-of-fact way in which he put himself to great inconvenience for a family he didn't even know.

The brotherhood of man under God's fatherly care provides solid promise of a peaceful future. If enough individuals can be motivated to share with those in need, there is hope for the world.

New Law On Horse Racing Likely To Have Court Tests

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Almost all controversial measures adopted by the state Legislature in which a great deal of money is involved, usually wind up in the courts, and apparently, AB 1082, the horse racing bill, will not be an exception.

The measure, by Assemblyman Bob Moretti, D-North Hollywood, provides for night racing and additional days of racing. It has been signed into law by Gov. Ronald Reagan and because of an urgency clause, there is no opportunity of a referdum.

TWO ALTERNATIVES remain for opponents of the measure. The first is the filing of a suit to determine constitutionality of the urgency clause, and the second is a state-wide initiative to repeal all or any portion of the bill as adopted by the Legislature.

The governor, when he signed the bill, indicated he was not wholly satisfied with it because of the provision for night racing. The churches are moving to scuttle the measure.

So it appears that if the court does not work, and not many think it will, the public will have a chance to vote next year on whether it wants night harness racing and additional days of racing or not.

SOME CRITICISM of proponents of the measure has been made on the ground there was no necessity for the urgency clause, making the bill effective immediately on signing. The state has operated a good many years without additional days of horse racing, and night harness racing, so it is a good question as to why it suddenly becomes vital to the public health, welfare and safety to have it effective immediately.

However, this appears to be more or less a minor matter when the over-all scope of horse racing is taken into consideration.

THE LARGER ISSUE, if it ever comes to a vote of the people, will be that if California is going to have horse racing at all, why should it be confined to daytime racing of thoroughbreds?

Originally the constitutional amendment which authorized pari-mutuel betting at the races was sold to the people on the grounds that the betting was necessary to "upgrade thoroughbread breeding."

So if the parimutuels were good for the thoroughbred industry, why not for standardbreds as well? Harness racing has been virtually eliminated from the more popular tracks until there are only about two or three breeding farms in the state, which is evidence enough that this particular phase of the horse racing industry needs a shot in the arm.

THEN TOO, it is a well known fact that the matter of competition between various forms of night entertainment enters into the picture. The theaters consider that the more people who attend night racing events will result in less people attending the movies.

Also, there is the matter of revenue to the state. The new law, it is estimated, will bring in about $13 million more a year than is being obtained now from the state's share of the pari-mutuels, which is not an inconsiderable sum.

THE MAJOR decision, however, will be as to the degree of gambling. It might be considered slightly hypocritical to allow gambling on one phase of horse racing and not on another.

Ballet Aquacade's Impact Is Reviewed

Editor, Independent-Journal:

When Mrs. Fred Enemark approached us four years ago about our participation in the Marin Ballet Aquacade and becoming the recipient of its net proceeds, we hardly began to realize the tremendous effect of this endeavor, both on our school as well as on the total community.

This year, under the presidency of Mrs. Monte Ambinder, with the assistance of Mrs. David S. Bordner, Mrs. William Corrigan and Mrs. Robert Alvarado, the Marin Ballet Aquacade's presentation has surpassed all others. Thousands of spectators, the hundreds of young participants, and many community leaders and technical advisors to the show have taken an active part in producing and viewing this show, a cultural landmark in the County, while they rendered at the same time assistance to orthopedically handicapped children enrolled at Marindale School.

The proceeds of the past three years have been used to create and equip an individual learning center at Marindale School to make it possible to provide individualized instruction through the use of equipment specificially designed for the needs of handicapped children. The proceeds of this year's Aquacade will be used to provide additional equipment and improve the playground facilities for special training of handicapped children.

We wish to express our deep appreciation, not only to the many spectators, participants, and organizers, but also the news media, in particular the Independent-Journal and Radio Station KTIM, which have so generously given of their time and space in informing the community of this most worthy enterprise. Our highest respect and sincere gratitude go to all.

Hike Taxes To Help Ambulance Service

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Last week I read that an automobile accident occurred in San Rafael and the injured person waited and suffered for 30 minutes before an ambulance arrived. By the time the ambulance got to the hospital, which incidentally was only one mile away, and the pain was relieved, it must have been over one hour. Anyone will agree that this is horrible.

If private ambulance companies cannot operate at a propanies cannot operate at a profit in Marin, then they should raise their charges or the conty should subsidize them. It would be better to pay a few more pennies in taxes than to lie on the highway suffering for 30 minutes.

If we can afford moonshots and napalm to kill people, we should also be generous to those who are accidentally hurt and may be lying and suffering on some highway waiting for an ambulance and relief that never seems to come.

Facts Ignored In Jerusalem Case

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The present self-righteous unanimity of the United Nations regarding Jerusalem's status is an irrational futility. They have all apparently agreed to ignore two simple facts.

1. Jordan conquered old Jerusalem by force 19 years ago, in violation of the United Nations edict. There was no protest from the U.N.

2. For 19 years of Jordanian occupation no Jew was allowed to visit its religious shrines. Since the unification of last month under Israeli administration, there has been unlimited access to all.

All U.N. cease-fires in the Middle East since 1948 simply saved the Arabs from more extensive military disasters. No one believes that the Arabs would have been restrained had they won. There would undoubtedly have been some platitudes about humane treatment of children (the men and women would have received the Nazi "solution." Perhaps in a "humane" gesture the Sixth Fleet might have agreed to evacuate some of the remnants from Tel Aviv and Haifa (to where?).

The U.N. can vent its spleen on Israel, because it is small and has no reliable friends. The crimes of the great powers of the world go untouched because they are the judges and the directors, and because the U.N. is helpless when they disagree.

How About CARE Try For Poor In U.S.?

Editor, Independent-Journal:

A suggestion I heard recently struck me as about the best I've heard in a long time.

It is that we ask for CARE packages for the people who are in need and starving in the United States (from other countries, about all of them) especially Europe and Asia. Oh, well, you know who.

Don't you think it's about time we got started on that?

TRY AND STOP ME

By BENNETT CERF

A DRUGSTORE customer bought a bottle designed, according to its label, "To prevent colds and coughs." Next day the brought the bottle back, complaining, "My cold's worse than ever, though I drank the whole bottle full of the foul stuff." Drank it!" gasped the druggist. "That stuff's a rubber solution for keeping your shoe soles dry!"

THE SUPERB English D'Oyly-Carte theatrical troupe has played the Gilbect and Sullivan repertoire so often that the principals undoubtedly can recite the lines backwards and forwards in their sleep. One evening, the then current star tenor of the company, James Hay, was playing his part so automatically that he suddenly forgot which Gilbert and Sullivan operatta he was performing and slipped painlessly into the routine of the next noght's bill! The other actor onstage promptly picked up the wrong cue, and to the considerable surprise of the audience there followed a superb rendition of an entire scene from the wrong play.

At long last Mr. Hay realized the error of his plays. "Dear me," he cried. "I do believe we're in the wrong opera!" Quite calmly, the two resourceful actors began the scene all over again.

PSYCHIATRIST TO patient: "You're quite right. A man IS following you constantly. He's trying to collect the $200 you owe me."

Did LBJ Call News Conference To Show Westmoreland Support?

WASHINGTON (AP) — Take your choice between slow and tremendous.

When Robert S. McNamara, secretary of defense, went to Vietnam last week to confer with the American commander, Gen. William C. Westmoreland, the general told him: "The war is not a stalemate. We are winning slowly but steadily."

The North Vietnamese were the ones who called the war a stalemate.

THIS COUNTRY has about 465,000 men in Vietnam and Westmoreland reportedly wanted 100,000 to 140,000 more. Word began to drift back from Saigon that McNamara thought Westmoreland's figures too high.

Then the general's mother died in South Carolina and he flew there for the funeral. McNamara returned, too. Thursday the two men, together with President Johnson, had a news conference at the White House.

None of them would reveal how many more men Westmoreland will get or, for that matter, exactly how many he requested. If it's true, as reported, that he wanted 100,000 to 140,000 he seems unlikely to get them.

IF THERE WERE differences between Westmoreland and the Johnson administration the President sewed them together and put a shine on them.

He said: "We have reached a meeting of the minds."

But Johnson seemed irked by the North Vietnamese description of the war as a stalemate, a contradiction of Westmoreland's modest claim about a slow but steady victory.

Midway through the news conference the President told the general:

"I wonder if you could tell us what we have done in the last year an may expect in the next year, very briefly. Touch on this 'stalemate' creature."

WESMORELAND promptly appeared more optimistic than he did in Saigon when talking to McNamara. "The statement we are in a stalemate is completely unrealistic."

Since Westmoreland has never said publicly exactly how many men he originally thought he needed, it is not clear whether he has been talked into taking less. Johnson's phrase about the "meeting of the minds" could be interpreted that way.

But what does seem clear is that the Johnson administration is trying to stick to a rule it laid down on military manpower last November before Westmoreland's present call for more troops.

AT THAT TIME McNamara, looking ahead to 1967, said draft calls would be lower this year than in 1966. He repeated this Thursday. He also said something else last November.

It was this: While about 200,000 men were shipped to Vietnam in 1966, "the increase next year will be nothing of that order." And so far the figures bear him out.

By the end of 1966 there were 389,000 Americans in Vietnam. Now there are about 465,000, an increase of 76,000 with 1967 more than half over. Johnson and McNamara have made it plain another 20,000 to 30,000 would certainly be sent.

But they are deliberately vague on how many more will go after that.

One thing is certain: When Westmoreland publicly agreed to Johnson's statement that he will get the force he recommended he will never be able to blame Washington if it turns out he doesn't have enough.

JOHNSON DID not explain why he called the news conference. Perhaps its only purpose was to inform the public. Or, it may have been to thwart any criticism, now or later, that he wasn't fully backing Westmoreland.

Educators' Publicity Faces Congress' Ax

By ROBERT S. ALLEN

WASHINGTON — The Senate holds the fate of one of the most remarkable government-financed "experimental" programs to come to light in a long time.

Titled Project Public Information (PPI) its underlying aim is to train publicity agents and to demonstrate to state educational officials the possibilities of press agentry and its techniques.

THIS UNIQUE ACTIVITY had been under way since 1965, under Section 503 of the approximately $1 billion Higher Education Act. Section 503 empowers the U.S. Office of Education to initiate and largely finance 15 experimental education programs. PPI is one of them. The first year it cost $264,000; the second, $384,000; and about the same is earmarked for the current fiscal year — if Section 503 survives.

It won't under an amendment by Rep. Edith Green, D-Ore., overwhelming passed by the House last month. If the Senate concurs, that will mean the end of extraordinary "Project Public Information."

Top officials bossing PPI's wide-ranging operations to train publicity agents and promote educational press agentry are:

RICHARD GRAY, associate professor on leave from Medill School of Journalism, Northwestern University, director of PPI. Harry Selden, a former newsman, is chief of program support and department of the Office of Education, and that agency's coordinator for PPI.

A splashy, multi-colored 20-page booklet, put out by PPI, euphemistically proclaims its intent is to "assist state departments of education in making better use of all means of communication and in carrying on a more meaningful dialogue with the public."

"This is not press agentry or publicity work," Selden maintains. "It's merely keeping the public informed. They have a right to know; indeed, the need to know. . ."

According to Selden, citizens are constantly being asked to vote on many millions of dollars of school bonds. His clear implication is that if the public is "properly informed" by skilled "information officials," it would be better able to decide what to do about such bond issues.

"We take industry's attitude — that public relations is an integral part of good management."

Project Public Information is engaged in a long list of activities and enterprises.

They range from putting out a variety of publications to operating a so-called "Communicar."

Selden is frankly unhappy about Representative Green's amendment which would axe PPI.

The ranking member of the House Education and Labor Committee is highly critical of this and other costly "experimental educational programs." She feels that is not the purpose of the Higher Education Act. Selden disagrees.

"It would be a pity to let any of these programs die," he laments.

If Mrs. Green has her determined way, they will all be wiped out — for an over-all saving of some $22 million to taxpayers.

Originally the constitutional amendment which authorized pari-mutuel betting at the races was sold to the people on the grounds that the betting was necessary to "upgrade thoroughbread breeding."

So if the parimutuels were good for the thoroughbred industry, why not for standardbreds as well? Harness racing has been virtually eliminated from the more popular tracks until there are only about two or three breeding farms in the state, which is evidence enough that this particular phase of the horse racing industry needs a shot in the arm.

THEN TOO, it is a well known fact that the matter of competition between various forms of night entertainment enters into the picture. The theaters consider that the more people who attend night racing events will result in less people attending the movies.

Also, there is the matter of revenue to the state. The new law, it is estimated, will bring in about $13 million more a year than is being obtained now from the state's share of the pari-mutuels, which is not an inconsiderable sum.

THE MAJOR decision, however, will be as to the degree of gambling. It might be considered slightly hypocritical to allow gambling on one phase of horse racing and not on another.

Ballet Aquacade's Impact Is Reviewed

Editor, Independent-Journal:

When Mrs. Fred Enemark approached us four years ago about our participation in the Marin Ballet Aquacade and becoming the recipient of its net proceeds, we hardly began to realize the tremendous effect of this endeavor, both on our school as well as on the total community.

This year, under the presidency of Mrs. Monte Ambinder, with the assistance of Mrs. David S. Bordner, Mrs. William Corrigan and Mrs. Robert Alvarado, the Marin Ballet Aquacade's presentation has surpassed all others. Thousands of spectators, the hundreds of young participants, and many community leaders and technical advisors to the show have taken an active part in producing and viewing this show, a cultural landmark in the County, while they rendered at the same time assistance to orthopedically handicapped children enrolled at Marindale School.

The proceeds of the past three years have been used to create and equip an individual learning center at Marindale School to make it possible to provide individualized instruction through the use of equipment specificially designed for the needs of handicapped children. The proceeds of this year's Aquacade will be used to provide additional equipment and improve the playground facilities for special training of handicapped children.

We wish to express our deep appreciation, not only to the many spectators, participants, and organizers, but also the news media, in particular the Independent-Journal and Radio Station KTIM, which have so generously given of their time and space in informing the community of this most worthy enterprise. Our highest respect and sincere gratitude go to all.

Hike Taxes To Help Ambulance Service

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Last week I read that an automobile accident occurred in San Rafael and the injured person waited and suffered for 30 minutes before an ambulance arrived. By the time the ambulance got to the hospital, which incidentally was only one mile away, and the pain was relieved, it must have been over one hour. Anyone will agree that this is horrible.

If private ambulance companies cannot operate at a propanies cannot operate at a profit in Marin, then they should raise their charges or the conty should subsidize them. It would be better to pay a few more pennies in taxes than to lie on the highway suffering for 30 minutes.

If we can afford moonshots and napalm to kill people, we should also be generous to those who are accidentally hurt and may be lying and suffering on some highway waiting for an ambulance and relief that never seems to come.

Facts Ignored In Jerusalem Case

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The present self-righteous unanimity of the United Nations regarding Jerusalem's status is an irrational futility. They have all apparently agreed to ignore two simple facts.

1. Jordan conquered old Jerusalem by force 19 years ago, in violation of the United Nations edict. There was no protest from the U.N.

2. For 19 years of Jordanian occupation no Jew was allowed to visit its religious shrines. Since the unification of last month under Israeli administration, there has been unlimited access to all.

All U.N. cease-fires in the Middle East since 1948 simply saved the Arabs from more extensive military disasters. No one believes that the Arabs would have been restrained had they won. There would undoubtedly have been some platitudes about humane treatment of children (the men and women would have received the Nazi "solution." Perhaps in a "humane" gesture the Sixth Fleet might have agreed to evacuate some of the remnants from Tel Aviv and Haifa (to where?).

The U.N. can vent its spleen on Israel, because it is small and has no reliable friends. The crimes of the great powers of the world go untouched because they are the judges and the directors, and because the U.N. is helpless when they disagree.

How About CARE Try For Poor In U.S.?

Editor, Independent-Journal:

A suggestion I heard recently struck me as about the best I've heard in a long time.

It is that we ask for CARE packages for the people who are in need and starving in the United States (from other countries, about all of them) especially Europe and Asia. Oh, well, you know who.

Don't you think it's about time we got started on that?

TRY AND STOP ME

By BENNETT CERF

A DRUGSTORE customer bought a bottle designed, according to its label, "To prevent colds and coughs." Next day the brought the bottle back, complaining, "My cold's worse than ever, though I drank the whole bottle full of the foul stuff." Drank it!" gasped the druggist. "That stuff's a rubber solution for keeping your shoe soles dry!"

THE SUPERB English D'Oyly-Carte theatrical troupe has played the Gilbect and Sullivan repertoire so often that the principals undoubtedly can recite the lines backwards and forwards in their sleep. One evening, the then current star tenor of the company, James Hay, was playing his part so automatically that he suddenly forgot which Gilbert and Sullivan operatta he was performing and slipped painlessly into the routine of the next noght's bill! The other actor onstage promptly picked up the wrong cue, and to the considerable surprise of the audience there followed a superb rendition of an entire scene from the wrong play.

At long last Mr. Hay realized the error of his plays. "Dear me," he cried. "I do believe we're in the wrong opera!" Quite calmly, the two resourceful actors began the scene all over again.

PSYCHIATRIST TO patient: "You're quite right. A man IS following you constantly. He's trying to collect the $200 you owe me."

Did LBJ Call News Conference To Show Westmoreland Support?

WASHINGTON (AP) — Take your choice between slow and tremendous.

When Robert S. McNamara, secretary of defense, went to Vietnam last week to confer with the American commander, Gen. William C. Westmoreland, the general told him: "The war is not a stalemate. We are winning slowly but steadily."

The North Vietnamese were the ones who called the war a stalemate.

THIS COUNTRY has about 465,000 men in Vietnam and Westmoreland reportedly wanted 100,000 to 140,000 more. Word began to drift back from Saigon that McNamara thought Westmoreland's figures too high.

Then the general's mother died in South Carolina and he flew there for the funeral. McNamara returned, too. Thursday the two men, together with President Johnson, had a news conference at the White House.

None of them would reveal how many more men Westmoreland will get or, for that matter, exactly how many he requested. If it's true, as reported, that he wanted 100,000 to 140,000 he seems unlikely to get them.

IF THERE WERE differences between Westmoreland and the Johnson administration the President sewed them together and put a shine on them.

He said: "We have reached a meeting of the minds."

But Johnson seemed irked by the North Vietnamese description of the war as a stalemate, a contradiction of Westmoreland's modest claim about a slow but steady victory.

Midway through the news conference the President told the general:

"I wonder if you could tell us what we have done in the last year an may expect in the next year, very briefly. Touch on this 'stalemate' creature."

WESMORELAND promptly appeared more optimistic than he did in Saigon when talking to McNamara. "The statement we are in a stalemate is completely unrealistic."

Since Westmoreland has never said publicly exactly how many men he originally thought he needed, it is not clear whether he has been talked into taking less. Johnson's phrase about the "meeting of the minds" could be interpreted that way.

But what does seem clear is that the Johnson administration is trying to stick to a rule it laid down on military manpower last November before Westmoreland's present call for more troops.

AT THAT TIME McNamara, looking ahead to 1967, said draft calls would be lower this year than in 1966. He repeated this Thursday. He also said something else last November.

It was this: While about 200,000 men were shipped to Vietnam in 1966, "the increase next year will be nothing of that order." And so far the figures bear him out.

By the end of 1966 there were 389,000 Americans in Vietnam. Now there are about 465,000, an increase of 76,000 with 1967 more than half over. Johnson and McNamara have made it plain another 20,000 to 30,000 would certainly be sent.

But they are deliberately vague on how many more will go after that.

One thing is certain: When Westmoreland publicly agreed to Johnson's statement that he will get the force he recommended he will never be able to blame Washington if it turns out he doesn't have enough.

JOHNSON DID not explain why he called the news conference. Perhaps its only purpose was to inform the public. Or, it may have been to thwart any criticism, now or later, that he wasn't fully backing Westmoreland.

Educators' Publicity Faces Congress' Ax

By ROBERT S. ALLEN

WASHINGTON — The Senate holds the fate of one of the most remarkable government-financed "experimental" programs to come to light in a long time.

Titled Project Public Information (PPI) its underlying aim is to train publicity agents and to demonstrate to state educational officials the possibilities of press agentry and its techniques.

THIS UNIQUE ACTIVITY had been under way since 1965, under Section 503 of the approximately $1 billion Higher Education Act. Section 503 empowers the U.S. Office of Education to initiate and largely finance 15 experimental education programs. PPI is one of them. The first year it cost $264,000; the second, $384,000; and about the same is earmarked for the current fiscal year — if Section 503 survives.

It won't under an amendment by Rep. Edith Green, D-Ore., overwhelming passed by the House last month. If the Senate concurs, that will mean the end of extraordinary "Project Public Information."

Top officials bossing PPI's wide-ranging operations to train publicity agents and promote educational press agentry are:

RICHARD GRAY, associate professor on leave from Medill School of Journalism, Northwestern University, director of PPI. Harry Selden, a former newsman, is chief of program support and department of the Office of Education, and that agency's coordinator for PPI.

A splashy, multi-colored 20-page booklet, put out by PPI, euphemistically proclaims its intent is to "assist state departments of education in making better use of all means of communication and in carrying on a more meaningful dialogue with the public."

"This is not press agentry or publicity work," Selden maintains. "It's merely keeping the public informed. They have a right to know; indeed, the need to know. . ."

According to Selden, citizens are constantly being asked to vote on many millions of dollars of school bonds. His clear implication is that if the public is "properly informed" by skilled "information officials," it would be better able to decide what to do about such bond issues.

"We take industry's attitude — that public relations is an integral part of good management."

Project Public Information is engaged in a long list of activities and enterprises.

They range from putting out a variety of publications to operating a so-called "Communicar."

Selden is frankly unhappy about Representative Green's amendment which would axe PPI.

The ranking member of the House Education and Labor Committee is highly critical of this and other costly "experimental educational programs." She feels that is not the purpose of the Higher Education Act. Selden disagrees.

"It would be a pity to let any of these programs die," he laments.

If Mrs. Green has her determined way, they will all be wiped out — for an over-all saving of some $22 million to taxpayers.

Just Whose 'Advice' Did LBJ Get In Congo Mission Junket?

The U.S. Constitution is getting to be like the weather in that everybody talks about it but nobody does anything about it. I have often suggested to peaceniks who cite First Amendment in defense of their demonstrations that they also read Section 2 of Article II. There they will find that the President is commander-in-chief of our armed forces, not Bayard Rustin nor even Dr. Spock.

These who argue that LBJ acted unconstitutionally and on his own in Vietnam conveniently forget that in 1964 Congress overwhelmingly gave him carte blanche — as it had given Ike in re Red China — in dealing with Vietcong aggression.

AND THOUGH SOME legislative doves were confident the Senate would reverse its 1964 resolution as a result of the Vietnam hearings in early 1966 — which the public saw and heard on TV — nothing came of it. If anything, the President's hand was strengthened by that debate.

But, in sending to the Congo three C-130 Hercules transport planes and 150 men — described as non-combatants, but certainly not government bureaucrats out on a junket — to give logistic support to Mobutu's forces, just whose "advice and consent" did LBJ seek? Certainly not the Senate's — for the repercussions already make it clear he would have been turned down cold.

IN THIS AUTOCRATIC and potentially dangerous action, he finds not only the legislative doves but the most hawkish of hawks arrayed against him — and, it is my guess, 90 per cent of the grass roots. LBJ, who so delights in polls, might twist George Gallup's arm to persuade him to sample something other than the President's popularity for a spell.

The doves' reasons need hardly be stated — you've them all — and the sad truth is that this Congo adventure will only serve to strenghten their arguments. In fact, it is a veritable God-send to them.

But the hawks, it is clear, think that one war at a time is enough — especially when we're still a long way from victory. Some 11,000 Americans have already died in Vietnam, and General Westmoreland has asked for 100,000 more troops. If we had three C-130's and 150 logisticians available, why the devil weren't they sent to Vietnam to help our own boys instead of Mobutu?

IT CAN HARDLY be pleaded — as it can in re Vietnam — that American interests are at stake in the Congo. The domino theory has no more application here than it has in Nigeria. Thailand, Australia and the Philippines will be safe even if Mobutu falls.

At this rate, we could be led into 100 wars — and lose them all. For American mothers simply cannot breed enough sons to fight effectively all over the globe. And Mr. Johnson was elected President of the United States, not the ruler of the universe.

LBJ is not Alexander the Great — and even that famous conqueror didn't go searching for new wars until he had finished the old. He did not scatter his forces over vast areas, nor did he fight with one hand behind his back.

If I read him right, the Macedonian champion's motto was "One war at a time — and give it all you have." Had he lived, I think it might have gotten him a second term.

(PURELEY PERSONAL — I'm far from caught up with the mail that piled up during a two-week absence from home, so I ask the indulgence readers who sent queries (with stamped, self-addressed envelopes) and of utility companies (which sent only bills) if I'm even more dilatory than usual.

How The Younger Generation Beat The Recent Heat Wave

During the recent hot spell, it was fun to watch how the next generation beat the heat.

One of our neighbors tied a hose in a tree. Where the spray of water from the nozzle hit the ground, she put down a big sheet of plastic. The water soon collected on it, making an excellent slide. Many of the neighborhood children would run and dive toward the sheet of plastic, sliding in a spray of water, just as though they were water skiing on their bellies or posteriors. It really looked like fun.

All over Novato, and elsewhere I presume, one could observe the children as they played in the streams of water. The gutters ran full of water almost as though it was raining.

I remember the first summer I was in Novato. The North Marin County Water District was dependent entirely on Stafford Lake for water and it was running low.

District officials asked that water be conserved. Gardens and lawns were allowed to dry up because of the shortage of water. All that has been changed now since the district constructed the aqueduct to connect with the Russian River water supply.

WE GOT TO wondering about the inefficiency in our use of water. All the water that was poured onto gardens and lawns, plus the gallons wasted by the children keeping cool, was all purified to drinking standards.

We wondered if pure water would someday become such a costly item that there would be two distribution systems. One would be for domestic use and be kept at the present high rate of purity. The other could be for uses such as watering lawns, gardens and commercial use. This system would not need to go to the expense of purifying the water. It could be distributed cheaper. In fact, eventually the second system could one day use reclaimed water, thus really making a savings.

North Marin was also lucky during the heat. There was no high wind and although the fire hazard was great, it did not have any major grass fires during the time.

COMPLAINTS STILL come in about dogs roaming all over Novato. When this was mentioned last March in this column, a great many people phoned or wrote that they felt that something should be done to control the dogs.

Generally people are angry at the dogs for roaming through yards and gardens and leaving their messes in someone else's yard. There have also been many too many cases of dogs killing sheep.

At the time of the first mention of this, we heard of a proposed city ordinance in which the police could cite the owners of dogs who allowed them to roam. It's a dog's nature to roam, so they cannot be blamed. It is their masters who are at fault. The humane society cannot catch all of the dogs because they usually are let out late at night or early in the morning.

However, if the owner of a dog was given a ticket which would cost him a few dollars, then he would make a better attempt to keep his dog under control. Anyway, it might improve the situation.

THE GIRLS in the classified advertising department at the Novato bureau of the Independent-Journal have taken to eating fruit instead of pastry during their so-called coffee breaks.

The repairmen examined the set and found a little substance blocking the small mouthpiece of the set. He said it looked like it was ear wax, but he could not understand how it could get down on the mouthpiece.

"THEY'LL NEVER believe it at the main office, so I'll just report that I repaired the set," he said to his companion as they left.

He probably would have found it more incredible to learn that it was nectarine eaten while the girls used the head sets.

Ridiculous? Not at all!

In no time at all he will be graduating from college. And it's not a day too soon to be making sure that adequate funds will be available when they are needed. At today's average cost of about $2500 per year, your child will need at least $10,000 for a college education. Here are expenses of typical colleges and universities:

EASTERN PRIVATE SCHOOLS		EASTERN STATE SCHOOLS
Harvard	$3,350	Penn State	$2,385*
Wellesley	$3,200	Connecticut	$1,950*
Columbia	$3,500	Rhode Island	$1,950*
MIDWEST PRIVATE SCHOOLS		MIDWEST STATE SCHOOLS
Northwestern	$3,270	Indiana U.	$1,750*
Notre Dame	$2,550	U. of Michigan	$2,250*
U. of Detroit	$1,950	U. of Illinois	$2,161*
WESTERN PRIVATE SCHOOLS		WESTERN STATE SCHOOLS
Stanford	$3,000	U. of California	$1,700*
U.O.P.	$2,295	U. of Washington	$1,800*
U. of Denver	$2,600	U. of Colorado	$2,000*
SOUTHERN PRIVATE SCHOOLS		SOUTHERN STATE SCHOOLS
Florida Southern	$2,100	Louisiana State	$1,780*
Tulane	$2,700	Florida State U.	$1,800*
Baylor	$1,950	Texas Tech.	$1,175*

*figures shown are for out-of-state students living on campus and include room, board, tuition and additional expenses, but do not include travel expenses. Residents of the state in which the university is located pay less tuition.

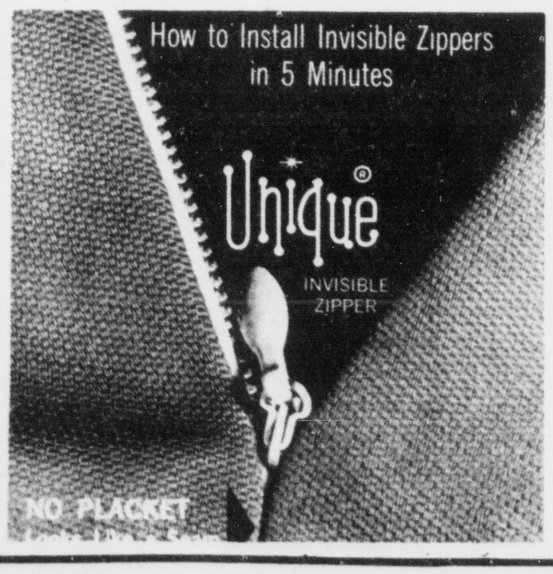
UNIQUE ZIPPERS

Here is the Unique Zipper Foot that does it!



Simply sew down one side . . . and down the other side . . . PRESTO! . . the UNIQUE Invisible Zipper is installed

NO PLACKET TO CUT—TO PRESS—TO BASTE—
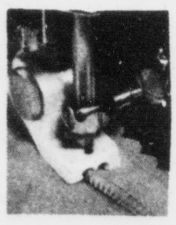
TO SEW



- The ONLY zipper foot attachment that makes possible 5-minute installation.
- The ONLY zipper foot attachment that fits all sewing machines. (Special foot for Singer slant needle.)
- The ONLY zipper foot that uses the zipper chain as a track . . . assuring a straight and even zipper installation.

When Do We Use an Underlining?

Underlining is a second layer of fabric sewn into the seams beneath the fashion fabric. When SHAPE-SUPPORT is desired, underlining must have firm body, resilience, and finish — Crisp underlining fills the bill. Soft will add body and protection to fabrics with a very soft hand.

Crisp is preferable for loosely woven fabrics for looks, wear and ease of construction. When you want to underline a loosely woven fabric that also needs SHAPE-SUPPORT, the above suggestions will apply. But if you are underlining only to protect the grain and shape of the loosely woven fabric, strong Soft underlining will be just the thing!

How-to-do-it

BEFORE YOU START: Remember, a professional job of underlining is the result of precision work. That does not mean that it is difficult—it is not. The only real secret ingredient is patience! If you follow the method suggested below, you will find that underlining is basically simple and that the results are well worth the little extra time it takes. Be sure the underlining fabric you choose has the same care requirements as your fashion fabric. A "dry clean only" underlining in a washable dress could be a real disaster!

Be sure your fashion fabric and underlining are perfectly on grain before you start cutting. Pinning the underlining fabric to a cutting board helps to hold the fabric grain perfectly during the pattern layout. Cut the fashion fabric and the underlining separately but identically.

Accurately transfer construction details from pattern onto underlining fabric.
Use tracing wheel and paper to mark darts, seam lines, centers (front and back), cross-markings (at notches), matching points (shown thusly — • — on your pattern) and trimming lines.

Join the two layers of each pattern piece using the following method and working at all times on a flat surface:

Pin underlining fabric to wrong side of fashion fabric matching straight grains of both fabrics. Pin both fabrics together matching points in the following order: corners, notches, curves, long seam edges and lower edge. Place pins at about 2-3 inch intervals. HINT: to preserve grain perfection of an underlined garment, hand baste key grain lines, centers, and all edges around garment piece but do not pick up the fabric while you are basting. Both layers of the piece must remain flat on the table until you have basted all the way around. (Keeping the piece flat prevents the layers slipping against each other—a problem that results in ripples on the outside of the garment.)

Stay-stitch underlining and fashion fabric together with directional stitching (note arrows). TRADE SECRET: Always machine stitch with finish side up. Stay-stitch in the following order:

- FOLD LINE OF DART (3-4 stitches beyond points)
- CURVES — ⅛" from seamline
- OUTSIDE EDGES — ⅛" from seamline

Baste-mark all construction details such as pocket lines, button and buttonhole placement through to right side fashion fabric.
Make darts through both layers by first sewing a line of machine basting through the center of the dart to the point—and one or two stitches beyond. Now, just make the dart as you usualy do.

Most darts may be handled as for single thickness construction. However, to reduce bulk in a dart made of heavier fabric—slash the dart and press open. When you underline, remember to allow a little extra time for pressing because you are pressing two layers. Proceed with construction according to the directions of the pattern guide sheet—as though you were working with a single layer of fabric.

When you hem your underlined garment you should catch only the underlining in the hemming stitches. Underlining gives you a truly invisible hem!

What is a Napped Fabric?

If you go by the dictionary, a napped fabric is one that has a hairy or downy surface.

But for purposes of dressmaking, use of a pattern and proper handling, a napped fabric is considered any fabric with the type surface that requires a so-called "one way" layout of pattern pieces.

A fabric with a true nap may be one with the simple hairy or downy surface as described in the dictionary. This is known as an "unbrushed" nap, and flannel would be one example. Or it may be one whose fibers have been brushed in one direction, such as wool broadcloth.

But also included among napped fabrics when speaking of them for dressmaking, are the "pile" fabrics—fabrics with a surface composed of fiber ends standing up in the air, such as velvet; and one-way designs in prints or plaids.

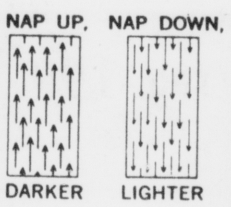
This means that any time you are planning to make something from one of the fabrics listed below, you must consider it a "napped" fabric and handle it as such.

Wool broadcloth
Camel's hair
Duvetyn
Suede cloth
Prints with designs that move in one direction*
Velours
Fleece
Fur cloth
Canton flannel
Velvet
Velveteen
Corduroy
Panne velvet
Satin including cotton satin
Plaid designs moving in one direction*

In Which Direction Should Nap Run?

When making a garment with true napped or pile fabric, should the nap run up or down on your body?

Nap or pile running up makes a fabric look darker; running down makes it look lighter and shinier. But it is generally considered best when the nap runs down for the true napped fabrics and panne velvet, and up for the pile weaves velvet, velveteen and corduroy.



Yardage Requirements for Napped Fabrics

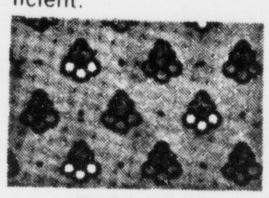
Yardage requirements for the garment you are making will be given on the back of your pattern envelope. Sometimes the envelope indicates yardage for fabrics "with or without nap"; sometimes there will be two different yardages given, one for fabrics with nap and one for fabrics without.

When you look in your instruction sheet at the diagram for laying the pattern on the fabric, you'll see that in diagrams given for napped fabrics the tops of all pattern pieces point in the same direction. To lay the pieces this way sometimes requires more fabric than if the pieces were arranged with tops pointing both up and down.

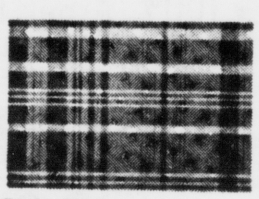
So if your pattern envelope should give yardage only for fabrics without nap, as sometimes happens, then if you want to use a napped fabric you must figure out how much extra (if any) fabric you must buy to make sure all pieces can be laid on pointing in the same direction.

The very best way to find this out is to lay your pattern pieces on a table just as though you were putting them on a fabric length, and measure the amount needed. But if you are already in the store and want to purchase your fabric immediately, you can get a pretty good idea by studying the diagram in your instruction sheet given for your size and the width of the material you want. Perhaps there is only one small piece that needs to be turned around, and so only a very small amount extra will be needed. If larger pieces, such as skirt patterns, must be relocated, more fabric will be necessary.

For most garments, from ⅜ yard to ¾ yard more, with an average of ½ yard, should be sufficient.

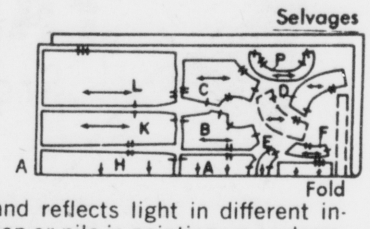


* Prints with designs that move in one direction



* Plaid designs moving in one direction

Cutting a Garment of Napped Fabric



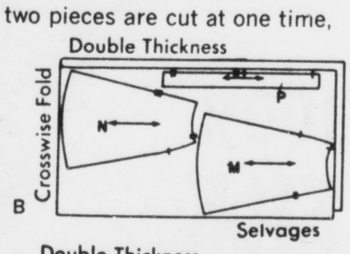
When you are using a napped fabric (and that means any of the fabrics listed on page 2), the pattern must be laid so the tops of all pieces point in the same direction, as in illustration A. Why?

With napped or pile fabrics, it is because the nap or pile catches and reflects light in different intensity, depending on whether the nap or pile is pointing up or down. And prints or plaids in designs moving in one direction would look like a patchwork quilt if the design did not point in the same direction throughout the garment.

If the pattern does not show a diagram for laying the pieces on napped fabric, here are the rules to follow for arranging the pattern pieces correctly:

1. Be sure all pieces have their tops pointing in the same direction, as in illustration A.

2. To cut on a double fold so that two pieces are cut at one time, a lengthwise fold must be used, as in illustration A. Do not lay the pattern pieces on a crosswise fold, as in illustration B, as similar pieces will end up with the nap running up on one and down on the other. (But see 3 below for cutting on the width.)



One notable exception to cutting on a crosswise fold is that of the full circle skirt, often made of velvet. Because of the extra width of the pattern piece, it must be cut on a crosswise fold; but in this skirt the nap or pile will not run up or down, but across the skirt. (Illustration C.)

3. If the width of your pattern pieces is such that they must be cut crosswise of the fabric, and you want to cut two thicknesses at one time, measure the length of your longest pattern piece and cut the fabric crosswise at that length. Then reverse the under layer so the bottom edge becomes the top and place upper and lower layers with right sides together. The nap or the pattern on both pieces now runs in the same direction.

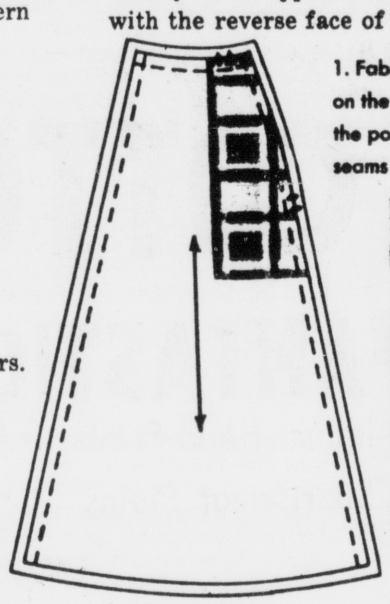
Tips on Success with Plaids

1. Choose a garment pattern in a simple design with fewest possible seams. Avoid circular yokes and many-gored styles. Small plaids are easiest to match and thus can be made up in a greater variety of styles.
2. Purchase extra yardage for matching plaids unless your pattern envelope states plaid yardage. For average size plaids, about ¼ yard more than the amount shown for plain fabrics will usually be sufficient. For large plaids, allow at least ½ yard extra. Or, count the number of locations in the pattern where the design must be matched, and buy one extra plaid block for each location.
3. Carefully plan the position of the most noticeable lengthwise and crosswise plaid bars. The lengthwise bar usually looks best at the center of the garment. Just below the shoulders is good for the crosswise.
4. If possible, avoid placing darts on the most noticeable plaid bars.
5. Before placing pattern pieces on two thicknesses of plaid fabric, pin the fabric layers together along the plaid lines in both directions so the plaids match exactly and will not shift during cutting.
6. When plaids are pleated, parts of the design will be folded in. Experiment by pinning up one end of the fabric in the planned pleat width to get the best finished effect.

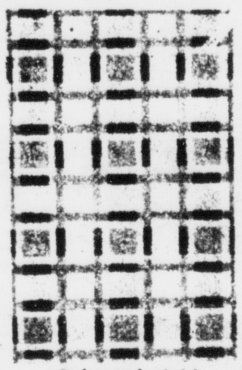
Matching Plaid Designs Throughout Entire Garment

1. First decide where the plaid units should appear on the finished garment. Study the pattern to learn all the areas where matching should be done – shoulder seams, center seams, armhole seams, the garment trimming, etc. This helps establish the plaid positioning for each piece.* Then lay first pattern piece on fabric in the desired position.
2. (See illustration.) At points where the design is to be matched on two adjoining pattern pieces, trace the design of the plaid onto the pattern tissue along the seam line. To keep the design as clear as possible, use a soft lead pencil for the lines and spaces and indicate the colors with colored crayons or by writing the color in the space. Place second pattern piece over first, matching notches having same numbers. Trace the design from the first piece to the second along seam line. Place second pattern piece onto a second area of fabric so the spaces and colors traced on the tissue match those on the fabric.
3. For plaids having right and wrong sides, consider the left and right body positions of the pieces before pinning on pattern. Whenever possible lay the pattern pieces on doubled fabric folded on either a lengthwise or crosswise thread.

(If working with an unbalanced plaid, read the special instructions for that type before folding the fabric.)
If, however, the pattern must be cut from a single thickness of fabric, first note on which side of the garment the pattern pieces will be used – that is, left or right of the garment center. If two pieces lie on the same side of the garment center, place them on the fabric with the same face of the pattern up. If they lie on opposite sides of the center, turn the second piece over with the reverse face of the pattern up.

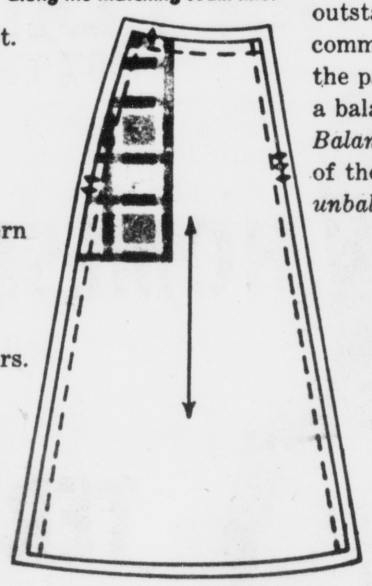


1. Fabric design traced on the pattern at the point where the seams will be matched.



Balanced plaid

2. The same design transferred to the second pattern piece along the matching seam line.



What Type Plaid Have You?

Design-wise there are balanced and unbalanced plaids. The difference lies in the way the bars of the plaid are spaced. The "left-and-right" of the plaid design refers to the spacing of the lengthwise bars. The "up-and-down" refers to the spacing of the crosswise bars. A balanced or even plaid, as shown, is designed with the plaid pattern exactly the same on both sides of the bar in the design center, in both the up-and-down and the left-and-right directions. Just remember to have the center of the plaid design come at the center of the garment, and to match the plaids at the planned locations. An unbalanced plaid is not the same on both sides of the outstanding bar. There are four types of unbalanced plaids commonly used and they require special preparation in laying the pattern pieces on the fabric to achieve a balanced effect in the finished garment. Balanced plaids have been used in the illustrations of the following special instructions. For cutting unbalanced plaids, see the reverse side of this sheet.

Marking Construction Details

When plaids have a right and wrong side, it is easier to determine matching points if the fabric is folded right side out for cutting. But if you mark construction details with dressmaker's tracing paper, be sure to mark on the wrong side. Place two pieces of the paper between the two layers of fabric, one piece face up against the wrong side of the top layer and the other face down against the wrong side of the bottom layer.

Tips on Success with Plaids

1. Choose a garment pattern in a simple design with fewest possible seams. Avoid circular yokes and many-gored styles. Small plaids are easiest to match and thus can be made up in a greater variety of styles.
2. Purchase extra yardage for matching plaids unless your pattern envelope states plaid yardage. For average size plaids, about ¼ yard more than the amount shown for plain fabrics will usually be sufficient. For large plaids, allow at least ½ yard extra. Or, count the number of locations in the pattern where the design must be matched, and buy one extra plaid block for each location.
3. Carefully plan the position of the most noticeable lengthwise and crosswise plaid bars. The lengthwise bar usually looks best at the center of the garment. Just below the shoulders is good for the crosswise.
4. If possible, avoid placing darts on the most noticeable plaid bars.
5. Before placing pattern pieces on two thicknesses of plaid fabric, pin the fabric layers together along the plaid lines in both directions so the plaids match exactly and will not shift during cutting.
6. When plaids are pleated, parts of the design will be folded in. Experiment by pinning up one end of the fabric in the planned pleat width to get the best finished effect.

Matching Plaid Designs Throughout Entire Garment

1. First decide where the plaid units should appear on the finished garment. Study the pattern to learn all the areas where matching should be done – shoulder seams, center seams, armhole seams, the garment trimming, etc. This helps establish the plaid positioning for each piece.* Then lay first pattern piece on fabric in the desired position.
2. (See illustration.) At points where the design is to be matched on two adjoining pattern pieces, trace the design of the plaid onto the pattern tissue along the seam line. To keep the design as clear as possible, use a soft lead pencil for the lines and spaces and indicate the colors with colored crayons or by writing the color in the space. Place second pattern piece over first, matching notches having same numbers. Trace the design from the first piece to the second along seam line. Place second pattern piece onto a second area of fabric so the spaces and colors traced on the tissue match those on the fabric.

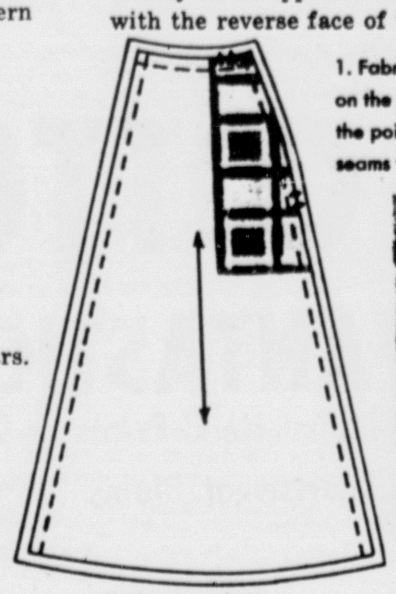
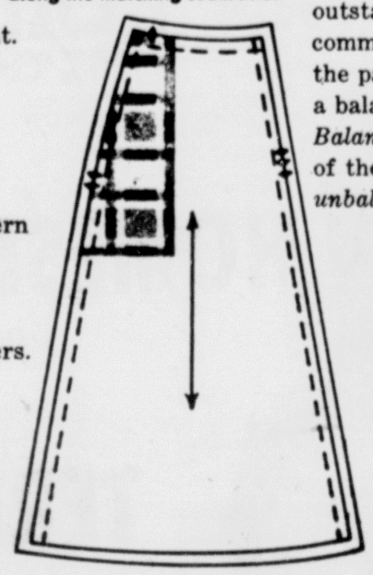
(If working with an unbalanced plaid, read the special instructions for that type before folding the fabric.)
If, however, the pattern must be cut from a single thickness of fabric, first note on which side of the garment the pattern pieces will be used – that is, left or right of the garment center. If two pieces lie on the same side of the garment center, place them on the fabric with the same face of the pattern up. If they lie on opposite sides of the center, turn the second piece over with the reverse face of the pattern up.

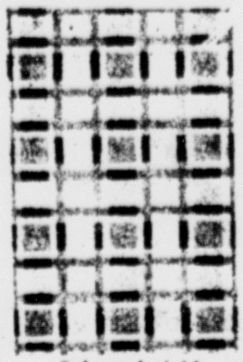


1. Fabric design traced on the pattern at the point where the seams will be matched.

2. The same design transferred to the second pattern piece along the matching seam line.



What Type Plaid Have You?



Balanced plaid

Design-wise there are balanced and unbalanced plaids. The difference lies in the way the bars of the plaid are spaced. The "left-and-right" of the plaid design refers to the spacing of the lengthwise bars. The "up-and-down" refers to the spacing of the crosswise bars. A balanced or even plaid, as shown, is designed with the plaid pattern exactly the same on both sides of the bar in the design center, in both the up-and-down and the left-and-right directions. Just remember to have the center of the plaid design come at the center of the garment, and to match the plaids at the planned locations. An unbalanced plaid is not the same on both sides of the outstanding bar. There are four types of unbalanced plaids commonly used and they require special preparation in laying the pattern pieces on the fabric to achieve a balanced effect in the finished garment. Balanced plaids have been used in the illustrations of the following special instructions. For cutting unbalanced plaids, see the reverse side of this sheet.

Marking Construction Details

When plaids have a right and wrong side, it is easier to determine matching points if the fabric is folded right side out for cutting. But if you mark construction details with dressmaker's tracing paper, be sure to mark on the wrong side. Place two pieces of the paper between the two layers of fabric, one piece face up against the wrong side of the top layer and the other face down against the wrong side of the bottom layer.
